

SOCIAL ITEMS OF THE WEEK

The Visitors to Acton Homes and the Visits of Actonians— Little Items of Personal Interest

Mr. Melvin Dron was home from Hamilton for the holiday. Master Billy McLean, of Weston, visited with Mrs. Wm. Johnston.

Mr. R. A. Gordon, Toronto; Mr. D. VanNorman, Guelph; Mr. E. D. Coy, Toronto; Miss Isabel Laska, Guelph; Mr. S. Coy, Galt; were holiday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Lantz.

Dr. E. F. Mowat, of Toronto, spent the week-end at his home here. Miss Gladys Agar, of Stratford Normal School, was home for the holiday. Miss Winifred Field, of Orangeville, spent the week-end at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Brownlee, George and Francis, Mr. and Mrs. E. Swackhamer, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Walls and Master Ray, of Toronto, visited at the home of Mr. F. Swackhamer over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. John Scriven and Margaret spent Sunday with friends in London.

By consuming fresh yeast and cod-liver oil, E. Kistka, of the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station at Wooster, Ohio, has found an effective means of combating hay fever.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bydall, of Toronto, called on Mr. and Mrs. F. Swackhamer on the holiday.

TO COMBAT HAY FEVER. Scores of hay fever sufferers have tried this remedy and found it effective in getting quick relief.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Arnold and Beverly spent the week-end with relatives and friends in Toronto.

NOT TOO OLD TO CHANGE. An intimate friend of his has said that after John Burroughs was seventy years old, he radically changed his opinions on some very important subjects.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Johnstone, Miss Doris and Master Elliot, of London, spent the Thanksgiving holiday with relatives here.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR PRISON REFORM. In the last two or three years the country has been afflicted with undisciplined stories of maladministration of justice.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Landsborough, of Hyde Park, called on his brother, Mr. Wm. Landsborough, on Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Baxter and Donnie, of Toronto, spent Thanksgiving at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mowat.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Landsborough, of Guelph, spent the Thanksgiving holiday with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Landsborough.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hynds, Miss Helen Hynds, Miss Marjory Garden, and Mr. Charles Bell, of Toronto, called on Acton friends on the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Porter, Sonny and Jean and Miss Isabel Tait, of Toronto, spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Joe McCaschie.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Landsborough, Mr. Charles Landsborough and Miss Marjory Landsborough, of Hyde Park, spent Sunday with Toronto relatives.

Miss Beth Harrison was home from Whitby Ladies College for Thanksgiving. Her friend Miss Marie Ward, of New Liskeard, spent the holiday with her.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. E. Terry and two little girls, Joan Marylin and Donna Elaine, of Bradford, were the guests of Mrs. Robert Bennett and Miss M. Z. Bennett over the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Adler, of Petrolia; Mr. and Mrs. N. Adler and son, of Guelph; and Mr. and Mrs. W. Kaplan, of Toronto, spent Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Pallant.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Quinn, of Orange, Mass., are here on a visit to his parents and other relatives.

Neighborhood News

(Continued from Page Four)

NASSAGAWEYA

Mrs. Marian Wilson, Guelph road, underwent an operation for gottie in Guelph General Hospital a few days ago. She is doing as well as can be expected.

MILTON

Miss Helen Urell has returned home after completing a business course at the United Business Schools at Toronto.

OAKVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Quinn, of Orange, Mass., are here on a visit to his parents and other relatives.

BURLINGTON

Fred Bell & Sons have completed their cold storage plant, adjoining their packing house on Brant Street.

GEORGETOWN

Pupils of Georgetown High School took part in the Field Day at Acton today. A number of people were disappointed when they came to town yesterday and found there was no Fall Fair.

ONE MUST BE HIS

Judge—"You say this man robbed you. Can you distinguish any of your property amongst this heap?"

HISTORY OF TURNIPS AND MANGLES

The history of field roots, as certain vegetable crops are called in Canadian agriculture, is an interesting one.

REVERSING THE CASE

Russell Sage at one time thought of going to law. He went to a lawyer, stated his case, and asked him if he had any chance of winning.

OCTOBER SOWN FLOWER SEEDS

Many herbaceous plants are easily raised from seed and this is much the most economical way to stock a border.

TO COMBAT HAY FEVER

By consuming fresh yeast and cod-liver oil, E. Kistka, of the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station at Wooster, Ohio, has found an effective means of combating hay fever.

NOT TOO OLD TO CHANGE

An intimate friend of his has said that after John Burroughs was seventy years old, he radically changed his opinions on some very important subjects.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR PRISON REFORM

In the last two or three years the country has been afflicted with undisciplined stories of maladministration of justice.

WELCOME

"Hi!" shouted the porter as the old gentleman threw a banana skin on the platform. "The company won't have this, you know!"

GETTING READY TO SHOW OFF

Wife: "Hurry up, can't you? I simply must go out and show off my new costume." Hubby: "Wait a minute. I simply must get the fringes off my coat cuffs."

"VOLTAIRE" With George Arliss At Gregory Theatre - October 17 and 18 TWO NIGHTS—TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY PROCEEDS ARE TO RAISE FUNDS FOR ATHLETIC ACTIVITIES OF ACTON HIGH SCHOOL

Wood's Grocery THE FAMILY GROCER SUCCESSOR TO NELSON & CO. "OUR AID" Good Merchandise — Low Prices — Good Service TELEPHONES: 37 ACTON; RESIDENCE, 130

Engraved Cards Seasons Greetings from Mrs. D. A. Durell PROUD We are quite proud of THE FREE PRESS first showing of Christmas Cards, which are now ready. You see it we believe you will agree with us that it is the finest line you have ever had the opportunity of viewing.

GREGORY THEATRE FRIDAY, OCTOBER 13 "FACE IN THE SKY" With Spencer Tracy as the devil-may-care poster artist, dreaming of big city success, and Marion Nixon, as the wistful girl dreaming of romance.

GREGORY THEATRE FRIDAY, OCTOBER 13 "FACE IN THE SKY" With Spencer Tracy as the devil-may-care poster artist, dreaming of big city success, and Marion Nixon, as the wistful girl dreaming of romance.