over the week-end.

enrer, Mrs. J. H. Smith.

Religious Bervices

Mutted Church of Canada

Minister-Rev. C. L. Poole, B. D.

Parsonage-Bower Avenue

12.00 noon—Sunday School

'The Cotter's Baturday Night."

Nation's Church.

Christmas Concert.

11:00 a. m.-Rev. J. L. McKay, of AB

7.00 p. m.—The Minister. Subject:

Tuesday, 8.00 p. m .- Sunday School

EVERYBODY WELCOME

Presbyterian

KNOX CHURCH, ACTOR

Manse Willow Street

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 17

7.00 p. m .- "All That Glitters is No

Note-Sabbath School Christmas Tree

in the Town Hall at 8.00 p. m. Monday

"ALWAYS WELCOME"

UNCLASSIFIED

Small Advertisements

Advertisements under this heading, one cent per word. Minimum charge 25c per insertion. Five insertions for $1.00, if paid cash, see additional is charged where items have to be booked.

HOG PRICES FOR WEDNESDAY

DECEMBER 20

$6.00 and grade. Hog trucking free

CHOICE MILK FED CHICKENS

FOR RENT

FOR SALE

FOR SALE

175 pounds, dressed, at 9c. Half or whole. This price till Saturday, 16th.

SECRETARY WANTED

Applications for the position of Secretary of Acton Arena will be received by the Clerk until Monday, December 18

1935, at 5.00 p. m. Particulars as to duties, etc., may be secured from the

POSTPONED AUCTION SALE

The Auction of the Chattels, the property of the Estate of the late John

Coke, Lot 11, Ninth Line, Erin Township, half mile south of Erin Village, has been postponed to Tuesday. Decam-ber 19th, to commence at 12 o'clock.

See bills or list as formerly published.

J. A. MARTIN and

GENERAL

INSURANCE

Life - Fire - Health and

Accident

Guarantee - Liability

Burglary-Residence, Stores

and Offices

Outside & Inside Messengers

Furs — Jewellery — Etc.

And All General Lines

EXCELLENT FACILITIES

Frederick L. Wright

MAIN STREET . ACTON

Plate Glass

W. A. RUSSELL, Auctioneers

Steam Boiler

Bacon type Hogs, weighting 150

Single shot .22 Rifle, in good condi-

WILFRED MATTOCKS.

Garage for rent.

mdersigned.

Terms Cash.

A real delicacy for Christmas. Apply

P. E. HOLMES, Acton.

MARGARET BROWN.

nt. Apply P. E. KENNEDY.

Phone 40r12

Wellington Street.

% L. O. Jo inston.

R. N. BROWN.

H. N. PARMER, Clerk.

Hogs delivered by farmers 10c extra.

11.00 a. m.—"Are We

Gold." Another Proverb.

2.30 p. m.—Sunday School

REV. H. L. BENNIE, M. A., Ministr

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

Intereting Items Concerning Other Centres and Communities in which Many of Our Readers are Interested

STEWARTTOWN

needed to give us good skating on the pond.

Women's Auxiliary members at the home following address: of Mrs. Bailey.

Mrs. J. Sanford was elected Superintendent of the Junior Women's Auixliary.

NASSAGAWEYA

Owing to Christmas coming on the last Monday of the month, the nomination of candidates for the position of Reeve and Councillors for Nassagaweys will be held on Friday, December 22nd this year.

Robbers broke into the store of Mr R. S. Elsley at Moffat a short time ago and stole a quantity of goods out of the Provincial Police are working on the case.

A ball of Christmas presents was nacked by the Ladles' Aid and Women's Missionary Society last Monday for shipment to the West.

Only on more week of school before the Christmas holidays. A community concert was put on at the Township Hall, Brookville, on Tuesday evening in aid of some poor families of the community.

BURLINGTON

Colin and W. L. Smith won their share of prises on apples at the Royal Winter Pair, which closed last week.

Rev. R. Val Tilton underwent a major operation at the Hamilton General Hosoftal on Monday, and we are pleased to learn he is progressing favorably.

A severe lightning and thunder storm passed over this district last Wednesday evening, which was rather unusual for this season of the year.

