LIMEHOUSE

The regular meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church was held at the home of Miss O. Marshall on Friday last.

In the absence of Rev. Mr. Stephen son, who helped with anniversary services at Glenwilliams last Sunday, the service at the United Church was addressed by Mrs. W. E. S. James and the message was greatly enjoyed. A large number of folk attended the supper and entertainment at Glenwilliams on Monday evening, and all pronounced it a real success. On Tuesday afternoon, Mr. Johnson, Mrs. A. Meredith and Miss Sarah Standish motored with Rev. O. I. Stevenson to Munn's United Church, Trafalgar, and took part in a special Presbytery meeting, called to further interest in Sunday School and Young People's activities. Splendid addresses were given by Rev. R. W. Rumley, of Georgetown; Rev. E. O. Seymour, of Oakville; and Rev. Dr. Little, of Toronto. During the afternoon session, Drs. Irwin and Mc-Laughlin, who knew of the meeting and were passing, called in and each spoke a few minutes. Dr. McLaughlin gave a partial report on the wonderful response made in connection with help for the West, mentioning that five cars had been sent from Halton Presbytery, and, all told, 140 cars had been sent and acknowledged by hundreds of appreciative letters of thanks.

Mrs. R. W. Johnson attended funeral of the late Robt. Ball, of Lynn Valley, near Simcoe, an uncle on Wednesday of this week.

Mr. W. J. McKechnie and Mr. Geo. Milliere, of Toledo. O., were week-end visitors. They, with other members of the family, who had spent a few days' visit, returned home on Tuesday morning by motor.
