Entered Into Rest

DAVID TAYLOR, Georgetown. The funeral took place to Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown, on Monday afternoon of David John Taylor, son of the late Isaac Taylor, of Hamilton, who died on Saturday at his home in Georgetown in his 84th year, after a brief illness.

DAVID ALEXANDER McCUTCHEON. Friends in this district were indeed grieved to learn last week that the injuries sustained by Mr. David McCutcheon, when he fell from an apple tree, had proved fatal and he had passed away on Thursday last in the Guelph General Hospital.

This and that

Remembrance Day is a week from Saturday. This is November, the eleventh month of 1933. The days of Indian Summer followed the first real taste of winter weather.

It seems to us that Christmases are a lot closer together than they used to be. Many apples still on the trees were spoiled by the severe weather last week.

The Christmas shopping must soon be arranged if it is to be completed early. The shrubbery and hedge at the Soldiers' Memorial has been neatly trimmed.

Plenty of fun but not a great deal of property damage made the Halloween of 1933 very sanely observed here. The demands to shell out were liberally met as long as the supply lasted.

Municipal nominations are just three weeks from Monday. Not much talk of an exciting municipal election here yet. Pre-Christmas values are now being offered in the advertisements.

Mr. H. N. Farmer's fine new law office on Mill Street has been completed and he removed to the new quarters yesterday. Old Man Depression and old Mr. Rheumatism really aren't as old and decrepit as they appeared at the Arena on Tuesday evening.

An old saying is that we get either three days or three weeks of Indian Summer. Most folks hope the latter will be the case. May we remind you that the label on your Pass Pass bears the date of expiration.

There were still some individuals left who had upsetting ideas on Halloween and employed the ideas, no matter of what consequence they were. Harold Wiles' confectionery and lunch rooms are being redecorated and changed which will make quite an improvement in the interior of these premises.

Judging from the news items in papers in other centres, it would appear that Remembrance Day was not going to be very generally observed as a complete holiday. The Lakeside Chapter, I. O. O. F., held their November meeting at the home of Miss Annie Dunn, on Wednesday evening.

During a visit in Toronto, Mrs. John Gibson had the misfortune to fall down several steps and break her right wrist. Mrs. Gibson has returned home and is making as favorable progress as can be expected. Little Lois Fryer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Fryer, entertained twenty of her school friends at a birthday party on Tuesday.

In the report published of the John Milton Chapter of the I. O. O. F. held in Milton, Mrs. McCleary's name was given as seconding the vote of thanks to the Chapter from the Acton Chapter. This should have been reported moved by Mrs. Cooper and seconded by Mrs. W. Nesbit. We regret the error in the account.

FAULT FINDING

Are you inclined to be a fault-finder? If so you may at once put away the idea that you will ever be either happy or generally beloved. The fault-finding, discontented individual is a perpetual cloud, constantly coming between us and the sun.

TIMES HAVE CHANGED

A manuscript which has been on view at the Bodleian Library recently helps to show how times have changed. It is a sheet of paper on which Lord Clarendon, then Charles II's chief minister, asked the King—during a Privy Council meeting—for permission to visit Tunbridge for a day or two.

ELECTRIC CATFISH

The electric catfish, which lives in Nigerian waters, possesses powerful electric organs in its body which it uses in a strange way. When it is hungry it swims around until it sees a bigger fish, having a meal. It cruises casually by, as if seeking any stray crumbs from the big fellow's feast, and as it does so it brushes his victim with its fins.
