Interesting Items Concerning Other Centres and Communities in which Many of Our Readers are Interested

BALLINAFAD

Mr. D. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Allan and babe visited friends in Clinton last week. The funeral of the late Francis Longstreet was held from his home, eighth line, Erin, on Friday last. Interment was in Belfontain Cemetery. The sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved ones. The Ladies' Association of the United Church held a waist-line tea and corn roast on Friday evening in the former Methodist Church. Rev. Mr. Waddell and Mrs. Blake Vanatter visited friends in Hamilton last week. Mr. Duncan Ferguson is holidaying with friends at Manitoulin Island.

LIMEHOUSE

This month's meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. John Meredith. Fifteen members were present and enjoyed a most pleasant and profitable afternoon. Following regular business, Mrs. Joe McGowan gave a demonstration on Cake Baking, and Mrs. Johnson contributed an article on Legislation. The roll call was responded to with a verse on school law. A number of friends from the village attended the funeral, on Saturday, of the late Mr. Longstreet, who passed away quietly at his home, 103 3/4, eighth line, Erin. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gibbs have been moving during the last few days and will live in Mr. Kennedy's house, over on west side. Mr. W. A. Lane has had electric wiring put in his house during the past week, and will soon have electricity. This modern advantage has been a great blessing to our community, making it possible to have so many conveniences we would otherwise have to do without. Country fairs are the order of the day. Better weather than has been the rule during the past week would be appreciated, but everyone is glad of the rain. It has been a great help for pasture, root crops and fall grain. Mr. Mark Given returned home early Sunday morning, after having attended Lindsay Fair, and was able to win some prizes, even though competition was keen. The directors and workers for Acton Fair deserve great praise for the excellent way it is managed. Exhibitors also deserve praise for the interest they take in producing such perfect varieties, and no one ever comes away disappointed after having attended both Tuesday evening's performance and Wednesday's many features. Limehouse School Fair is to be held at the school on lot 20, fifth line, on Tuesday, September 25th. The children are all working to make this Fair a real success. Corn is a real good crop, lots of stalks are nearly 12 feet tall. Cutting and silage filling will be in full swing in a few days. A great many are growing corn this year, owing to the scarcity of other feeds. Mr. Gowdy and Mr. Kirkpatrick have been busy during the past week, making valuable repairs to the saw mill, in preparation for another large cut of lumber. For some years the dam has been leaking, so while the water was low, advantage was taken of this time to find and repair the leaks, and do other work to flume and wheel. Some excellent pickings of estate varieties of mushrooms have been found this week. So those fond of them have been feasting. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Meredith and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Noble and families left last Thursday night on a motor trip, with Mr. Arthur Scott as chauffeur, to Manitoulin Island. They went via North Bay, Sudbury and Little Current. The round trip will total about 875 miles. They arrived home Tuesday this week, having had a wonderful trip and visited with their parents and numbers of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Mr. Doughty and Mrs. Marshall visited friends in Erin Township on Sunday. The services in the United Church last Sunday were in charge of Rev. A. C. W. Foreman, B. A. of Erin. Rev. Mr. Stephenson preached anniversary services at Coningsby. Next Sunday Rev. Mr. Burwill, of Toronto, will be the preacher. Mrs. Wm. Mitchell has been real sick for over a week, and her many friends and neighbors are glad to hear her condition is improved and are hopeful that she will soon be real well again. Some of the visitors noticed during the week were: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lane and family, of Toronto. Miss Marjory Smith, of Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Roe, of Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Milliere, of Brampton. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Arrowsmith and family, of Toronto. Miss Leona McKechnie, of Toledo, O. Miss Doris Adams, of Guelph. Mr. and Mrs. H. Smith, of Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Preston and family, of Glen Williams. Mr. and Mrs. S. Law and family, of Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. K. Giles, of Bronte. Mr. and Mrs. Pollett are back again for another week's holiday that they missed during the summer.

