Retiring After Fifty Years in Ministry (Continued from Page One)

pastoral relations are severed. You have moved among us with such Christian grace and influence that we feel we are under a profound debt of gratitude to you. Since we have learned of the action of Conference in retiring you from the active work of the ministry, we have had time to look back over our happy association. You, Mr. Caldwell, have proved yourself to be "a man sent of God." In every function of your ministry we have felt that we had a sincere friend, a wise counsellor, and a consistent example. You have entered heartly into our social life, sharing our joys and our sorrows. Your visits in our home, have always been helpful and have left a decided uplift to our family circles. Your sincere and practical discourses on the Sabbath Day have led us to a greater appreciation of what it means to live the Christian life. Your kindly advice and admonition have proved a great inspiration to our young people and the children of our Sunday schools. Your abundant faith in the Gospel and your hope in Jesus have always brought cheer and spiritual comfort to those of declining years. We feel very keenly our separation from these uplifting influences.

In this ministry of helpfulness, you, Mrs. Caldwell, have greatly assisted your worthy husband. Your time and talents have been very freeby given for the good of the people whom you unitedly served. Every social gathering has been gladened by your talents and your ability to entertain. There is no department in our church life in which you have not been vitally interested. We shall greatly miss you in our Ladies' Aid. Women's Missionary Societies, W. C. T. We would like also to express our appreciation of the influence of your family and the services that have been so graciously rendered by every member. Your home is a striking testimony to the devotion and training of godly parents. The fact that you have, in far China, two devoted missionaries. Mrs. Agnew and her esteemed and honored husband. Dr. Agnew, is a source of justifiable pride and satisfaction. And in our home land, and in our immediate community, the other members are finding their loy in serving God and the church. They all have been deeply interested in the work of the Master among us, for which we are truly grateful.

The time has come for these happy, personal associations to discontinue. And soon we are to welcome another pastor and his wife. We heartily congratulate you in closing a long, faithful, honored and successful ministry. at your leaving, but, on the other hand, we are grateful to God and the church for your sojourn with us. The earnest prayer of our congregations is that your eventide may be visited with the Divine Presence in a large measure. Before going from us, we wish to present to you, this mantel clock, as a small expression of the sincere regard in which you are held by the members and friends of our Circuit. May its chimes be pleasant music to your cars, during your twilight days, and may they remind you of many hearts made happy and hopeful by your kind and sympathetic ministry. Mrs. Buck:

To you we would like to express our thanks and appreciation for your personal interest in the work of the Circuit. You have always been ready to help whenever the opportunity presented itself. We shall greatly miss your presence among us. And would ask you to accept this gift as a slight evidence of the large place you occupy in our affection.

Signed on behalf of the Congregations of Limehouse, Churchill and Glenwilliams.

The meeting was closed by the singing of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," and the benediction, by Rev. Bradshaw, President of Conference.

The large crowd, which complete'v filled the church and overflowed into the yard, bears remarkable testimony to the work and worth of Mr. and Mrs Caldwell and family. The immense gathering was entertained to a buffet lunch at the close, which was greatly enjoyed, and thus a most interesting and memorable evening was concluded.
