DIED SMITH—Suddenly, at his late residence, Bower Avenue, Acton, Ontario, on Saturday morning, June 17, 1933, William Henry Smith, beloved husband of Margaret Lynd, in his 68th year.

McBAC—At her late residence, lot 19, concession 2, Exquisite Township, on Sunday, June 18, 1933, Eliza Creamer, beloved wife of James Allan McElaan, in her 40th year.

IN MEMORIAM WILSON—In loving memory of our dearly beloved wife and mother, Mrs. George T. Wilson, Knatchbull, who departed this life, June 23, 1932. Loved in life, remembered in death. Treasured in memory as one of the best.

WALLACE—In loving memory of our dear parents, Mr. T. B. Wallace, who passed away May 18, 1929, and Mrs. T. B. Wallace, who died June 28, 1932. We cannot forget you, our own parents, dear. Your memory grows sweeter, year after year. You cannot return, so tears would be vain. But this we are sure, we shall meet you again.

This and that

Half of 1933 is almost gone. Yesterday was the longest day of the year. The lawn hose is being brought into use again. The weather seems to be either one extreme or the other. Just one more week of school until the long summer vacation. The hay operations are now in force in the farming community. With the advent of the warm days the mosquitoes came back again. Best values and newest goods are sold only in the advertising columns. Nine fire brigades assembled at Oakville last Sunday for the annual church parade. Quite a number from Acton attended the 113th anniversary services of Boston Church on Sunday. All loyal citizens will want to celebrate the Dominion's birthday on July 1—just a week from Saturday. The Young Women's Auxiliary of Knox Church held an enjoyable picnic in the Park here last evening.

While working at the Beardmore Leathers Ltd., on Saturday, Mr. John Greer had the misfortune to sprain his ankle. A rustic stone fence is replacing the hedge surrounding the Stephenson property at the corner of Willow and River Streets. Harold Mooney had the misfortune to have the index finger of his left hand badly lacerated while at work at the Hewitson plant, on Monday. Dominion Day is just a week from Saturday. Everyone about town and country will want to take in the events being planned by the Baseball Club. Now if it could be arranged that Agnes McPhail or Capt. Philpott could be judges for the Hepburn-McCrae debate, a no-decision bout would be assured. The municipal officers were not long in applying the calcium chloride to the roadways when the shipment was received. It is greatly appreciated in abating the dust nuisance. More and more the merchants who failed to keep advertising their services and goods are letting business slip by their door or out of town to the chap who tells about what he has to sell. The Georgetown Lions Club Boys' Band visited Acton on Tuesday evening and played several numbers on the street. They are a promising lot of musicians and the visit was enjoyed by many. Miss Marion Wallace, of Toronto, and Fred Little, of Milton, have been engaged as teachers for Milton High School for ensuing terms. Miss Wallace succeeds Miss Cleaver, of Burlington, while Mr. Little succeeds Miss Kelly, of Stratford. Among the homes we noted about town this week that have been improved by re-painting, are Mr. August Anderson's, Church Street; Mr. R. R. Arnold's, Mill Street; Mr. W. R. Kennedy's, Church Street; and Mr. James Mackie's, Church Street. The Acton U. F. Y. P. O. are staging their local play "Deacon Dobbs" in Monticello on Monday night, under the auspices of the United Church there. This is being given in connection with the fiftieth anniversary of the church and part of the garden party programme. We are in receipt of a $5 bill from a Park Press reader, to assist Mr. and Mrs. Haloweth in re-establishing their home after the fire last week. This unknown donor says: "If you have never been burned out, you don't know what a lot of grief it is. Will you see that the enclosed $5 reaches them O. K., and I wish it were a lot more." We'll gladly take our part of the connecting link.

Stevens Point, Wis., July 16, 1933 Dear Arlo: Strange the ramifications of human relationships and acquaintanceships on this western continent. Two days ago I accepted my pastor's invitation to go with him to his annual District Meeting at Clintonville, fifty miles away. Districts are very large—the place of meeting was about the centre, this year. One of the features of the day's doings was a supper given by the Men's Club of the church. The two speakers at the close were the Bishop of the (St. Paul) area, whose range covers the Dakotas, Minnesota and Wisconsin; the other, Dr. Denyes, an educationist, formerly of San Francisco, and also a mission field in the Island of Borneo, but now a professor in Lawrence College, Appleton, Wisconsin.