NASSAGAWEYA

The annual meeting of the Nassagaweya branch of the Bible Society was held in the Ebenezer United Church on Tuesday evening. Mr. Wadland, of Toronto, a representative of the Bible Society, gave an interesting address on the work being carried on. The officers elected were: President, Mrs. Nelson Anderson; Secretary, Mr. Arthur Diamond; and two new collectors were appointed, Messrs. Liras McMillan, and Alex. Clark, for the Knatchbull line, and the old collectors for the other lines. The anniversary services held in the Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church last Sunday were greeted with a full house, both morning and evening. Sacramental service was held in the Ebenezer United Church last Sunday morning, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Somerville. Mr. and Mrs. R. J. King, Mrs. Dunlop and Mr. and Mrs. Long, of Toronto, visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Darby, of Knatchbull, last Sunday. Rally Day service will be held in the Sunday Schools of the Township on Sunday, September 30th. Silo filling is the order of the day. Some excellent fields of corn are being harvested this fall.

HILLSBURG

Mimosa Disciple Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday, September 12th, when Gladys Lillian, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Robertson, of Orton, was united in marriage with Edgar Gray, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Gray, of Hillsburg. The church was tastefully decorated with mountain ash, asters, fern and gladioli, with the guest pews distinguished by white asters and ribbon. Rev. J. P. McLeod officiated. The bride entered the church with her father to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Charles Robinson, of Guelph. The bride looked lovely in a gown of silk chiffon over white satin. Her veil of embroidered net, set in cap effect, and finished with silver trimmings, fell in soft folds in a train. She carried a bouquet of Joanna Hill roses and lily-of-the-valley and maiden hair fern and finished with streamers of white satin ribbon. She was attended by Miss Jessie McKinnon, of Guelph, fittingly attired in pink net, and wearing a corsage of sweet-peas and maiden hair fern. The bride and groom left on a trip to Toronto, Niagara Falls and Detroit. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm, sixth line, Erin. Miss Viva Miller, who has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Will Miller, returned to her home at Collingwood on Sunday. We offer our sincere sympathy to Mrs. Douglas Reid and family in their recent sad bereavement. The Ladies' Aid of Coningsby United Church held a very successful pie social in the church on Monday evening. A good crowd assembled to enjoy the festive and fire-program, which was given. A gathering in the form of a picnic was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cheyne in honor of Mr. James Cheyne, who is returning to his home in Florida after an extended visit here with friends. Friends were present from Rockwood, Guelph, Centre Inn, Brampton, Orton and Coningsby. A very enjoyable time was spent by everyone. The afternoon was indulged in softball, races and contests. After a supper of sandwiches, cake, ice cream and melons, a short program was presented, after which the gathering was brought to a close by the singing of "God Be with You Till We Meet Again." A toxoid vaccination for diphtheria was given to children from 6 months to 12 years in the Mimosa School on Monday, September 17th. A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Gray on Monday evening in honor of the recent bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Gray. The fore part of the evening was spent in dancing, while at 11:45 Mr. George Bryan read an address, and Messrs. J. C. Barnes and Clarence Byran presented the bride and groom with two lovely wicker chairs and a fernery. The groom made a fitting reply in his usual pleasant manner. Lunch was served and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. Mr. Ross McKinnon is quite busy with his outfit, filling silos these days. A corn and weiner roast, under the auspices of Mimosa Disciple Young People will be held at the home of Mr. Wm. Cheyne, Jr., this week. We are sorry to learn that little Miss Martha Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Gibson, of Orton, is suffering from an attack of infantile paralysis. We hope she will be about again soon.

BURLINGTON

Mr. Norman Wilson, of Kansas City, Missouri, has returned home after being the guest of Miss Helen Reid, Maple Avenue. Daylight Saving ends on Sunday in this district. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gash and son have returned from England, and will again take up residence in Canada. Miss Annie E. Wood, C. A. M. R. G. Guelph line, has been chosen physical therapist at St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, and began her duties last week. Robert Brisbane reported to the Hamilton police that his green Essex coach, license No. M-7423, was stolen in that city on Saturday. The car contained a kit of electrician's tools. Bruce Lindley left on Monday for Toronto University, where he will assume the position of Manager of the Senior Rugby Team for the coming season. Work is progressing on the new waterworks main, and the pipe has been laid down New Street as far as the Martin farm, and by the end of the week the line will be pretty well completed to the tower. His Honor Judge Munro held Division Court in the Council Chamber, on Monday, when several cases were heard. Division Court Clerk Stuart's many friends were pleased to see him on the job again, after his leave of absence. Gazette.

