CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Jas. Wilds and the members of the family of the late Mrs. Thos. Morton appreciate deeply the kindness that was shown in so many ways in their recent bereavement. The loan of cars and floral tributes and sympathy shown in other ways was all appreciated.

SOCIAL GATHERING OF FRIENDS HONOR OAKES FAMILY

Friends and neighbors in Erasmus Township, and numbering over one hundred, gathered at the home of Mr. Edmund Oakes to do honor to the members of the family prior to their departure for their new home. Dr. and Mrs. Frank Oakes have moved to Acton this week.

Mr. William Plester acted as chairman and opened the program with "The Maple Leaf," followed by an instrumental, by Mrs. J. Wells, accompanied by Miss Beatrice Curtis. Mr. Wm. McCuskey sang a solo, accompanied by Mrs. McCuskey. Mr. Clifford Swanson gave a humorous reading, followed by a solo by Mr. Bruce Freure, accompanied by Mrs. Freure. In a few suitable words Mr. Plester stated the purpose of the gathering and called Mr. and Mrs. O. Oakes and Mr. and Mrs. F. Oakes to come forward. Mrs. Peart read the following address:

"We, your friends and neighbors, have met this evening to bid farewell and spend a social time with you before you leave our midst. During the years which you have resided in this community we have learned to fully realize your sterling qualities as neighbors and sincere friends. You have always taken a keen interest in all social activities and have proven yourselves unselfish and faithful workers in the community. Your kindly ways and cheery disposition have always been outstanding features. We shall indeed miss you for these fine qualities, but our loss shall be another's gain. As a slight token of our esteem we ask you to accept these gifts and may they remind you of your many staunch friends and pleasant times you have spent with us. May you be spared to enjoy many happy years in your new home. Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbors."

WM. PLESTER, JAMES FLEMING, A. PEART.

At the proper time, Mrs. Peart, Mr. Fleming, Mrs. J. Fleming and Mrs. Wm. Plester brought in two floor lamps and a reading lamp, each for Mr. and Mrs. O. Oakes and Hazel.

Mr. Oakes and Frank replied Short speeches were given by Mr. D. Storey, Mr. S. Parkinson, Mr. W. Grieve and Mr. Fred Langdon. The remainder of the evening was spent in cards and dancing, the music for which was supplied by Mr. and Mrs. A. Parkinson.

PICTURES FEATURE MEETING OF THE GREENOCK LITERARY

The regular meeting of Greenock Literary Society was held in the school on Friday evening, when members and their invited friends enjoyed a social evening. The President, Gordon Leslie, was in charge of the meeting.

The special feature of the evening was moving and talking pictures, presented by the Hanna Bros. of Quelph. These pictures proved very interesting and were enjoyed by all.

Community singing, followed by the National Anthem, brought the meeting to a close. Lunch was served and a social time spent.