A number of members of Wellington Square Lodge, I. O. O. F., paid a visit to Cakville Oddfellows on Monday evening, when Bro. J. A. Griffiths, of the local lodge, was the special speaker.

While excavating for the new basement under St. Luke's Church, the workmen found bones and skeletons. There were brought out and will be suitably buried. As-the church has stood on its present coundation for 99 years, it is quite likely they are those of Indians who buried there many years ago.

At a meeting of the Police Committee held on Saturday afternoon last, tenders were opened for the work connection with the building of a room in the besement of the Town Hall accommodate transients. Four tenders were received, and the contract was awarded to Thomas Page at $225. Gazette.

OSPRINGE

Quite a gloom was cast over the community when it was 'learned that Elmer McCutcheon had passed away on Friday from the terrible injuries received the day previous. In company with his father and Bert Anderson they were engaged in sawing wood at their home. when the engine started to race. Elmer, who was running the machine, went to adjust it, when it flew to pieces. Neither of the other men actually saw what happened until he was hurt. A doctor was summoned and he was rushed to the General Hospital, Guelph, where operation was performed but in spite of all attention he passed away on Friday, December 8. He was the only son of Austin and Jane McCutcheon, and was born on lot 14, concession 2, Erin Township, on March 1, 1904. When about five years of age they moved to Everton. where his father was engaged as a teamsten for Hortop's mill. Eight years ago they moved again to Erin Township, this time to the old Aikens farm, on the second line, where they farmed until last spring, when they purchased the farm of the late W. B. Lewis. The deceased was a great lover of sport and at her sister's, Mrs. M. Cameron. will be missed on the ball and hockey teams. The funeral, held on Sunday attended the concert on Friday evening. from his late home, was one of the largest in these parts for some time; and the week-end, tht young people of the Church last Sunday and his message was was conducted by Rev. J. A. Grant, who /illage enjoyed skating on the river delivered a very thoughtful and timely along the Valley Road. During - the message. Miss M. I. Cooke sang very mild weather earlier in the week, the sweetly "Will There Be Any Stars in river was partially opened up. My Crown," and a quartette, Mrs. E. N. Sunter, Miss Cooke and Messrs. W. Mc- were noticed skating on the river below Kenzie and D. McLean sang "The City the cave. If the old saying is true the deceased were also sung. The floral of to-morrow, what will become of our ful and showed the esteem in which the to check the young people in their made in the family plot at Everton, the ance of Sabbath observance? . Some-Stewart, M. McCutcheon, J. Brydon, H. their parents and citizens who are not Hortop, P. R. Peavoy and A. McPhedran, alert, but lax in their ways in regard The flower-bearers were Mesers. R. Tinto leisure of young people. ney, R. Martin, E. VanNorman and D. McLean. · Sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved parents at this trying

BALLINAFAD

Mr. and Mrs. Blake Vannatter were host and hostess at a most delightful shower in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Percy Bailey visited with his mother McEnery, whose marriage took place recently. Rev. Mr. Altken, acting as The members of the Women's Auxil- chairman, called upon Lydia Snow for tary met at the home of Mrs. Bailey to reading; a solo was given by Alma Mcfield their annual meeting on Thursday Enery; a reading by Alberta Beswick; December 7th. The members elected a solo by Jean Evans, Acton; plano solo were as follows: President, Mrs. Wm. by Mrs. Vannatter. Mr. Aitken then Johnston: Vice-President, Mrs. John asked Mr. and Mrs. McEnery to take Hird; Secretary, Mrs. J. A. Tracy; Trea- the seats of honor by the umbrella, which was beautifully decorated in blue and Also on Tuesday of the same week the white, covering the shower of beautiful Juniors were entertained by the Senior gifts. Norma McKechnie then read the

> To Mr. and Mrs. McEnery Dear Kay and Arnold:

On this happy occasion we have gathered here this evening to extend to you our very sincere wishes for your future health and happiness: It has been our pleasure to have known you, Arnold, all your life, and we have found you to be worthy of our highest esteem. Although you Kathleen, have been in our midst for a much shorter time, we have always found you to be friendkind and true. Now that you have set out on a new path in life in which you have decided to face joys and sorrows together, we would ask you to accept these gifts, both as an expression of our feeling toward you and to remind you through the years of your many friends in this community.