ROCKWOOD

The September meeting of the Presbyterian W. M. S. was held on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wm. Swanson. The scripture reading, Isaiah 25: 26: 1-4, was read by Mrs. Lloyd Johnston. Mrs. Robert Patterson and Mrs. D. McNabb were appointed to value and pack a bale. Mrs. McNabb was appointed a delegate to Section Meeting, to be held in Eden Mills. Mrs. F. Hall sang a solo, "Is He Yours?" The President then gave a paper, "Seventy Years of Progress in the Women's Missionary Society," and Mrs. J. E. Pearen gave a reading, "Books of Africa." The meeting closed with the Doxology and prayer by Mrs. Gordon Swanson. The hostess, assisted by her daughters, served afternoon tea. The Township School Fair, held last Wednesday, was largely attended, and despite threatening weather, was a successful affair. Several prizes were awarded to scholars of the different schools on their exhibits, which were worthy of note, and the young folks are deserving of credit for their efforts in school work. The anniversary services at the Presbyterian Church on Sunday were largely attended, and the discourses by Rev. T. Goodwill, B. A. of Hillsburg, were much enjoyed. The evening service at the United Church was dispensed with and Rev. W. J. Taylor also took part in the service. The choir rendered special numbers and selections by the quartette composed of Messrs. B. Freure, Albert Gray, Dr. K. B. Waller and A. J. Elliott were appreciated as well as a solo at the morning service by Miss Eileen Bridger, of Guelph. On Monday evening the anniversary supper was held in the basement and the good things provided by the ladies of the congregation were done justice to by the larger number who were present, followed by a program of good variety. Mr. C. J. McKay, student minister, was chairman, and with his witty remarks interspersed during the evening, kept the audience in good humor. After the doxology, the choir of St. Paul's Church, Guelph, gave a selection, as well as solos, duets and quartettes during the program. Readings by Mrs. Brough, Miss Evans, Miss Grindell, and solos by Miss M. Starkey and Mr. R. Tarzwell were well received. Rev. John Little also gave a brief address. Last Friday evening a pleasant time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben. Hosking, when the Young People's of the United Church met to do the young couple honor on the occasion of their recent marriage. Progressive crokinole was enjoyed during the evening, followed by a presentation to the groom with a hall-tree and mirror. Mr. Morris and Hurd read the address and Messrs. Geo. Day and Wilbert Patterson made the presentation. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Root were in Norwich last week, attending the funeral of the late Mrs. J. H. Entwistle. Visitors during the past week and the week-end were: Miss Mary Stewart, of Wimpieg. Dr. E. F. and Mrs. McCullough and daughter, Miss Marion McCullough, of Guelph. Mr. Robert Croft, of Toronto. Mr. Johnston Hewat, of Simcoe. Dr. Fred Croft, of Kitchener. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Garner, of Galt. Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Smith, of Woodbridge. Miss Eileen Bridger, of Guelph. Mr. and Mrs. Percy Milne and daughter, of Brantford. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. LeVines, of Buffalo. Mr. W. Gardiner, who spent a fortnight in Buffalo, returned home with his son-in-law and daughter. Mrs. Frank Day is spending a few days in Toronto. Mr. Fred Day is at Canfield for a fortnight, relieving the Postmaster for a holiday. Harvest Home services are being held at St. John's Church, Friday evening and Sunday afternoon. The monthly meeting of the Rockwood Women's Institute is being held this (Thursday) evening in the basement of the Presbyterian Church. Mrs. B. N. Nelson is convener of the program.