Obituary

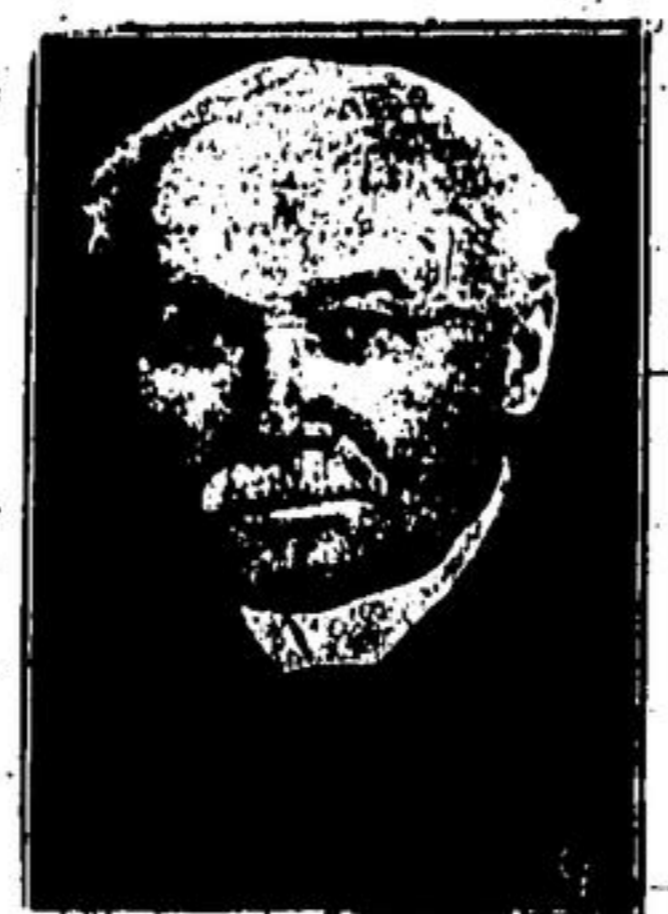

NORMAN W. SUNLEY, Toronto
After an illness of two months Norman W. Sunley, son of Mrs. T. J. Sunley, of Quelph, and brother of Mrs. (Dr.) E. J. Nelson, Acton, died in Toronto on Tuesday.

The late Mr. Sunley was born in Quelph and educated in the Public Schools and Collegiate Institute of that city before leaving for Toronto about 20 years ago, where he lived until the time of his death. While living in Quelph he was a member of First Baptist Church. In politics he was a staunch Liberal. He was also a member of the Masonic Order.

He leaves to return his loss his mother, Mrs. T. J. Sunley, Quelph; five sisters, Mrs. C. S. McParlane, Mrs. J. D. Doughty, Quelph; Mrs. E. J. Nelson, Acton; Mrs. W. H. Mook and Mrs. Bernard J. Updell, Quelph.

The remains are resting at the home of C. S. McParlane, 337 Woodlawn Street, Quelph. The funeral will take place from the residence of his sister, on Friday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Interment will take place in Woodlawn Cemetery, Quelph.

LORD ATHOLSTAN DIES

Lord Atholstan (above) publisher of the Montreal Star, died at his home in Montreal after several months' illness. Formerly Sir Hugh Graham, the 90-year-old publisher was elevated to the peerage in 1917. Although he had sold the Star outright 12 years ago, Lord Atholstan arranged that delivery of the voting stock should not be made until his death.

Mrs. Bennie sang the deceased's favorite hymn, "Take My Life and Let It Be." The pall-bearers were her six brothers; and the flower bearers were Norman Willis, Francis Wilds, Fred Wilds, Wesley Kain, Clifford Christie and Dobbie Lappin.

Friends from this district were joined with friends from Valleyfield, Quis, Toronto, Georgetown, Glen Williams, Vineland, Beamsville, Hamilton, Harriston, Walkerton, Owen Sound, and Palmerston, who gathered at the funeral in tribute to a life they esteemed.

JOHN ANDREW MOFFAT
The funeral of the late John Andrew Moffat, who passed away on Thursday, February 3rd, was held from the family residence, 1 Yonge Street, Richmond Hill, last Sunday afternoon. The late Mr. Moffat, who was born at Creff, in Puchlin Township, Christmas Day, 1866, had been in ailing health about four months. He had been a resident of Richmond Hill for the past fifteen years and was a highly esteemed citizen of the community. Of a quiet disposition, he was devoted to his home and enjoyed the respect and esteem of all with whom he came in contact. For the past nine years he was a member of the staff of the J. H. Dunlop and H. J. Mills greenhouses, and previous to that was employed at St. Andrew's College.

Previous to coming to Richmond Hill he lived in Acton, Ontario, and in 1900 was married to Annie J. Mann, of that place, by whom he survived, along with two daughters, Elizabeth and Jean, and one brother, Martin N. Moffat, of St. Paul, Minn.

The funeral service on Sunday, which was attended by a large number of friends and relatives, was conducted by Rev. C. W. Follett, of Richmond Hill United Church, assisted by Rev. J. D. Cunningham, of Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church. Both ministers paid tribute to the integrity and quiet, unassuming and genuine Christian character of the deceased. During the service Mr. W. L. Glass sang the late Mr. Moffat's favorite hymn, "Lord, I'm Coming Home."