The similarity of the name to that of my old-time friend, Inspector Denyes, of Halton County, led me to seek an interview at the close, and upon asking him if he had any relatives in Ontario, he said, "The woods are full of them." To come to particulars, he says Inspector Denyes is a second cousin, and he thinks there is another inspector near Windsor. Three of the long-ago progenitors of the family had, after the Revolutionary War, obtained grants of land from the British Government, and settled, largely in the Belleville country. This gentleman gave a thrilling address on the influence of environment on child character, as shown, in one instance from Borneo, in its degrading character, and reversed, elsewhere. I thought Inspector Denyes and his friends amongst the Acton people might be interested.

Cordially, J. S. COLEMAN.

A Selection of News Items

Knox Guild Picnic A most enjoyable outing at LaSalle Park, Hamilton, featured the picnic of the Young People's Guild of Knox Church on Saturday last. The young people, with their friends to the number of 90, spent the afternoon in ideal summer surroundings and swimming, boating and sports were the items of the day.

Parkview Athletic Club The regular meeting of the Club was held on Tuesday evening and on account of the heat, the meeting was held outdoors. After a half hour of physical exercise and gymnastics, a short business meeting was held. It was decided to cancel all business meetings during examination time, so that the Club meetings will not effect the studies. However, sporting activities will be carried on as usual. On Saturday every member is asked to bring some material suitable for making a gymnastic mat, and also for erecting the athletic stand. To every student writing their summer exams the Parkview Club wish the best of luck and success.

Wedded at St. Alban's Church A quiet but pretty wedding took place at St. Alban's Church in Acton, by the Rev. P. A. Sawyer, L. Th., on Wednesday evening, June 21, at seven o'clock, when Muriel Gladys, second youngest daughter of Mr. Oakley and the late Mrs. Albert Oakley was joined in holy wedlock to Mr. William Alexander Toppling, of Toronto. The bride, wearing a powder blue gown and blue hat to match, entered the church on the arm of her brother-in-law, Mr. Jack Harris. Miss Margaret Bailey, the bride's attendant, wore a dark navy blue gown, with blue hat. Mr. Albert Harris acted as best man. Several friends of the bride from the T. Eaton Company, of Toronto, attended the wedding. A reception was held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. Harris, Church Street, Acton, following the ceremony.

The Thompson Family Re-union Descendants of Major George Thompson and William Thompson, who settled on farms in Esqueving Township nearly 155 years ago—held their fourth re-union in Georgetown Park on Saturday. Norman Thompson, who is working the farm originally cleared by William Thompson, was a guest, accompanied by William D. Johnson, the sachem of the clan, who won the prize for the oldest man present. Mr. Johnson is 75 years of age. Mrs. Johnson was awarded a memento as the oldest lady in point of years. The youngest member of the family was Joan Carruthers, aged two months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claire Carruthers. The family elected the following officers: Honorary President, Mrs. J. J. Thompson, Georgetown; President, Norman Thompson, Stewarttown; Vice-Presidents, Wilfred Thompson, Hornby, Mr. Edith Thompson, Toronto, Wesley Thompson, Orillia, William Orr, Hillsburg; Secretary-Treasurer, Chas. HIS UNSTEADY NIGHT The servant girl had a caller the other night—a girl caller—who worked for a family farther down the street. And the woman of the house overheard this conversation—it was about "fellers," as usual: "I seen Joe out with you last night," accused the caller. "The other girl admitted it." "He's your steady feller now, ain't he?" pursued the first speaker. "I guess he is—that is, on Thursday nights." "Aw, I seen him with you on Saturday nights, too." "Yes, but he ain't never steady on Saturday nights."

REAL BUSINESS EYE Guide: "It was in this room that the Duke of Wellington received his commission." American Tourist (suddenly interested): "How much was it?"