May happiness and good luck follow you all the way. Signed on behalf of the com-

Jesse McEnery,

Stanley Sinclair. Florence Sinclair and Pearl McEnery were in attendance, opening the gifts and passing them to the bride with all the good wishes. The groom graciously thanked the donors for their kindness, when all joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows." Joanna Shortill then gave a recitation. A lunch was served, when over 100 guests took part in the activities of the evening and a most enjoyable time was spent by all

Miss Bessie Binnie returned home from Buffalo on Saturday, after spending a week there. Mr. Binnie stayed in Buffalo for further treatment on his eyes. Mrs. Binnie is also in Buffalo with him.

ROCKWOOD

The play given last Friday evening in the Town Hall by the young people of the United Church, entitled "His Best Investment," was well attended, despite a counter attraction of a dance at Terrace Gardens. The artists are deserving of much credit for their pains-taking efforts and each one in the play acted their part to perfection. During the evening, between acts, the canidates in the Boys' Parliament, Messrs. Wm. Kerr and Wm. Elliott, of Guelph, were present and gave brief addresses. The Misses Chapman of Guelph, were also present and took part in the programme.

A number from here attended the funeral on Sunday of the late Elmer McCutcheon, who received serious injurits at his home at Ospringe las Thursday as a result of the bursting of a sawing outfit. He-was an only son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin McCutcheon. the first line, Erin Township, and the funeral was largely attended.

The annual meeting of the Eramosa Branch of the Ontario Plowmen's Association was held on Tuesday afternon in Gladstone Hall.

Rockwood Women's Institute will held to-night (Thursday) in the basement of the Presbyterian Church. Mrs. D. McMillan is in charge of the pro-

Holy Communion was observed at St. John's Church on Sunday morning. Rev. E. A. Brooks, assistant Rector of St. George's Church, Guelph, administered the sacrament.

Week-end visitors were: Messrs. Fred Hosking. Fred and Gev. Day of the University of Toronto.

Mr. Johnston Hewat, of Simcoe. Miss Edna M. Pearen, of Dundas Mrs. Williams, of Guelph, was a visitor during the week-end; also Mrs. Still.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnston, of Actor. As a result of the cold snap during

On Sunday a number of young boys Four Square." Two favorite hymns of that the boys of to-day are the men of the week. tributes were numerous and very beauti. Sabbath Day if something is not done In'a McCauley and Miss Helen Rudd, deceased was held. Interment was career, and made to realize the import- Meredith, Sunday. pallbearers all being chums, namely D. thing wrong somewhere on the part of with her mother during the week.

> Additional Neighborhood Nows on Page Nine

CREWSON'S CORNERS

Misses Irene and Ruby Walker and Mrs. Pinn. of Toronto, spent the weekwere-visitors at Mr. Tyler's.

end with Mrs. Ella Walker. Friends of Mr. John Leslie were pleased to see him able to be about following an attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. Chas. Watson and daughter, Miss A. Evans visited in Toronto. Joan, of Cookstown, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. C. Weddell, Mr. Teo. McMillan and daughter, of Cookstown, spent the week-end with Mr.

and Mrs. C. E. McMillan. A large crowd attended the bazaar and fowl supper, under the suspices of the W. A. of All Saints' Church, in Mc-Millan's Hall last Saturday evening.

ERIN

ing the cats. All of the "wild cat" house, stories do not originate at Sault Ste. Marie.—Advocate.