Floral tributes, which were evidence of the sympathy of a wide circle of friends, were from: The Family; Fellow Employees of H. J. Mills Ltd.; H. H. Mills Ltd. staff; United Church Women's Association; the Liberal Printing staff; Richmond Hill group of Friends; Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Mann, Acton; Mr. and Mrs. J. Pollard; Mr. and Mrs. W. Tynan; Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Silcox; the Moffat family, St. Paul, Minn.; the Staff of King and Bathurst Branch, Bank of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Evans Toronto; Mr. George Nichol, Toronto; Mrs. E. Huffman and Gladys, Mrs. Thos. Moffat and family; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Murray and Velma, Acton. Interment took place in Fairview Cemetery, Acton, service at the cemetery being conducted by Rev. Dr. Morrow, of Acton United Church. Pall-bearers were J. Johnson, J. Ley, D. Hargrave, James Ellis, T. W. Allison and V. Critchbank. The flower-bearers were Gordon Stephenson, D. McCibbon, R. Phinney, A. Paterson, W. Schurman, D. M. Chamney, James Grainger and Lloyd Poole—Richmond Hill Liberal.

MRS. THOMAS MORTON
Friends regretted to learn of the death on Tuesday of Mrs. Thomas Morton, formerly Mrs. John Cullen, in her seventy-second year. While she had not enjoyed the best of health, her illness was not considered serious and she was active and took a keen interest, not only in home matters but in little gatherings of friends and relatives and the True Blue Lodge work.

Mrs. Morton's maiden name was Catherine Dobbie, a daughter of the late James and Sarah Dobbie, and she was born on the homestead, on the fourth line of Equeusing Township. Besides her husband, she leaves one daughter, Mrs. James Wilds, Acton, and one son, William McCann, of Owen Sound. One son predeceased her in 1922. Five sisters and six brothers, also remain. They are Mrs. Thos. Marshall, of Acton; Mrs. William Patterson, of Muskoka; Mrs. Mrs. George Wyse, of Hamilton; Mrs. Fred Norton, of Glen Williams; Mrs. Thos. Lappin, of Acton; Andrew Dobbie, of Glen Williams; Alexander Dobbie, of Hamilton; James Dobbie, of Acton; Thos. Dobbie, of Valleyfield, Que.; Henry Dobbie, of Toronto; Hyatt Dobbie, of Elmhouse. There are also five grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. To all of the bereaved sympathy of friends goes out at this time.

The funeral was held on Friday, at two o'clock from the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Wilds, to Woodlawn Cemetery, at Quelph. She was a member of Knox Presbyterian Church, and the service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Bennie.

One Loss Galt Goals Scores Goal

HITS AND MISKES
Waterloo had the best crowd of the season. The school children had special concessions, and did they make the place ring!

And now, with those eight to ten kinds of meat under their belts, the Acton boys should be on a par with the Waterloo lads.

A bus load of fans went in addition to all who went by individual cars at the game in Waterloo.

Waterloo hasn't lost a game yet. But other teams we have heard of had a similar record until the play-offs.

Somebody upset a bag of peanuts on the ice, that had to be cleaned up before the game could be finished.

But that's better than chunks of coal, anyway, that are alleged to have been thrown in Acton Arena.

We haven't much use for the guy who will drop or throw things from behind the shelter of the boards. That sort of thing doesn't require much spirit.

Schmalts didn't do it again.

And the whole of the third period was scoreless too, and not only the last few minutes.

We don't make any predictions, but we won't be surprised at anything that happens.

When we meet again.

Waterloo trimmed Galt on Monday, and that just about eliminated the Terriers from the competition.

Incidentally, it is said that only two of the Waterloo team reside in Waterloo. Which allows a pretty good field to draw from, when the Twin Cities combine.

ACTON 8 - GALT 5
The last game of the schedule, between Galt and Acton, ended in another victory for the locals and the score was no indication of the play. But it showed the best of feeling between the clubs, even if a little burlesque was indulged in. It made Acton's second place finish secure, and the elimination of Galt also secure from a play-off berth. The Galt team only brought seven men, and of course had no chance of a win.