EDEN MILLS

Mrs. Argo's home was the meeting place for the Women's Missionary Society on Thursday afternoon, with a fair attendance. The United Church Board meeting was held in the church on Thursday evening last, when quite a number of problems of interest were discussed and settled. The Women's Institute held their September meeting at Mrs. L. Tolton's home. The roll call, "Your Hobby," was well responded to. The subject, "Possibilities and Benefits of a Home Garden," was an interesting feature, as was "Summer Desserts," demonstrated by Mrs. W. Wilson and Mrs. Jas. Gilbertson. The meeting closed in the usual form. Quite a number from here attended Nassagaweya Presbyterian anniversary segyles last Sunday. Mr. Wadland, of Toronto, representative for the Upper Canada Bible Society, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall on Tuesday, and spoke at Ebenezer Church that evening, his subject being "The Romance of the Bible."

TERRA COTTA

A number of young people from Milton, Credit Forks and the surrounding district attended a social dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tona Zilio, on the Stringer homestead, on the town line, on Friday evening last, it being a farewell party. An orchestra from Campbell's Cross very ably furnished the music for the occasion, while Mr. J. McQuarrie acted as master of ceremonies. Mr. J. McBride and Mr. W. Shortill, of Georgetown, motored up to New Lisheard, New Ontario, on a business trip, arriving home on Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Tona Zilio and family have moved into Mr. John Sanderson's house, on the mountain. Fall ploughing is in full swing at present. A number from here attended Acton Fair yesterday. School days are here again. A number from here attended the School Fair at Inglewood last week, and report a good time. There is quite an epidemic of colds in our hamlet. We are pleased to learn that all are on a fair way to recovery. Mr. Martin is still making some decided improvements to his fishery on the tenth line, and gives steady employment to a large number of men. He also has constructed an up-to-date highway from the fishery to the tenth line corner. Mr. C. Wiggins had the contract of the grading and also made a very creditable job. Mr. Martin also purposes gravelling the new road this fall.

ERIN

Dame Rumor is to the effect that a number of rural teachers and pupils have commenced work on a float to compete for the silver cup and cash prizes for the best float to be exhibited at Erin Fair. Forty-six pupils are now enrolled in the classes of Erin Continuation School and are off to a good start for the year's grind in the never-ending struggle for knowledge. John McLaren, of Rockwood, who was recently awarded the contract to remove three thousand yards of earth from Letch's Hill, on the Guelph Road, into the gully south of the hill, commenced work on Monday and has a dozen men with scrapers and trucks rapidly removing the required yardage. Convicted in Guelph Police Court on a charge of reckless driving, Roy Ferguson, of Erin, was fined $10 and costs and his driving permit was cancelled for thirty days. The case arose out of an accident, when cars driven by Ferguson and by Howard Allison, of Acton, collided. "The exhibits shown me, in the form of photographs, show that one car was very much off its course," said Magistrate Watt. Citizens in the business section of the village were startled by the fire alarm on Tuesday afternoon. J. H. Gibson and his assistant had been heating a barrel of pitch, which they were applying to the roof surface of his garage and when about two-thirds of the material ran out, and Mr. Gibson instructed his helper to put a couple of pails of tar into the barrel. Immediately after the tar was put in the barrel, a chemical action took place and the contents of the barrel boiled over into the fire, from which great clouds of smoke belched into the sky and the fire spread in a menacing manner. Ford Wins at C.N.E. Here's the Story

Ford V-8 engine wins again! Six of the ten contestants in the 225-class event at the C.N.E. for the World's Championship were powered with Ford V-8's. Here's new proof that this amazing engine has the speed to put it out in front and the stamina to keep it there. The number of Ford-driven boats in this international event shows what racers think of the V-8's power and dependability. The Ford car is the only car costing less than $4,000 which has a V-type engine—the same type of engine which holds all world's records on land, on the sea, in the air. For a new thrill in motoring drive the Ford V-8. Remember that it is the most economical Ford car ever built. It is the roomiest and most-comfortable. Phone or visit us. Be wise and do it now.
