THE REAL WINNERS

Some schools give prizes, not to the student who has the highest marks, but to the one whose work shows the most improvement. It is a pity that more of them do not recognize the part which is really important. It is the student who is improving who has reason to be proud Life has prizes for the brilliant, for the talented, for the occasional genius, Mrs. W. Head, accompanied by friends, but this class does not monopolize the prizes by any means. In fact the greatest number of prizes go to the people who have no especial talent, and could not be Class. called brilliant by their most projudiced friends; but they keep ever-lastingly at it, and keep doing a little better. Every year they show improvement. They are the real winners.
