EDEN MILLS

The dedication and unveiling of the Memorial Gates of Eden Mills Cemetery will be held on Sunday, November 12, at 2:00 p. m. sharp. The dedication service will be held in the church, when Rev. Dr. McMillan, of Knox Church, Guelph; Archdeacon Scovill, of St. George's Church, Guelph; Rev. John Little, Rockwood; Rev. M. O. Gaudier, The United-Methodists, will take part. The unweavers of the local churches will lead in the service of songs. Following the service in the church the unveiling of the gates will take place. Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle and family are moving to Guelph in the near future. Their leaving is a loss to the community in general.

BOTH WANT DOING

"Fa, what's the difference between a statesman and a politician?" "A statesman, my son, wants to do something for his country, a politician wants his country to do something for him." NO USE Dear Old Lady: "Why don't you try to keep out of prison?" Tough: "I did, and got three months extra for resisting a constable."

ERIN

Miss Florence Steel, of Thornbury, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Steel. Mr. and Mrs. F. Young, of Toronto, spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. H. Arscott. Mr. Wilfred Grundy, of Brantford, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Grundy. Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Sinclair have moved to the residence of the latter's father, Mr. J. R. Smith. Quite a number from this community attended the funeral of the late David McCutcheon at Guelph last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Benham and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Overland were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Bartlett at Brantford last Saturday. The occasion was in honor of the birthday of the former. Mr. Kenneth McDougall suffered painful injuries to his left hand on Saturday last, while operating a machine at Muddell's mill. While quite painful, he was fortunate to escape much more severe injury as his hand became entangled in a number of revolving knives. He will be out duty for a time.—Advocate.

MILTON

Mrs. Ed. Agnew, of Campbellville, has returned home from Chicago, after spending a very enjoyable holiday with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Paul and son, Clifford, and Mrs. Paul's father, Mr. Partridge, of Nassagaweya Township, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Barton. Mr. and Mrs. R. Reynolds, of London, and Miss Mary Clements, of Toronto, were home over the week-end to attend the marriage of their brother, Allan Clements.

The engagement is announced of Kathleen Ena Bentley, R. N., elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bentley, of Milton, Ontario, to Dr. Wilfrid James Boyd, of Harrow, Ontario. Messrs. J. M. Denyes and P. D. Shorey attended a banquet of the Men Teachers' Federation of Halton County at the Brant Inn, Burlington, on Wednesday evening.

Edith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jones, who underwent an operation on her right arm in the Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto, on Monday morning last, is, we are pleased to say, doing nicely. It is to be hoped she will have a speedy recovery.

The funeral of the late John Richard Maude took place on Saturday afternoon to Evergreen Cemetery, the service being conducted by Rev. Canon Natfel. The members of Milton I. O. O. F., No. 92, attended in a body, and the floral tributes were many and beautiful. Besides his widow, one son and daughter, deceased is survived by one brother, Leonard Maude, Milton.—Champion.

There has been no case of dourine, a deadly disease of horses, in Canada for the past fourteen years.

ROCKWOOD

The artists in the three act play, "Sophronia's Wedding," under the auspices of the W. A. of the United Church, held in the Town Hall, were greeted with a full house and no pains or efforts were spared to make the affair a success. The artists were all dressed in old fashion attire and presented an amusing sight to the audience. Before the play commenced, Mrs. J. Ayles gave a selection on the piano and between the acts different numbers were enjoyed by a male quartette, composed of Messrs. Albert Gray, J. A. Little, Frank Moore and Fred Simble. An instrumental duet by Dr. K. E. Walker and Allan Leiby, reading by Mrs. Norriah Wilson, and a solo by Mr. George Plummer. The following was the cast of characters: Mrs. Urth Snodgrass, President of the Uplift Society, Mrs. R. Hewat; Seraphina, her "angel" daughter, Mrs. A. M. McPherson; Mrs. Abner Doddridge, fat and gossipy, Miss G. Hanna; Miss Mossy Spriggs, rather an "old drop", Mrs. V. Watson; Mrs. Joshua Perkins, a peace maker; Mrs. L. Guild, Mrs. Elmer Killenquik, the new doctor's wife, Mrs. Geo. Gordon; Mrs. Peace Pease, the village seamstress, Mrs. Wm. Edwards; Miss Floozy Snippen, the village postmistress, Mrs. George Bolton; Mrs. Caleb Savinsoles, the minister's wife, Mrs. Powers; Lobeila Witherspoon and Pamela Witherspoon, twin sisters, Mrs. O. Ostlander and Miss V. Harrison; Lottie Anne Sykes, Miss Mary Bolton; Mrs. J. Anderson Piper, mother of Sophronia, Mrs. G. H. Pearen; Tilly Tucker, maid of all work, Miss V. Gray; Genevieve Van Houten, Sophronia's up-to-date bridesmaid, Miss E. Gordon; Sophronia Piper, the bride, Miss Edna M. Pearen; Edna Pennypacker, Mrs. H. Bolton, Tommy Savinsoles, Wayne, Howell; Mrs. Snop, Mrs. Ayles; Mrs. Doolittle, the secretary, Mrs. W. Taylor; Mrs. Simpkins, Mrs. E. Plummer.

