Milton Juniors defeated Acton by a score of 8 to 5 in a rough and bruising battle played before 500 racing fans at Acton on Thursday last. Fans, somewhere in the audience, threw coal at the referee, J. Bruch, hitting him on the forehead and cutting a gash which bled profusely, later requiring medical attention. What is the matter with the Acton fans? Can't they take defeat in a sportsmanlike manner, or are they still a little peeved at the defeat our baseball team handed them in the Milton County Baseball League and trying to take their revenge out on our Junior team? If they "cannot" treat their victors better than this, they should not be allowed to enter teams in competitive sport.—Champion
