A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Akitt second line, when their youngest daughter, Elva Mae, was united in marriage to James Alexander Brydon, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brydon, Ospringe. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Grant, minister of the local church. After a wedding dinner was served to the immediate family, the happy couple left on a trip to Niagara Falls.

On Wednesday evening, January 24, a presentation and dance was held in the village, when about a hundred and seventy-five neighbors and friends gathered. Mr. Russell Martin acted as chairman for the programme, which consisted of readings, solos and music, after which he called on Mr. Earl Van Norman to read the following address: .. Dear Elva and Jim:

We, your neighbors and friends, gathered here this evening to wish you happiness and good luck in your matrimonial venture. May the years be filled with success, and good cheer. We are glad to know that you will not be leaving our midst but will be residing amongst

As you have spent most of your years in this community we feel that we should not let this occasion pass without ahowing in some way our love and esteem for you. With these gifts go our sincerest wishes for your health and happiness all through the years to come; and may God be with you to give you strength in time of need and comfort through the trials of life.

Following devotional exercises the evening was devoted to hearing reports of committees on the activities of the year's work. Some excellent reports were given, and it was felt that in spite of times of depression generally, the church had been successful in doing its duty. The records show a total of 135 resident families and 8 non-resident, and $1,459.48 had been raised for all purposes, with a balance on the right side. Of the many organizations of the church, the Women's Associations and Sunday Schools showed the greatest activity, and were complimented in no uncertain terms. The officers in charge were re-elected for the ensuing year. The ladies present had prepared lunch and a social hour was enjoyed before dismissal. An excellent programme of music, instrumental selections and readings was given in the United Church on Tuesday evening. The Choir of the church, with Mrs. Gowdy's able leadership, was responsible. Mrs. Gowdy secured the services of the Acton United Church Choir, who came about 20 strong. First on the programme was a choir selection, Creation Hymn; duett, Mrs. Mowat and Miss Gibson; cornet solo, Mr. Charles Landsborough; reading, Miss Grindell; duett, Mrs. Mowat and Miss Gibson; selection, the Stephenson family; Choir, "Song by Night"; male quartette, "Comrade of Hope"; French Horn and Saxaphone selection; solo, Mr. . The dangerous condition of the roads has resulted in a number of accidents to cars. Fortunately nothing serious has happened so far. We in this neighborhood feel that a load of sand or gravel should be provided to make the hills more safe while they are so icy.

The clover threshing machine is in the neighborhood these days; at Mr. Jas. McGowan's just now. Some real good returns have been reported. This is encouraging. Hog prices should make the farmers more optimistic, too.
