Many other matters of vital importance were dealt with and committees formed to assist in keeping the organization intact and to help the member in the Legislature in problems which may arise from time to time.

114th ANNIVERSARY

Of Boston Church Observed Last Sunday—Rev. H. L. Bennis, of Acton, and Dr. Thos. Eakin, of Knox College, Speakers

Boston Church, one of the oldest churches in the County, situated in the Third Concession, Esqueving, in what is known as "The Scotch Block," observed its 114th anniversary last Sunday.

At the morning service, Rev. H. L. Bennis, M. A., from Acton, preached an inspiring sermon to a large congregation. "We should be thankful to our forefathers that they built churches," said Mr. Bennis. "If we had not got them, would the present generation build them? Our forefathers, in their wisdom, could foresee the needs of the future—and they built churches." They lived by the words "The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in."

Mr. Bennis regretted the loss of the dignity in the home, the shedding, like a garment, of courtesy and consideration by members of family once they were within their own doors, and exhorted the congregation to treasure once again the ideals and traditions of their forefathers. Excellent music was rendered by the choir, under the able direction of Mr. Stanley Brown, with Mrs. Mary Joyce at the organ. Two anthems were sung at each service, the solo parts being beautifully sung by Mrs. Harold Mickle, Esqueving. Mr. William Steele, from Guelph, was also soloist both morning and evening.

At the evening service the church was again filled to capacity, when the congregation listened to the fine sermon preached by the Rev. Thomas Eakin, Ph. D., D. D., from Knox College, Toronto. The sermon was based on the 73rd Psalm, and exposed the futility of worldly success. Professor Eakin particularly stressed the insidious quality of envy. "It is one of the deadly sins—eliminate envy and nine-tenths of the other sins automatically go with it."

The benediction at each service was given by the Boston minister, Rev. Horace Kaye.

After the services, the people, many of whom were from outlying districts, stood around in groups in the old church yard, renewing acquaintances and going over the old history and past anniversaries of this historic little church, proving once again that the country church is still, as it was in the past, the centre of community life.

THE EVENING MEAL DIGESTER

Note—I wonder if dyeing the hair is really as dangerous as some of the dyes say? File—You bet it is. An uncle of mine tried it once, and within a month he was married to a widow with seven children.

Sketches of Building Are Being Arranged For the Murray Memorial Building—Two Factions in Committee Make a Majority and Minority Report Possible

A meeting of the Murray Memorial Committee was held in the Council Chamber on Tuesday evening, with all the members present except Reeve Theford, who is still not recovered from his accident.

Chairman Murray gave a brief report of the meeting with the Public Utilities Commission and felt assured of the co-operation of this body. Need for definite action was urged, however, if a co-operative plan was to be formulated for these buildings and this must be submitted within a month following the meeting.

It was pointed out that there were two factions in the committee and there would be majority and minority reports on the type of building. In the discussion legal opinion was given that this committee could continue with the erection of the building. The Council had accepted the money and the project should be proceeded with. Several members pleaded for accord with a project in order that definite headway could be made. Some time had already been wasted on discussion that led nowhere and one member said the thing should have been settled months ago.

The first motion passed would define advancement with the building instructed employment of an architect or individual to help sketch the requirements of the building so that it may be put before the Public Utilities Commission after receiving the approval of the Council.

A call for a record of the years and names had Rev. C. L. Poole, Rev. H. L. Bennis, E. Jones and J. E. McMillan for the motion, and W. A. Lasby and S. M. Lasby refusing to vote either for or against but preferring to be registered as neutral.

The Chairman asked what those opposed would do and if they were intending to proceed in any way. After the motion had been passed, a difference of opinion arose over the desirability of leaving in the word architect in the motion. The opinion was expressed that the Committee should spend no money and anything secured should be without cost. A second motion asked that Mr. J. B. Mackenzie and Mr. W. H. Kentner assist the Committee in preparing sketches for the Murray Memorial Building.

The Chairman and Messrs. J. E. McMillan and E. Jones were appointed a committee to arrange for these sketches and put down the requirements of the building, with the amount to be expended in making it complete with plumbing, heating, etc.

The meeting adjourned until these sketches are prepared, when another meeting was to be called by the Chairman in order that they may have the approval of the Committee.

Acton Lawn Bowling Club

At a meeting of the Games Committee of the Bowling Club, held on Friday, June 22nd, it was decided to hold a jiffy of mixed doubles of local bowlers each Monday night. Each Thursday night during July and August was set apart as invitation night, the idea being to entertain or visit a neighboring club and hold a jiffy of mixed doubles.

