NOT TO BUY WARBLE POWDER THIS YEAR

At recent meetings of the Councils of Esquimaux, Nasagaweya, Nelson and Trafalgar, it was decided not to purchase the additional warble powder requirements for 1938. In all four Townships it was the feeling of the members of the Councils that inasmuch as warble powder had been supplied to all cattle owners during the past three years, and furthermore, inasmuch as it had been clearly demonstrated that the warble pest could be very easily and economically controlled, that it was only reasonable to expect that every cattle owner would now purchase his own requirements.

Township Councils and other key men throughout the County are most enthusiastic regarding the efficiency of warble wash. Thus, Bird of Georgetown, states that "Prior to the campaign it was almost impossible to keep our herd in the field on hot sunny days throughout the summer, whereas last year we saw them gadding only once or twice." Ross Segsworth, of Freeman, comments as follows: "In our own herd, after three years of using warble powder we did not find as many grubs on the herd as could be found on any one of the young cattle prior to three years ago." "Last year," states Mr. Segsworth, "we only found two grubs on the whole herd." Arthur Haslop, of the same Township goes as far as to state that he feels the warble fly menace, as it existed up until three years ago, has been practically wiped out in Halton.

Somewhat similar comments were made by Reeve George Gordon of Nasagaweya, Reeve Victor Hall of Trafalgar, Edwin Harrop, President of the Halton Livestock Improvement Victor J. Lawrence of Oakville and many others. When contacting J. H. Willmott of Milton, noted Hampshire breeder he concluded his statement which was similar to those quoted above, by adding "I think it is in the farmer's own interest to keep the treatment up, as the cost is negligible and cattle do much better both from a beef, as well as a milking standpoint."

J. E. Whitelock, Agricultural Representative for Halton, when interviewed stated that the credit for the success of the three years program should go to the 75 keymen scattered over the County, who had worked untiringly, without monetary recompense for their time or gasoline. Mr. Whitelock also gave a good deal of credit to the county press for their support and co-operation.

Neighborhood News

Erin

Twenty friends and former neighbors of Erin, spent last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hamilton, enjoying a pleasant evening together.

Death came suddenly to Thomas Wilson on Friday, March 11th, when he collapsed from a heart condition while walking along the main street in Erin. He was carried to the office of Dr. J. A. L. Scott, where he died a few minutes later.

Quite a large number of logs have been hauled to Ernie's saw mill, in the village; and to McEwen's mill, on No. 5 side-road, Erin. It will not likely be long before the shriek of the saw will be heard as it converts into lumber and building material the trunks of trees which took years and years to reach their present proportions.

Negotiations has been completed, wherein J. O. Hamilton, one of Erin's prominent merchants, has purchased Stanley Park, Ernie's well-known summer resort. Mr. Hamilton will retire from the merchandise business and his hobby will be—a more beautiful summer resort in which he can fish, etc., at his leisure. —Advertiser.

Burlington

Miss Donna Huffman, the new public health nurse, commenced her duties in town. Miss McFarlane will remain with her until April 1st.

A truck owned by Fred Thomas, coal dealer, broke through the flooring of a bridge over Rambo Creek, on Brant Street on Thursday last. The truck was slightly damaged, and several planks were broken on the bridge.

Relief costs for the month of February were very high here being over $2,000. The total is practically the same as February, 1937. Very little opportunity is presented at the present time for the men to secure work, but it is hoped that road work will open up in the near future.

On Monday evening last, at the request of the High School Board, the Mayor and Council visited the school to hear P. S. Rutherford, Director of Vocational Education, speak on the new proposed Home Economics and General Shop courses in the High School. At the same time the Board and Council held a conference and discussion on the new addition to the school to provide for the courses.

The many friends of Mrs. John Nalbit, Water Street, will regret to learn that she had the misfortune to fall in her home and fracture her right shoulder on Saturday morning last.—Gazette.

Cedarvale

The monthly meeting of the Cedarvale Women's Institute was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Keeler on March 16th. Owing to the weather nine members and fourteen visitors were present.

In the absence of the Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Alvin White, the Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, Katherine Ferguson, took her place. Following opening exercises, conducted by the President, Mrs. William Cox, the roll call was answered by a suggestion to make house-cleaning easier.

The motto, "Put Can't in your Pocket and Take Out 'Til Try," was taken by Doris Pines. The topic on "How to Decorate a House," was given by Mrs. George Hardy. A mouth-organ selection was given by Arthur Johnson, and readings by Phyllis Smith and Katherine Ferguson. Music on the violin was contributed by Mr. Ed. Smith. It was decided that the women would start to make a quilt at the next meeting. Lunch was served and a social time spent in concluding the meeting.