LIMEHOUSE

Some 85 families were represented tremendous gathering of people at the present home of the Packer family, Thursday evening, last week. The occasion was a presentation of a great variety of beautiful and useful gifts to Miss Nellie L. Lane. Miss Jean Given and Miss Willa Price assisted with the opening of the many parcels. Miss M. Grindel read the names. A novel feature was an address read by Helen McGowan, followed by Peggy Smethurst presenting a beautiful end table from their Sunday School class of which Miss Lane has been teacher. Games and dancing entertained thecrowd till the small hours of the next

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Presbyterian church manse. Wednesday. December 13, by Rev. D Howard, when Miss Nellie I. Lane second daughter of Mrs. R. Lane, became the bride of Harvey, second son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Norton. The bride was attended by her sister, Beatrice, and the groomsman was Mr. Stanley Norton. Following the ceremony, the happy ouple with friends enjoyed a supper at the home of Mrs. Lane, after which they left for a honeymoon trip to Toronto, Hamilton and other points. On returning they will live in Limehouse.

dent, proved very fortunate for the occupants of Mr. Kenneth Stephenson's car Tuesday morning on their way to school in Georgetown. He takes his sister and five other young ladies each morning. They were coming across the Check Line and in driving through a deep snow drift, the car went out of control and upset in a ditch, mixing things up to considerably. They were all able to crawl out through the windows and found no one was badly hurt, but really frightened. Some of the neighbors gathered and in turning the car back b unto its wheels it struck Kenneth and injured his leg so he will be unable to attend school for some days. The body and top of the car were badly damaged. We're glad to report the sick folk

What might have been a serious acci-all convalescing favorably. Rev. G. I Stephenson and Mr. Johnson attended Halton presbytery meeting Tuesday afternoon and evening held this month in the United Church. Georgetown. The evening meeting was devoted to addresses by some twelve members of ! a Toronto Oxford group.

Mrs. Marshall is home again after having spent a week visiting in Erin. Mr. Fred Sutherland and Miss Limbers of Toronto, visited Dr. and Miss Sutherland during the week. Miss Nellie Hall, of Toronto, visited at Mrs. R. Lane's on Sunday.

Miss Helen Gale, of Toronto, vistad The regular monthly meeting of the Mr. Gale, on Saturday last, returning home on the evening train.

> (Intended for Last Week) The social evening under the ausipices of the Limehouse branch of the Women's Institute held at Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Brooks Friday evening last was a real success. It had been planned to have a business session prior to the social activities, but it was found impossible to carry out on account of the number of folk who had gathered to enjoy the good time.

Mr. Mark Given was again real successful with his three fine horses at the Royal Winter Fair, having taken one first, one fourth and a sweep stake

Mr. Boyer, a returned missionary from Chentu, China, spoke in the United much appreciated. He mentioned having met Dr. and Mrs. Agnew and the children with others on their way into Chentu as he and Mrs. Boyer were coming out. We're glad to report the sick folk all improved. Mrs. Gowdy expects to be:

home from the hospital toward the end Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Meredith, Miss were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. A.

Miss Gladys Milliere spent a few days The Presbyterian Sunday School entertainment will be held Monday evening. December 18th. The United Sunday School entertainment, Tuesday evening, December 19 and the Public School programme. Thursday evening. December

Cant. Allen and Mr. Witstone, of St. 2 Mary's, Mrs. Dean and son of Milliken,

Miss Mary McCaig was home from Georgetown and Mr. Marshall McCaig from Toronto.

Mrs. J. Burlingham visited in Guelph. Service at the church as usual.

BANNOCKBURN ---

On Sunday, December 10, Mrs. Winnifred Rossel, of the fifth line, was host-Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Coburn quietly ess at a dinner given in honor of her siscelebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary ter-in-law, Mrs. James Nickell, of Royal of their wedding on Sunday, December Oak, Michigan, who with her daughter when the members of their family and Jean, has been Mrs. Rossel's guest for the a few friends sat down to a sumptuous past two weeks. Among the guests weere Mr. Ira Rozel, Ospringe, Mr. and A recent issue of The Telegram carried Mrs. Victor Harding and family. Osa front page article telling of wild cats pringe; Mr. and Mrs. George Roszel creating much anxiety among the farm- and family, of Erin; Mr. and Mrs. Comers in Erin district. There seems to fort Roszel, and daughter, of Georgebe no one other than the reporter who town; Miss Irene Walker, of Acton, and can give authentic information concern- Mrs. Nickell and son, Jack, of Lime-

> .Mrs. James Nickell and two children Jack and Jean have returned home to Royal Oak, Michigan, after visiting with Mrs. Winnifred Rossel, and other rela-

Mrs. John Sprowl and son Mac. are Misses Ruth and Betty Masters.

