MARTIN EDWARD MCGANN - Martin Edward McGann, Toronto, for the last 17 years linotype operator in The Mail and Empire composing room, died on Sunday after a brief illness with heart trouble. He was born in Chicago 30 years ago and came to Canada when a small boy. He learned the printing trade on The Acton Free Press, under the guidance of the late H. P. Moore, and later worked in several Toronto printing offices. He was a veteran member of Typographical Union No. 91 and a member of Holy Name Roman Catholic Church. Surviving are his wife, Mollie Byrne McGann; three sons, Frank, Edward and Sylvester McGann; and three daughters, Alice, Nora and Henrietta, all of Toronto.

MRS. PETER MERKELINGER - The Kitchener News-Record of November 28 carried the following obituary notice of Mrs. Peter Merkelinger. Friends here will sympathize with Mr. Merkelinger in the loss he has sustained. The death occurred at the K-W Hospital at one o'clock on Monday afternoon, November 27, 1933, at the home of Peter Merkelinger, of Bruce County. The deceased was born in Bruce County, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klages, of Bruce County. She was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church. The late Mrs. Merkelinger is survived by her parents, her husband, one daughter, Audrey, three brothers, Rev. Alfred Klages, of Texas; Fred Klages, of Bruce County; and five sisters, Mrs. Fred Saunders, of Neustadt; Mrs. Louise Wolf, of Bruce County; Mrs. David Rehkopf, of Neustadt; Mrs. John Rehkopf, of Bruce County; and Miss Emma Klages, of Bruce County.

MRS. DUNCAN MCGREGOR - After an illness of but a few weeks, Mrs. Duncan McGregor passed peacefully away on Thursday evening at her home on Young Street, in her eighty-fourth year. In the passing of Mrs. McGregor Acton loses one of its highly esteemed citizens. She had spent her entire life a resident of this district. She was of a very bright, cheerful disposition and her kindness and hospitality had won for her a vast number of warm friends. Mrs. McGregor was, before her marriage, Marjory Mann, a daughter of the late Alexander and Eliza Mann, one of the pioneer families of this district. She was born on the third line of Esqueving in the year 1850, and was united in marriage to Duncan McGregor in the year of 1874. They resided in Nassagaweya for a number of years and after the death of Mr. McGregor, in the year 1919, removed to Acton, residing in the comfortable home on Young Street. Surviving are one sister, Mrs. Peter McDonald, Acton; four sons, Donald and William, of Guelph; Alexander and John, Nassagaweya; and two daughters, Lizzie and Jessie, at home. To all these who have bereft the sympathy of a host of friends and the community in general goes out. Mrs. McGregor was a life-long member of Knox Presbyterian Church. The funeral on Saturday afternoon was conducted by her minister, Rev. H. L. Bennie, and evidence of the esteem in which she was held was witnessed by the large gathering attending to pay their last respects. A quartette, accompanied by Mrs. Blow, assisted in the service. Interment took place in Fairview Cemetery. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Wallace Lasby, Nelson McLaughlin, A. T. Mann, James Jessemann, A. Ritchie and Edwin Cripps. A number of beautiful floral tributes bore testimony to the esteem in which deceased was held, and included: Pillow, from the Family; wreaths from, Grandchildren; Mrs. McDonald, Annie, Mr. and Mrs. W. Patterson; U. F. W. O.; U. F. O.; basket, Mr. and Mrs. T. Wren, Beaulieu and Lawson, Guelph; sprays, Moffat family, Richmond Hill; Miss J. Whitley and Mrs. Gordon, Guelph; the Kitty family; Mrs. Garvin and Margaret; Mrs. Kennedy and Miss Nelson; Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Ramshaw, Rockwood.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY - A pleasant surprise party of about 25 met at the home of Mr. W. D. Anderson, on Park Avenue, on Thursday evening last, it being Mr. Anderson's birthday. Mr. Bert Davidson called Mr. Anderson to the floor and Mr. Thos. Morton presented him with a little gift from his old friends.

Dear Mr. Anderson: It is with pleasure that your neighbors and friends have gathered here to-night, on the occasion of your birthday we ask you to accept this small gift, not for its intrinsic value, but as a token of our esteem, and by which you may remember your Acton friends and well-wishers. Wishing you good health and long life and many more birthdays to come. Signed on behalf of those present, R. L. Davidson.

The evening was spent in cards and dancing, the lucky winners being, first, ladies, Mrs. N. McNabb; Mrs. J. McArthur, the consolation; and Mr. W. D. Anderson, first for gentlemen; and Mr. J. McArthur, consolation.

We received this week copies of a splendid illustrated weekly, "The Free Lantz," from Mr. J. E. Montgomerie, of Greytown, New Zealand. Mr. Montgomerie lived in Acton for several years, and is well-known by many here.

GIRL GUIDE NEWS

The Company are thankful to those members of the I. O. D. E. who so kindly donated kitchen chairs for our hall. We would be glad of more. If anyone has one or more discarded chairs the Guides would be glad to call for them.

Acting on the suggestion of Provincial Headquarters, the work in the Company has been re-distributed. Lillian Woodhall and Marjorie Near are taking the places of our former Lieutenants, Lillian Perry and Isabel Bruce, who have lately left town. Esther Taylor is Company Leader of games, contests, etc. A Librarian and Color Bearer have been appointed and four probationary Patrol Leaders.

The Company are very grateful to Mrs. (Dr.) Buchanan for her kind offer of help, which they immediately accepted. An invitation has been extended to the 'Million Company' to join us at our Christmas meeting.

SHOCKED OLD NURSE - The former Chancellor of the Exchequer, Neville Chamberlain, was fond of telling this story about himself, says an article in London Tit-Bits. As a young man, fresh from college, he was accepted one day by his old nurse, who asked him with almost motherly solicitude, what vocation he intended to follow. "Well, 'Nannie," he replied, "I am thinking of going in for politics."

"Oh, Master Neville, dear, don't ye do it," she exclaimed. "Surely one in the family is enough to have in politics, and Master Austen is that one. Don't ye follow his bad example. Go in for something that's useful—and honest."

The horse in his attitude to man differs from all other classes of stock in that he produces energy not food.

Well-known Hillsburg Resident Dies

George Farwell, 79, died at his home in Hillsburg last week. He lived all his life there and was engaged for many years in the contracting business. He was a noted musician and was in great demand as an old-time fiddler at country dances. He was a member of the United Church and a Conservative. He is survived by his widow, two daughters, Mrs. Geo. Robinson, of Hillsburg; Mrs. Geo. Tilcox, of Hillsburg; and five sons, William, of Erin Township; Robert, of Hillsburg; Thomas, of Toronto; Edward, of Hillsburg; and Clayton, of Toronto.

THE DEPRESSION

"Why are you rushing about like this on a hot day?" "I'm trying to get something for my husband."
