To Rev. and Mrs. P. A. Sawyer: We are gathered together to-night as one big family in order to express our sincere gratitude for one, who has been so near and dear to us in our religious circle and to say a personal good-bye and good luck and success in your future parish. Under the guidance of our esteemed Rector, St. John's Church has stood the test for the past years in the manner of which we should all be proud. The beautification of the grounds surrounding the church is one factor which should be mentioned. Also the interior decorating of the church which was begun and completed during the time of such hardship and depression. The result being that we of St. John's are now possessors of a most beautiful place of worship. and one of which we are justly

Another fact that must not be over looked is the time and labor spent with the cholr, which has made great strides in improvement during these latter years. We must not forget the financial standing of this church to date, which is extraordinarily good, in consideration of the period of economic depression, which has been experienced throughout the entire world during the last four to five
