Interesting Items Concerning Other Centres and Communities in which Many of Our Readers are Interested

BALLINAFAD

Mr. Joseph Benham spent a day last week with friends in Toronto. Mr. Arnold McEnery returned home from the Hospital last Sunday, and is improving slowly after his operation. There is quite an epidemic of colds in the district, mostly among the children. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Soper visited with friends at Hillsburg during the week. The school children are busy practicing for their Christmas concert. There were sixty chickens taken from Mr. Bernard Miller's henhouse by some person or persons last week.

TERRA COTTA

A number of our young people were kindly entertained to a social dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Eves on Friday evening. Karn Bros' orchestra furnished the music. Messrs. J. and Wm. Mackie, of Toronto, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Mackie, of this place. Mrs. H. Hayward is on the sick list at present. We hope soon to hear of her complete recovery. Mr. Wm. Hunter, Sr., is ill at present.

EDEN MILLS

On Thursday evening, as Nell McPhail, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McPhail, was leading their male animal to water, he was viciously attacked, being terribly gored. The animal knocked a stairway, nearby, on him, which helped to save his life. Dr. Walker, of Rockwood, was hastily called in, who gave first aid and had him rushed to Guelph General Hospital. He was found to be in a most serious condition. Latest report is encouraging, although not out of danger. The community was deeply stirred over the accident and are hoping for Nell's recovery. On Saturday Mr. John Marshall attended a meeting in Brampton, when Clerks from Dufferin, Peel and Halton met Dr. Jameson, of the Provincial Board, Old Age Pensions, who fully explained the changes in the Act, whereby the Clerks of municipalities, and County Clerks do the work formerly carried on by County Boards, and Inspectors. This law comes into effect January 1st, 1935.

EVERTON

Mr. Charles Roth, Mrs. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. Roth, and Miss Brown, of Toronto, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Hébert and family. Mr. and Mrs. Angus McLaughlin and son, Jesse, and daughter, Lida, of Hillsburg, also Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Awrey and son, Ivan, of Guelph, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. Usherwood on Sunday. Mr. Alex. Currie, of Toronto, spent Saturday with his sister, Miss Rose Currie, also Mr. and Mrs. Walker Coulting. Mr. and Mrs. John Fielding, of Paris, visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. Horrop recently. Mr. and Mrs. Alvin McCutcheon, town line, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert McCutcheon and children, sixth line, spent Sunday with the former's parents. Several from this vicinity took in the Royal Winter Fair. Mrs. W. Hodgkinson sang a solo; Mrs. George Robertson and Miss Jean Robertson a duet, on Sunday morning, it being Women's Day at the church. Rev. J. P. McLeod preached a sermon along missionary lines.

GEORGETOWN

St. George's annual bazaar held last Saturday was again very successful, realizing $275. On Monday evening as Mrs. W. B. Shortill was going out the rear door of her home on Edith Street, she tripped on a rug and fell down the steps, breaking her collar bone and suffering severe bruises. Miss Elaine Wodson, daughter of Georgetown's esteemed summer residents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wodson, and formerly of the Hart House Players, who is studying at the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art in London, England, founded by the late Sir Beerbohm Tree, has won the Lady Tree prize for dramatic recitation. There were 28 competitors. On Saturday evening last Mr. A. Hyde entertained representatives of the Shell Gas Co., Mr. R. Rodgers, contractor, and a number of friends at a dinner to celebrate the successful completion of the moving of the large brick building at the corner of Guelph and Main Streets, which is being remodelled as a Shell Service Station.—Herald.

ERIN

Mr. Clarence Wrigglesworth, of Stratford, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wrigglesworth. The business men and friends of Mr. Luther Overland assembled on November 22nd and presented him with a number of gifts in honor of his 84th birthday. Wesley McLean, a C. N. R. telegraph messenger, of Toronto, was instantly killed last Friday night when his bicycle was struck by a motor car at Harbord and Shaw Streets. Deceased was a nephew of Mrs. Chisholm, Erin. Mr. A. (Jim) Vidal, who has been employed with Chester Burt for the past seven and a half years, left this week for Quebec, where he sails on the 28th, on the Duchess of Bedford to visit his mother in Malta. A report appeared in a number of papers last week, to the effect that Mr. A. (Jim) Vidal, of Erin, went down with the W. O. Franz steamer in Lake Huron, following a collision with the Edward E. Loomis. The address of the unfortunate young man was Erin, not Erin.—Advocate.

