THE POPPY On November 11 Canada will hold a national holiday, known as Remembrance Day, in observance of the anniversary of the signing of the Armistice, which, on November 11, 1918, brought the greatest war in history to a close. On this occasion the minds of all Canadians will travel back to the days of the great conflict, to think of the sacrifices which were then made. On this occasion, too, there will be a widespread desire to do honor to the memory of those men who made the supreme sacrifice for their country and Empire.

In honoring the dead, all Canada desires to keep to the front the inspiring thought that the dead can best be honored by taking care of those who came back but who are still making sacrifices for country and Empire, those for whom the war is not yet over. There are thousands that the annual Poppy Campaign is now being held. Mark Twain used to relate how he was once in a court in Georgia when two negro women asked the judge to settle matter for them. They both claimed the same child.

The judge puzzled until he remembered what Solomon had done in a similar fix. So, drawing out a long knife he proposed to cut the child in half. Both claimant rushed forward simultaneously, crying: "Boss, don't kill him You may have him!"

So the judge was as far from a decision