Acton, visited over the week end with Mrs. A. K. Mann.

HIGH AND LOW

veighed?" Applicant: "One hundred fifty-four pounds."

ever weighed?" Applicant: "Eight and a quarter

PATTERSON'S Christmas Display

Turkeys, Geese and Chickens The Choicest of Christmas Beef The Finest Cuts of Pork

And, of Course Veal and Lamb

Our Christmas Stocks are Noted for Their Quality and Value -Come in and Make Your Selections and Place Your Order Early

BOBOBOBO

Patterson's Meat Shop

WE DELIVER PROMPTLY

PHONE 178

A DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY

For Best Values Consult the Ads.

C. & B. Vegetable Soup Regular 2 for 250-2 for 21c Falcon Norwegian Sardines Regular 2 for 250-2 for 21c C. & B. Tomato Juice

Regular 10c Tin-2 for 170 -York No. 3 Small Peas Regular 15c Tin-2 for 27c Gold Medal Choice Tomatoes Regular 2 for 25c-2 for 21c Gold Medal Red Raspberries Regular 21c Tin-2 for 37c Choice Quality Pimientos Regular 120 Tin-2 for 21c Falcon Fancy Pink Salmon Regular 2 for 25c-2 for 23c Drinkmore Choice Coffee

Extra! Extra! FALCON MIXED TEA 1 POUND

Regular 55c lb .- 11/4 lbs. for 55c

Regular 60c with Free China

QUALITY FIRST

Lrg. Cranberries, 1b. 18c

Table Raisins, pkg... 40c

Layer Eating Pigs, pk. 10c.

Delicious Grapes, 1b. 12c

Sunkist Navel Oranges

29c - 39c - 49c - 59c

Seedless Grapefruit 3-23c

New Bright Lemons per dozen 25c

Fresh Head Lettuce 10d

Choice Celery Hearts 12c

Solid Head Cabbage 7c

Fine Flavor Turnips, 3c

Rose Sweet Gerkins 35c

Sweet Mixed Pickles 25c

Extra Choice Oilves 290

& B. Chili Sauce 25c

O'clock Marmalade 25e

Keeler's Bitter Sweet 25c

Choice Candy Assort-

15c, 19c, 23c, 27c, 29c

EXTRA SPECIAL

Chinaware ASSORTMENT Brand New-Worth More CHOICE 25c EACH PIECE

SPECIAL PRICES on CANDIES-5 tbs., 10 tbs or over

NUTS-5 ths., 10 ths. or ORANGES-5 dozen,

EXTRA SPECIAL Glassware

ASSORTMENT

FANCY

10 dozen or over

EACH-

RAISINS-

Currants, the very Best, lb.

Glazed Cherries

Bottled Cherries

Walnuts, bright

Candled Pine-

Almonds

Assorted 200 per pound

red or green

Durham Mustard Compound Regular 15c Tin-2 for 25c Baker's Breakfast Cocoa Regular 15c Tin-2 for 19c Butternut Peanut Crisp Extra Value Package—2 for 19c Ovaltine-The Health Drink Regular 50c Tin-1 for 43c Highland Maple Sugar Regular 15c Cake-2 for 25c Oldtyme Maple Syrup Regular 40c Bottle-1 for 35c Eddy Matches-Swan Brand Extra Value-3 for . 250

Wellington Pure Lard

Regular 2 for 250-2 for 230

Westminster Toilet Paper Wonder Value-3 for 23c

Extra! Extra! BEATS-ALL BLEACH 7 Bottles 29c 1/2c Rebate on empties

QUALITY ALWAYS

EDDIE, THE AD MA

BEEN RAZZING OUR WANT ADS BECAUSE THEY NEVER FOUND TH' KEYS HE LOST A MONTH AGO = YESTERDAY HE LOCATED 'EM IN AN OLD PAIR OF PAUTS - WHEN OUR BILLY LIL ADS DON'T DO THEIR STUFF THERE'S A REASON