An event of much interest took place at the Rockwood Public School last week which was sponsored by the local Branch of the Canadian Legion, in connection with the Poppy Essay Contest, when two out of fifteen scholars won prizes in competition, viz. Madeline Gibbons and Alfred Doby. The pupils of the Third and Fourth Classes were respectively addressed by Rev. John Little and Mr. Frank Day. Rev. Mr. Little, who was a fellow-student of the author of "In Flanders Fields," in the course of his address gave a brief description of the Great War, and also impressed upon the minds of his young friends the meaning and description of the flower and Remembrance Day. Mr. Frank Day announced the offer of prizes by the Legion for the best essays on "The Poppy." The two essays which won prizes are deserving of much credit and their many friends will be pleased to know of their success.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed at the United Church on Sunday morning. Preparatory Services held last Wednesday evening, and well attended. A few who were here during the week-end were: Mr. and Mrs. Ross Allan, of Toronto. Messrs. Fred and George Day, of the University of Toronto. Miss Edna M. Pearen, of Dundas. Miss Jean Torrance and Mr. Johnston Hewat, of Simcoe. Mr. Fred Hoeking, of the University of Toronto.

A Choral Society has been formed in the village and on Monday evening they had the initial practice in the United Church Sunday school room. The following are the officers elected: President, J. A. Little; Vice-President, Albert E. Gray; Recording Secretary, Miss M. Beard; Corresponding Secretary, Dr. K. E. B. Waller; Treasurer, Frank Day; Librarian, Mrs. H. Gibbons; Conductor, J. R. Pears, Guelph; Pianist, Mrs. J. Ayles; Assistant Pianist, Miss M. E. Thomas. Mrs. H. Milroy is having alterations and improvements made to her house, which she recently bought from Mr. Siebert Watson.

BALLINAFAD

Miss Bessie Binette, of Toronto, spent the week-end at her parents' home, with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Binette.

Miss Myrtle Allan, of Mono Mills, spent the week-end at her home here. Miss Beatrice Hillis returned home last week from the clinic in Toronto, and is feeling much better, following her operation.

The Anniversary Services were held on Sunday and a large crowd assembled at both services. Rev. John Little, of Rockwood, was the special speaker, and delivered two splendid addresses. A male quartette of the United Church, Hamilton, supplied the special music, which was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Peter Ferguson spent a few days last week visiting friends in Kitchener. Mr. Wm. Harding was called to Toronto on Monday, owing to the serious illness of his daughter, Mrs. Robert Moody, who is in Toronto General Hospital, and was operated on last week. She is in a critical condition at present. Her many friends hope for a speedy recovery. Mr. Pickering, of Hamilton, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Blake Yannatter. The Fowl Supper on Monday evening drew a large crowd and a splendid supper was put on by the ladies of the congregation.

OSPRINGE

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bentley Wilson, with about forty ladies present. The meeting opened by singing the Institute Ode, followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison. The roll call was answered by "An Economy Writicle." Letters of thanks were read from the shut-ins who had been remembered with fruit and flowers. Mrs. Struthers reported on the shower that was held for the Children's Shelter, Guelph. A report was also given of the produce, sent in the relief car to the West, showing the generous response to this worthy cause. It was decided to hold the December meeting in the evening at the school and invite all the families of the community. The motto of the month, "Let Us Forget," was the topic of a sane speech given by the Assistant Secretary, Miss Lulu McCutcheon. Mrs. E. Barber gave the Current Events, and a very humorous reading was given by Miss McCutcheon. A demonstration on "Said Making" was given by Mrs. D. G. Robertson, who made a fruit salad and a vegetable one. After singing the National Anthem, a dainty lunch was served by the hostess and her assistants and a social time enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart and Miss Verma, of Guelph, visited on Sunday with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. D. Stewart. She is in a critical condition at present. LIMEHOUSE

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. A. Hill on Thursday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Smethurst, Vice-President, had charge of the exercises. The meeting had rather a small attendance, due to so many other important engagements such as threshings, etc., which kept the ladies away. The Girls' Lookout Club held an afternoon tea and sale of baking at the home of Mrs. A. Norton on Friday afternoon of last week. Quite a large number gathered and enjoyed a social time together. Quite a number of folk attended the anniversary service at Ballinafad last Sunday.

The Limehouse road is being given a much-needed coat of gravel this week for which everyone who uses the road will be thankful. Quite a number of visitors have been with us during the week. Among whom were: Messrs. Will, Ralph, and Miss Edwina Marshall, at home. Mr. and Mrs. Dick and family, of Chingusacousy, at Mr. and Mrs. Gowdy's. Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Swackhamer, of Albany, N.