Galt started shooting from well out. Orton saved on Marro's first try, and Woods did the same for Rellly. Orton came out to stop Terry's effort. Norm Morton was close, but Orton kicked it out. The first score was by Gillespie, at 8.50, on a nice play with Cassidy, when they were right in on Woods. Gillespie was right in again, but missed the pass. Woods saved on Rellly's rebound shot. Acton stormed Orton, but he turned them aside. Mooney evened the count at 14.47 when Orton was out of his goal, after saving from a scramble. I Marro got one in the goal, but it wasn't allowed, as he was in the crease. Dillon was close. Acton's second goal was by Mooney again after Kenter's shot had bounded out. It came at 17.45. Orton stopped a couple of hot ones. First period ended 2-1 for Acton, and Galt certainly did well, with only seven men to carry the play.

At the opening of the second period, Gibbons was close on Mooney's pass, and Norm Morton nearly poked one in as Orton went down. E. Marro made a nice check when two Galt men broke Arbie's goal at 9.33 on I. Marro's pass. Number four came at 10.07 from a rebound that hit the post. Rellly went off for checking Norm high, Lovegrove broke alone, but Woods beat him. Acton was playing every man down. A hot shot by Norm Morton spun on the goal line, but stayed outside. Arbie was right in but Orton laid on the rubber to save the score. Gillespie was close, but Woods beat him. Norm and Bill Morton combined on a close one but didn't tally. The period ended 4-1 for Acton, with the locals deserving the edge of that score on the play easily.

Woods smothered Lovegrove's drive as the third period opened. Lovegrove drew a penalty for mixing with Walters. Kenter followed him to the box—Woods laid out to block a three-man spurge by Galt. Orton beat Norm Morton when he and Terry broke with only the goalie to beat. Cassidy missed the open net. Mooney failed with only Orton to beat. Galt put everybody down and ganged Acton. Gillespie got a counter at 10.45 from the pressure. Woods was a busy boy.

Terry went in but Orton saved a nice one. At 12.40 Norm Morton scored from a scramble. Norm broke alone again at 13.04 to blink the signal light again. Dillon shot high when he was right in. Mooney but his shot in Orton's pads. At 15.10 Terry got his goal when he broke with Norm. Another one came from Bill Morton at 16.00, when Terry was down with him. Woods saved from a scramble.

With the score at 8-2 for Acton, the locals let the visitors put on the show. Dillon got one at 17.10 and Woods went down to save on Cassidy's attempt. I. Marro was close on Mooney's pass. Orton came out of his goal on a lone rush and was allowed to score, but it wasn't scored right and not allowed. At 18.50 Rellly got a counter. Then the final show was put on. Orton, the Galt goalie, faced off and all stood aside for him to get his counter. Norm bulged the twine as the period ended, but the goal wasn't needed.

Final score—8-5 for Acton.

The line-up:

SHORT SENTENCES

The ice was wet. Nobody wanted to go down. Everybody tried hard not to get down on it.

The crowd was fair. The school children were there in good numbers and did they yell.

Once before the goal keeper was allowed to score. When Branford was beaten by Acton.

The favor has never been given to Acton by another team, that we can recall.

All lined up for the play-offs now.

Waterloo finishes first; Acton second; and Preston third. Not so bad for the first year in the "A" class.

Acton has a postponed game with Preston that is due to be played on Monday night.

It's to be hoped the weather holds and Acton's play-off with either Waterloo or Preston can be played on the home ice.

Giant Tire Used for Road Building

Instead of metal wheels, road building equipment will now be equipped with giant tires such as the one shown above. The tire is more than four feet in height and is almost large enough to afford a hide-away for five-year-old Ella Eberhart shown sitting in the hub space. The tire was on display at the public auditorium in Cleveland where $10,000,000 worth of road building equipment was shown at the 1938 road show and convention of the American Road Builders' Association.

Meet what is believed to be the largest horse in the world—Brooklyn Supreme—a nine-year-old Belgian stallion that now weighs 3,030 pounds and still is growing. The stallion too big to breed, is owned by C. G. Good, of Boone, Ia., a member of the lower house of the Iowa legislature. The horse has been shown on the road the last three years. Owner Good once was offered $2,000 for it.