Better Times Are Here

The management of Huttonville Park are confident that better times are here, and here to stay. "We enjoy a large patronage from Toronto as well as the neighboring towns and villages, and we find most everyone in a better state of mind," states the Park Manager. "We are so optimistic we have purchased new boats for the park and will soon have a motor boat on the lake. We have enjoyed the greatest June in the history of the Park, and are making great preparations for a record July. Our dances are well patronized, and we are well pleased with the increased patronage," stated Manager Harris.

Summer Vacations for City Children

"Mum, ma'am, can I go away this summer?" This is the question which comes from all sides and what can we answer? It is a treacherous task which we face—that of finding holiday homes for 1,000 children. We want you to realize that our only hope of making these children happy and healthy is through the kindness and generosity of you, who live outside the city. An invitation for one or two children to visit your home for two weeks this summer is something which only you can give. What it would mean to the children who receive it is more than words can express. Will you help? The children are medically examined before leaving Toronto and their transportation is paid. We must, however, ask the hostesses to do their part free. A letter to F. N. Stapleton, 22 Wellesley Street, Toronto, along with a letter of recommendation from your minister, will bring a speedy and grateful response from us.

County Council Guarantees the Debenture for Burlington

Third Reading of By-law Given at Meeting Yesterday by Majority of one and During the Absence of Reeve Theford—County Bcomes Jointly Responsible for $120,000 of Burlington's Expenditure—Startling and Weed Menace are Discussed—Fair Boards Receive Grants—Divorce Cases Ruling Given.

Halt County Council met in the Court House, Milton, on Friday last, the Warden in the chair, and all members present, with the exception of Reeve Theford, of Acton. Minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed and correspondence read by the Clerk.

The report from the Halton and Peel House of Refuge was as follows: Total receipts $5,858.69, of which $2,600.00 was transferred from the Counties of Halton and Peel. Expenditures, $4,806.19, leaving a balance of $1,052.50. Expenses, it was stated, had been rather heavy, and the year had started with a deficit of $322.24.

There were at the present time 81 inmates in the Home, and during the year there had been 10 deaths, 9 of which had been old-age pensioners, the home receiving the pensions. Six other inmates had applied for old age pensions, five of which had been approved.

"We hope and believe," stated the report, "that expenses for the balance of the year will not be so great and that we shall not have to make application for any more money than that submitted in the estimated expenses for the year." The report was filed.

A report was read from the Grand Jury, stating that the Gaol and other County Buildings had been examined and found satisfactory, except that they recommended a new flag be purchased for the County Buildings.

At the last meeting of the Council the County Clerk had been instructed to register a complaint with the Attorney-General against outside court cases being sent for trial at the County Assizes.

A reply from the Department of Administration of Justice ran as follows: "This Department has no jurisdiction over conduct of assizes, this being a matter entirely within the jurisdiction of the presiding judge. The Divorce Rules have, however, been amended to the effect that any person resident in Ontario must bring action in the County in which he resides. Insofar as divorce cases are concerned, I feel satisfied that the situation will not be repeated. Regretting Department unable to be of any assistance.

(Signed) J. A. Humphries. A letter was read from the Welland County Council asking the co-operation of Halton County in helping to control the startling menace in the Province, which was followed by an address to the Council by Professor LaDrew, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, who imparted considerable worthwhile information to members of the Council, leaving them little doubt as to the seriousness of the startling menace. Each member was given literature completely covering research work and control measures up to the present date. According to Professor LaDrew in 1919 there were one pair of starlings and now there were millions of pairs, and if control measures were not taken in a few years there would not be a farmer break even.

It was moved by T. G. Ramshaw, seconded by H. Cleave: That the Agricultural Committee be authorized to organize and put an end to the startling menace and that organization be effective at once, and that a special meeting of the Agricultural Committee and the Reeves be held on Wednesday, June 27th. Mr. A. R. G. Smith, New Hamburg, Provincial Weed Inspector, addressed the Council in regard to weed control and urged that all municipalities should comply with the Act in cutting and controlling weeds along the roadside, and thereby be an example to the farmers.

Asked as to the chemical means of control, Mr. Smith stated that while sodium chloride was undoubtedly effective, in created too great a fire menace to be used with any safety, as the least friction would cause ignition. He did, however, recommend a chemical weed killer, which was neither poisonous nor inflammable and which would eradicate wild carrot quicker than anything he knew. It was also effective for bind weed but for this weed three applications were necessary and seed could not be sown on ground where it had been used during the same year. He urged changing the Weed Control Act so that each municipality might place additional weeds on the list of noxious weeds and would include golden rod, milk weed and crowfoot daisy. He also urged that farmers be on guard against water hemlock—a weed, deadly poison, to both man and beast. "Dodder," a comparatively new weed, which makes its appearance in alfalfa and red clover fields, should also be eradicated, as the export market will be seriously affected if Dodder seed is allowed to get mixed in with red clover.

