MUSICAL NUMBERS AND SPEECHES ON U.F.Y.P.O. PROGRAM

The regular meeting of the U.F.Y.P.O. was held in Lorne School on Wednesday night January 12th, with the President, Harry Smethurst, in charge: The roll call was answered by the size of the shoe.

After the business discussion. Walter Couke was called upon to be chairman for the following program: Mouth organ solos by Jack Stewart; a contest, of which Mrs. White and George Burt were winners; plano accordeon solos by Jim Davies; and community singing.

During "the program impromptu speeches were given by Howard Switzer, Jean Aitken, Gordon Lealie, Calvin Altken, Wallace Swackhamer and Jean Mann. All were very interesting and exceptionally well done. Mr. W. Murray gave the judges' decision, in favor of Jean Mann.

Lunch was served at the conclusion of the program, and the remainder of the evening apent in dancing.

two up. Fair and Harvey were the Oakville markemen in this period. Bayliss received a penalty; but Oakville were unable to score. Myers received a penalty for the homesters, and Acton bang-out from Jones. Winn wasn't given much chance on the play. Before Acton pergus were able to the it up, the period ended.

Acton came out in the third period determined to tie it up. Archibald, big Oakville defence man, received a penalty, and Acton took advantage of the break. They banged in two quick goals; to go out in front. Baylins passed to Partion to the it up; and Cook to Papillon to Saunders brought Acton out in front for the first time in the whole game. Acton were able to hold the lead until about four minutes of play was left Harvey shot from the blue line, and the shot deflected off Frankle Holmes shoulder. It was a heartbreaker for Acton, making an overtime game—the fourth in a row, for Acton. Myers and Saunders were penalised in this period by Referee "Plint" Terry. Oakville caught Acton flat-footed in the first minute of the overtime when Hillmer took the puck away from Jones. in front of the Acton net, to beat Holmes. Acton turned on the power, but Regan broke away while Acton were pressing. -Mr. James Gibbons suffered a badly and scored Oakville's sixth goal. This goal marked finish to Acton, but they never gave up the battle until the bell went to end the game. Bayliss and Archibald received penalties in the last

Statesman Celebrates 75th Birthday

Prominent in British government circles for many years, David Lloyd George (above) celebrated his 75th birthday on January 43th. While still a Member of Parliament. Lloyd George has no official post in the present government and seems content to sit ba k and watch the moves other statesmen make. His last appearance in the news came when fire threatened to destroy his orchard and he rushed from his home to aid workmen put out the blaze.