Last Friday evening friends and neighbors had a presentation for Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Johnston, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McQuibben. Mr. Robert Sim acted as chairman. The program included an instrumental by Eleanor Griffin; a song by four school pupils; a vocal duet by Jessie and Gordon Reid; the chairman's address, music by Arthur Johnson and Eleanor Griffin; recitation by Mrs. Alvin White; music by Mr. Oscar Locker; a mouth organ selection by Mr. Rutledge and his daughter; a number of people were called on for speeches, a song by Mr. Rutledge, accompanied by Mrs. Hugh Reid; a reading by Katherine Ferguson; a song by Mr. Ed. Smith; Mrs. Johnston was then asked to take the chair. Mr. Hugh Reid read the address during which Mrs. Johnston was presented with four kitchen chairs, a tea set, sauce pan and pie tin in cream and red. Mrs. Johnston thanked her friends for their kindly remembrance. Friends were sorry that Mr. Johnston was not present. Lunch was served and the remainder of the night was spent in euchre and crokinole.

Friends are sorry to hear Mr. Harold Griffin is not very well, but all wish him a speedy recovery.

Friends are glad to see Mrs. Alvin White out again after having the chickenpox.

The roads are very muddy at present. Last Sunday the Sunday School presented Mrs. Johnston with a beautiful tablecloth and towels, also a nice book.

Mr. Smith explained that in such a case, 50% would be paid by the Department and 50% by the County, but only if such an agreement were signed by both the County of Halton and Georgetown municipality.

A MAGIC LAKE

One of the eight wonders of the world is Timbuctoo Pitch Lake discovered in 1895 by Sir Walter Raleigh. Its surface is like a great wrinkled tarpaulin, over 100 a res in extent. An automobile left standing on the pitch surface sinks gradually.

A pipe 160 feet long was forced into the lake in an unsuccessful attempt to find bottom. It vanished on night and re-appeared years later 800 feet away, shrank and twisted. The pitch is used extensively for highway surfacing, roofing and cementing. Trinidad is the southernmost island touched by Lady Timbers of the Canadian National Steamships in the service to the British West Indies and mainland.

TEN MILLION COWS PRODUCE GERMAN MILK

Seventy-five per cent. of the total quantity of milk produced in Germany goes into manufacture. The remaining 25 per cent. is retained in liquid form, and everybody having financial dealings with the industry must pay 1 pfennig per litre (about 9 quarts) of liquid milk to assist manufacturing prices. The total production of milk in Germany is 5,800,000,000 gallons from 10,000,000 dairy cows which are divided among 2,000,000 milk producers.

Of the total production of milk, 3,100,000,000 gallons—represent processed or treated milk. This includes milk for liquid consumption, the quantity sold as raw milk for liquid consumption being 200,000,000 gallons. This is either "T.T." milk, or milk sold in villages where pasteurization facilities are not available. Milk retained on the farms for manufacture or feeding to stock amounts to 2,300,000,000 gallons.

Sixty-three per cent. of the milk goes to the local dairy associations (producer-owned creameries) and the remaining 37 per cent. is disposed of in the following ways: (1) farmhouse cheese making and butter making by producers whose milk cannot be accommodated at the local creameries; (2) a small quantity is used by private dairymen and manufacturers whose interests have not yet been acquired by the German Milk Marketing Board; and (3) sales by producer-retailers who represent only 2 per cent. of the total.

Of the dairies in Germany, 80 per cent. are co-operatively owned by producers and 40 per cent. privately. The co-operative dairies deal with 70 per cent. of the milk sold off premises.

An Audience Seven Times the Town Hall Capacity

If a speaker were to come to Acton to hold a public meeting in the Town Hall and attract a capacity house, he would have the pleasure of speaking to about 400 people. A meeting with that many people present would be voted a great success. The speaker would be delighted to have the opportunity of addressing such a large audience. Every person interested in the meeting would be delighted and with good reason.

Every week THE FREE PRESS offers Acton merchants and other advertisers the opportunity to speak to over 1,000 families in Acton, and its trading district. 1,000 families means at least 3,000 people, an audience that would fill the Acton Town Hall to capacity seven times, with a few score to spare. What an opportunity this presents for the business man who has a worthwhile message.

The Premier of Ontario the Leader of the Opposition, or any other public man in Canada would deem it an honor to have the opportunity to speak to an audience of this size. Acton merchants and other advertising patrons may avail themselves of this opportunity every week.

They can induce that audience to look to them for its merchandise, the necessities and luxuries its members are obliged to buy if they make their talks such that they will deserve the goodwill, the confidence and the custom of their audience.

If You Want to Meet this Audience put Your Message in the Free Press!
