ROCKWOOD

The lawn party, held under the auspices of St. John's Church last Thursday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Hamilton, was a successful affair. The weather was all that could be desired and the grounds proved to be an ideal spot for such an occasion. The ladies of the church deserve credit for a bountiful repast, which was much enjoyed by the large number present. During the evening, at intermission in the programme the booth was well patronized, and over $50 was realized for the church from proceeds of the booth and supper as well as admission to the entertainment. The following is the programme, at which Rev. P. A. Sawyer acted as chairman: Piano duett, Mrs. J. Ayles and Miss M Watson; solo, Mr. Fred Sintzel; selection a quartette composed of Messrs. B. Freure, A. Gray, Dr. Waller and A. Thomas; recitation, Mrs. Fred Oakes; solo, Miss Viola Waller; solo, Rev. Mr. Sawyer: piano solo, Mrs. J. Ayles; solo, Mrs. (Col.) Crawford; recitation, Miss Edna Pearen; instrumental duett, Dr Waller and A. Laird; solo, Mr. Fred Sintzel: recitation, Mrs. Fred Oakes; selection by the quartette. In the absence of Rev. W. J. Taylor of the United Church last Sunday, Rev. John Little conducted services. At the morning service Mr. Fred Sintzel contributed a solo, which was much appreciated.
