ROCKALONG INSTITUTE HEAR SPEAKER FROM INSTITUTE FOR THE BLIND

The Rockalong Institute held their April meeting at the home of Mrs. E. Maude, with the President, Mrs. D. McNabb, in charge. Roll call was answered by a housecleaning hint.

Mr. Robinson, from the Institute for the Blind, was present as guest speaker, and gave an interesting talk on what is being done in Canada toward making the blind self-supporting.

Mrs. Bayne gave a report of the second day of the Meet Project, which had been held in Guelph recently.

The meeting was closed with the National Anthem, and Mrs. Maude and her assistants served lunch.

NO OVERTIME

"The Messiah" was being sung to the accompaniment of a famous organist. Halfway through the organ gave a wheezy whistle and became silent.

"Hey, come back, Jack," he shouted. "It's not over yet!"

"Nay," said the blower, "ah'm not comin' back. Ah've done my job. It tak's longer to hummer an' ninety-seven blows for Messiah, an' Ah've done 'em, an' Ah'm done!"