CREWSON'S CORNERS

Mrs. Moore, of Guelph, has returned home after spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. McIntosh. The Hydro has been extended to two more homes at the Corners, Mrs. Cornell, and Mr. John Burlington's. Mr. Charles Lambert had quite an experience last Thursday evening when a man pointed a revolver at him and took his money, all there was in the till and what he had in the pocket, and fled away. Service at the church, as usual, Sunday School at 10.00, service at 11.00.

NASSAGAWEYA

A sad and fatal accident happened to Harold James Elliott, of Nassagaweya Township, on Friday last, while returning home from hunting rabbits. He was going through a gap in the fence when the gun caught and discharged, killing him instantly. He was in his 32nd year, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Elliott, of Lot 17, concession 3, Nassagaweya. The funeral was held on Monday from the home of his parents, and the service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. C. G. Jones, of Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church. Interment was made in Moffat Cemetery. The bereaved family have the deepest sympathy of the community in their sad and sore bereavement. The Ladies' Aid Society of the Ebenezer United Church held their monthly meet on Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. W. F. Darby, of Knatehull. They are packing a bale to be sent out West for Christmas. The time between now and Christmas is being taken up with entertainments put on by all the schools and churches of the district.

ROCKWOOD

Last week the members of the United Church Choir met at the home of Miss Dorothy Taylor in honor of her approaching marriage, to spend an evening, and presented her with an address and presentation of a wicker sewing cabinet, in which Miss Gladys Hanna and Mr. J. A. Little took part. The address was as follows: Dear Dorothy Taylor: To Miss Dorothy Taylor: It gives us, the members of the Rockwood United Church Choir, much pleasure to come to-night to greet you ere you set sail on the wide sea of matrimony. Times goes on from day to day, and from year to year, bringing to us many changes in one way and another, and with each change, we miss some one. While you have not been with us just recently, we have been hoping that you would again be with us but, since you have decided otherwise, we must console ourselves in the thought that the joy of which we are to be deprived will be enjoyed by another. We will, however, be looking forward to the times when you will come back to see us again. Life has never been known to be a path of eternal sunshine for any of us, and we would be foolish to wish it so, but we know that your sunny smile and happy ways will help you along many a rocky trail. When the kettle doesn't boil, and the dishes mount high and all looks muddled and grey, just think back on the times when, in our Choir work, the "G's" were too high and the "B's" too low, and the time all wrong, and you will laugh at the old remembrances; then the clouds will break and the sun pour in on you once more. "As you sail along; may your barque be sure and strong to resist the waves and shoals along the way, and when you bump into the rocks of difficulty may you steer on to better things, and anchor safely. So, now, we offer you this gift that you may know that our best wishes are following you and your mate. We wish you "Bon voyage." The Choir. All who were present enjoyed a pleasant time together, followed by a dainty lunch. On Thursday, at high noon, Miss Dorothy Taylor, in the presence of immediate relatives and others, at her home, was united in wedlock to Mr. LaVerne Penland, of Detroit, the ceremony being performed by the bride's father, Rev. W. J. Taylor. The many friends of Mr. Neil McPhail, townline of Eramosa and Nassagaweya, were sorry to learn of his unfortunate accident last Thursday at this home, when he was seriously injured by a bull. Mr. Russell Patterson, who has been confined to his home with some leg trouble for the past two months, was removed to a hospital in Toronto last week. His many friends and acquaintances wish him a speedy recovery. He is also missed in the Sunday School, where he was the Superintendent. A few who were here during the past week and week-end were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Croft, of Toronto. Mr. E. Gurrie and Miss A. Currie, of Oshpingle. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Osbourne, of Fergus. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kenward, of Fergus. Mr. and Mrs. A. Campbell, of St. Thomas. Mr. and Mrs. Everett E. LeVine, of Buffalo. Miss Edna M. Pearen, of Dundas. A number from Rockwood and vicinity attended the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto last week, and report a good show all through.

