Eden Mills

The May meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church was held in the home of Mrs. W. Lowrie, with the President, Mrs. George Thomas, in charge. The meeting opened with a hymn and prayer by Mrs. Mino. Readings were given by Mrs. Nell McPhail and Mrs. James Gilbertson, and a solo by Mrs. Mino. Final arrangements were made for attending the Spring Rally of the Guelph Presbyterian in Rockwood, also for the annual sewing meeting, to be held at Mrs. Mino's in June. Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. James Gilbertson and Mrs. Nell McPhail, and a social half hour spent.

The Sunbeam Mission Band of the Presbyterian Church held a very successful social evening on Friday at the home of Miss Wilma Moore, to which the members of the Women's Missionary Society were invited. A good program of readings, duets and solos was very much enjoyed. Mrs. Thomas, President of the W.M.S., spoke a few words of appreciation of the work the Mission Band is doing, under the capable leadership of Mrs. Mino. A paper, based on mission work, was given by Mrs. W. Lowrie, after which Mrs. Mino and her band served costly refreshments and a social time was spent.

On Wednesday evening last, about six o'clock, cars owned by Gordon Allan and H. Oudmore, an employee in Macklin's garage collided at the corner of Hurd Avenue and Caroline Streets. The Oudmore car was the most damaged, the Allan car being not damaged. Both drivers escaped unhurt.

When the Town Council met in session on Thursday evening last, the chief item of business was the hearing of a deputation asking for protection for the local dairies by having the Council pass a by-law making it necessary to pasteurize in Burlington all milk sold in Burlington. Deputations, pro and con, addressed the meeting, and it was passed on to the Industrial Committee to report at as early a date as possible.—Gazette.

Ospringle

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. G. Robertson, in the village, when forty ladies were present, to enjoy the afternoon's program.

Mrs. E. Barber presided and Mrs. E. N. Sumter read the minutes of the previous meeting and also the financial statement for the year. Over twenty dollars was spent for fruit and flowers for the sick and bereaved, and numerous donations of money given to worthy causes. Mrs. Wm. Robertson, Mrs. Wm. McKenzie and Mrs. R. D. Burrows were appointed delegates to the District Annual at Hillsburg, in June. Instead of the usual garden party, in aid of the Everton Cemetery, it was decided to cooperate with the Trustees and Everton Institute, in a memorial service.

The co-operative program was fully discussed and a project voted on.

The topic for the program "Temperance Education" was thoroughly enjoyed. Mrs. Alex Orr, of Coningsby, who is Convener for Temperance for Centre Wellington, was present and gave a splendid address, which was much enjoyed. Mrs. Morgan Graham also of Coningsby, favored with an instrumental.

"Lead Kindly Light" A humorous reading was given by Mrs. H. Reid and other readings on Temperance were given by Mrs. Geo. Young, and Miss Mary Campbell. A very fine paper on "Mother," was read by Miss Mary Martin.

Mrs. R. S. McCutcheon offered her home for the June meeting, when the Cedarvale Institute are to be the guests. Lunch was served at the close and a social time enjoyed.

While cultivating last week, Mr. A. M. McPherson, of lot 32, concession 4, Nassagaweya, met with an accident. The line got under the tongue of the cultivator and he walked up the tongue to take it out, when one of the horses jumped and threw him off balance. He fell in front of the cultivator and the horses ran away, dragging him under the machine for some distance, before one wheel of the cultivator ran over a large stone, letting him pass out from under it. He was badly bruised and cut about the legs, and has some ribs fractured. Fortunately it was not more serious than this. We hope he may soon be well again.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Near and family, of Guelph, visited relatives and friends in Nassagaweya last Sunday.

Oakville

The Dominion Hardware Store was entered by thieves Friday night, and a sum of money and some merchandise stolen. The marauders gained entrance to the store by breaking the glass in the front door.

The campaign to raise $1,500 for the Oakville and District Boy Scouts Association is now in its third week. The response is most encouraging, and the committee as a total of $774 has been promised by 93 persons to date.

A straight reduction of three mills was made in Oakville's tax rate on 1.8 by the Town Council at its regular meeting Monday evening, when it fixed the rate for the year at 46 mills. The 1937 figure was 49 mills.

The late Charles H. Cross, once Mayor of Oakville for many years, a member of the Town Council, and one of the leading citizens of the community, will be commemorated in the naming of the new thoroughfare between the Sixth and Seventh Lines, to be built in connection with the new subway, it was decided at Monday evening's meeting of the Council.

Three sentences of six months definite, plus an indeterminate term not to exceed twelve months in the Ontario Reformatory at Guelph, were imposed by Magistrate Woodliffe in Magistrate Court Friday afternoon upon Ernest Mobbs, Hamilton, who a week previously had pleaded guilty to three charges of making, uttering, and possessing counterfeit 25 and 50 cent pieces. The sentences will run concurrently. His younger brother, James, was sentenced with him.—Record-Star.