Mr. Smith recommended that all weed inspectors should have, as their guide, a book entitled "Farm Weeds," published by the Department of Agriculture, at $2.00 per copy.

Reeve Currie suggested that a copy of this book be purchased by each municipality. Representatives from the local Fair Boards waited on the Council in regard to a grant. The following gentlemen addressed the Council: Edwin Harrow, Milton; F. L. Wright, Acton; W. A. Wilson, Georgetown; M. J. Carton assisted petitioned the Council for a grant to the Mouldboard Association.

It was moved by T. G. Ramshaw, seconded by W. Thorpe, that Acton, Georgetown, and Milton Fair Board be granted $75, and that the Mouldboard Association also be given a grant of $75.—Carried. A letter was read from the Department of Highways, designating the locality of road to be taken over as the Third Highway, on Wednesday, the 13th of June. Letter was filed. Mr. McGowan asked the help of the Council to change the boundary of S. S. No. 3, but the Council felt that every effort to a settlement should be made between the Trustees and their local Council, and then a report sent to the County Council if necessary.

A letter from the Inspector of Legal Offices, Osogood Hall, stated that in their annual inspection they found vault space in the office of the Clerk of the County Court to be almost exhausted, it would, in fact, be used up in six months. The office itself was not satisfactory, and it was suggested that different rooms be given the Clerk, with necessary vault space for his use. This matter was left over until the next meeting.

Acton Lost Again to Oakville by 10-2

Southerners Prove Complete Masters of Game Saturday—Milton Here Saturday

Acton Ball Team added another loss to their record on Saturday when they were beaten at Oakville by the score of 10-2. The Lakeshore boys proved too good for the locals and were never in danger of losing the lead after the first inning.

Norm Morton, on the mound for Acton, proved easy meat for the Strawberry Town boys, and he was touched for fourteen safeties, including one homer and two doubles, while Galbraith, the moundsman for the Lakeshore, held the Acton boys to five scattered singles, and was complete master of the situation, although the outfielders had nine put-outs to help him along. Oakville started right off in the first inning and collected four runs, and kept right on going in the second for a couple more. They were then held scoreless until the fifth, when they got two more, and then got a couple more in the eighth to finish things off. Acton was held scoreless for the first three innings, but counted one in each of the fourth and ninth stanzas. Acton appeared to be no match at all for the Oakville boys, and looked nothing like the team that beat them in Acton. There was only one inning when Acton got more than one hit, and had only nine runners on base all day. Two of them scored, three were put out and four were left on.

SUMMARY

Home run, D. Wilson; two base hits, Flaxman, Lyons; stolen bases, Anderson; 2 struck out, by Morton 6, by Galbraith 2; walked, by Morton 1, by Galbraith 2; balk ball, Morton 2; left on base, Acton 4, Oakville 10.

NOTES

That is now 5 losses and 2 wins for Acton, compared to 5 wins and 2 losses for Oakville. Morton seemed to have an off day on Saturday, and was pretty free with the hits. The three Acton errors all accounted for runs. Brown, D. Wilson and Post were the big guns for Oakville, with three hits and two runs each, out of five times at bat. If everybody on the Acton team had been playing like Bob Anderson, the game would have been a lot closer. He had two hits out of four, scored a run and stole two bases. For six innings out of the nine, Acton went out, one, two, three. Last year it was Oakville who lost nearly every game, because they took a chance and brought out a bunch of young fellows to play. But look at the way they are going now. This year Acton has a bunch of young fellows on the line-up playing their first year in organized ball, and even though they are not winning games, they are getting experience and should be good for next year. So don't be too down-hearted and come out and see the boys play anyway.

Knox Young People's Picnic

The annual Guild picnic was held this year again at LaSalle Park, near Hamilton, on Saturday last, when more than 14 carloads of the young people and their friends—to say nothing of the trailer load (which was the noisiest of the bunch) settled down for an exhilarating day amongst many people. Races, baseball, games were the order of the day. The whip, the booths, the steamer, the roller-coaster, the swimming pool, the shady glen and the quiet nook was the procedure of the day. It is recorded that one boy was lost in the boat and another girl had never left the roller-coaster. The thrill in each case never wearing off. Some even did their shopping in Hamilton and were back in time for supper. All trying how much they could pack into a picnic. The day finished after a well arranged and bountiful repast by each car finding its selected way home and even then the report had to be again made that there was 'one missing.'