OAKVILLE

Mr. W. S. Savage is confined to his home through illness. The many friends of Mrs. F. L. Root will be pleased to hear that she is making satisfactory recovery following an operation at St. Joseph's Hospital. G. C. Atkins, of Bronte, Gordon Breckon, of Bronte, and C. R. Terry, of Clarkson, are among the prize winners at the Royal Winter Fair with their exhibits of apples. Andrew York, of Trafalgar, was arrested on Thursday morning by Constable L. Patterson, of Bronte, charged with a serious offence against a young girl. He appeared before John B. Moat, J. P., and was remanded for trial. In a statement made before Chief of Police David Kerr, of Oakville, last Thursday, Garfield Kinrade, of Hamilton, confessed that he had set fire to the barn owned by Roy Speers, of Bronte, which burned on November 19th, with an estimated loss of $15,000. That Oscar Seccord came to his death through the swallowing of carbonic acid, believed to have been self-administered, was the verdict returned by the jury at the inquest held in the Council Chambers on Wednesday night. The verdict was given after eight minutes deliberation.—Record.

BURLINGTON

Wm. E. Dalton, Caroline Street, arrived home on Monday evening from a six months' trip to England. He also visited France. Thieves broke into the residence of Mrs. A. Andrews, Nelson Avenue, one night last week, and carried away some linoleum and a large glass and other articles. Mayor Watson entertained the members of the Town Council and the Water Commission to a venison dinner at his home, Torrance Street, on Monday evening. District Deputy Post President Bro. Dorothy Hamilton, and his staff paid an official visit to Burlington Lodge, Sons of England, on Tuesday evening. The Water Commission held an informal meeting on Monday night, with Engineer Power to discuss the tentative plans for the new pump house and equipment. Friends of Louis W. Mackenzie, 147 Sherwood Avenue, Toronto, will regret to learn that while working on a roof in Muskoka over the week-end he fell and received painful back injuries and a broken rib. On Sunday night thieves broke into the summer home of R. L. Latham, Green Street, and practically cleaned out the household effects. It no doubt required a large ton truck to cart away the stuff.—Gazette.

ANOTHER NAME

"I observe that you do a great many favors for that influential citizen." "Those aren't favors," answered Senator Sorghum, "those are investments."

MILTON

Many happy returns of the day to Major William Panton, now of Vancouver, born December 1st, 1847. Mrs. Frank Perry, Pearl Street, has asters growing in her garden, which are now in full bloom, and she is also using lettuce picked from her garden. Frank Chisholm was among the winners at the Royal Winter Fair, Toronto, in the White Embroidered Geese classes, in which there was very strong competition. George Dennison, crack wrestler and coach of the Milton Physical Culture Club, had the misfortune to injure his right leg during a training bout here on Friday night last. On Monday evening last Reliance Lodge, No. 49, I. O. O. F., of Guelph, paid a visit to Milton Lodge, No. 82. During the evening the first degree was conferred by the visiting brethren. Afterwards the members of the Milton Lodge entertained the visitors at a banquet. While driving his truck yesterday evening on King Street, here, R. E. Bently, Erindale, lost control of the driving wheel and the truck ran into the ditch and demolished the foot bridge at the corner of King and Bell Streets. He was accompanied by his brother, H. G. Bently.—Champion.

A RELATIVE

"Of course," said Briggs, as he commenced to tackle the portion of chicken with his knife and fork, "I may be wrong, but it strikes me that this chicken?" "Well," snapped the landlady tersely, "and what's the matter with the chicken?" Briggs shrugged his shoulders. "Oh, nothing—nothing," he said off-handedly. "I was going to say that it is quite evident that it was an offspring of a hard-boiled egg."
