IN MEMORIAM

SWACHEHAMER—In loving memory of my dear husband, William E. Swachehamer, who passed away September 19, 1932.

LOVING WIFE

I watched him suffer, hour by hour, It caused me bitter grief, To see him slowly pine away, And could not give relief.

AMICABLE SETTLEMENT

Of Complicated Question Regarding Maintenance of Ditches Between Eramosa and Garafraxa Townships.

A complicated ditch question of many years standing was amicably settled at a meeting called by W. H. Cormie, of the Township of Nichol, held at the west corner of the Township of Eramosa...

GEORGETOWN

Our teachers at the High School are working until 4:30 these days, owing to there being one teacher less on the staff this term.

Colonel and Mrs. James Pedley and children, of Toronto, were visitors at Dr. H. G. Reed's this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. McEachern and son, Ronald, are leaving to-morrow for a holiday at the home of Mr. A. E. Webster, Oakwood.

Mr. Elvin O'Neill has returned to his home in Oakwood, after holidaying the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lilliole.

Mrs. (Dr.) Gollop, who underwent an operation at Gracebridge Hospital recently, was able to return to her home in Georgetown on Sunday, where she is now convalescing nicely.

Mr. J. B. Lakely, editor and proprietor of the Pompano News, and Mrs. Lake, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Feller. On Sunday morning at St. George's Church, Mr. Lake sang a solo, "Open the Gates of the Temple," which was very much enjoyed by the congregation.

There was a large gathering at the Park on Sunday evening, when Acton Citizens' Band, under the able leadership of Mr. Charles Mason, played an excellent programme, which was very much appreciated by all present.

Two French horn solo by Miss Lottie Mason, and the cornet solo by Mr. Charles Landsborough. Both artists were heartily applauded and very graciously responded to encores. Acton has a good band and our citizens appreciate very much the good-will programme played on Sunday evening.—Herald.

A LONG RIDE

"I have been on this train 10 years," said the conductor of a train that had just passed through Oakawa.

"Where did you get on?" asked the third passenger.

"I don't know," replied the conductor. "I've been on this train 10 years."

"That's a long time," said the third passenger.

"Yes, it is," replied the conductor. "I've been on this train 10 years."

Entered Into Rest

JOSEPH MOORE, Brampton Joseph Moore, retired farmer, died at Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton, on Sunday, in his 81st year, following a lengthy illness. The late Mr. Moore was born in Centreville, and spent the greater part of his life at farming in Peel and Halton Counties, moving to Brampton 14 years ago on his retirement from active work. He was a member of Grace United Church and a Conservative. Surviving are one son, George, of Brampton; a daughter, Mrs. George Leslie, of Georgetown; a brother, William Moore, of London; a sister, Mrs. Jane Dent, of Waverley, and four grandchildren.

MRS. STANLEY M. CRIPPS

A bright little home, which was established within the past two years in Acton, was deeply saddened when the wife and mother was called home on Wednesday of last week, in the person of Mrs. Stanley M. Cripps, 1931 and Mrs. Cripps was just in her twenty-fifth year. She was prior to her marriage, Clara Margaret VanWyck, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. VanWyck, of Hillsburg, and has resided in Acton for the past few years. Besides the deceased, she leaves a son, Stanley M. Cripps, and a daughter, Mrs. H. VanWyck, of Hillsburg, and four brothers, Mrs. F. Patter-son, Brampton; Mrs. Groh, Windsor; Mr. Howard VanWyck, Acton; Mr. Thomas VanWyck, of Fergus; and Messrs. Joseph and Frank, at home; and the parents, in Hillsburg. To all these who have been so sadly bereft the sympathy of the community goes out. Mrs. Cripps was a member of the Baptist Church and the service on Saturday afternoon was conducted privately at the home and followed by service in the Baptist Church, conducted by Rev. J. Boyd, of Toronto, a former pastor, and Rev. C. L. Gifford. It was largely attended by many friends from the district and from Flesherton, Toronto, Caledonia, Hillsburg, Fergus, Brampton, Guelph, Kitchener, Windsor, Eyrerton, Weston, Orton and Walkerton. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Joseph Hall, John and Haines Root, of Hillsburg; Leslie Martin, Aurora; and Joseph Reid and Ernest Coles, of Acton. The flower-bearers were: Messrs. Fred Hilton, Cliff, Reid, George Hall, Chas. Landsborough, Chester O. Plank, Jas. Dobbie, Interment was made in Fairview Cemetery, Acton. Among the floral tributes were offerings from: F. Patter-son, VanWyck family, friends, wreaths, Cripps family, J. W. Hewston, Employees, Dry Loft of Beardmore Leathers Ltd., Baptist Church, Acton; Moore family, Guelph; Spray, Ramshaws; Baptist Young People; Mrs. M. Robson, Brampton; Violet Edith Harrison, Brampton; Mrs. White and family, Toronto; Fred and Edna Hilton, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. A. Moore, Guelph; Dobbie family; Coles family, Wm. MacArthur family.
