Rockwood

Considerable activity in the social life of the community has been manifest in some ways, and bringing together citizens who have not met for some years. Last Wednesday afternoon and evening, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Pearen celebrated the 40th anniversary of their wedding, and were at home to a large number of friends and acquaintances...

Among the guests during the evening were former ministers, Rev. J. Ure and Mrs. Stewart of Moorefield; and Rev. W. J. and Mrs. Taylor, of Dorchester. Mrs. (Dr.) Fred J. Hodging and younger son, Wayne Frederick Pearen Hodging, of Milldale, were home to assist her parents in looking after the numerous callers. Refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed by all. The many friends and acquaintances of Mr. and Mrs. Pearen wish them many more years of wedded bliss.

A wedding of much interest took place last Thursday afternoon in the United Church, when Mr. Alfred Day and Miss Margaret E. Thomas were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. P. H. Lawson, pastor of the couple, assisted by Rev. R. M. Geizer, of Welland. The platform was a tower of beauty, with peonies, lilies and daisies lining the railing. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, Mr. Arthur K. Thomas, with Miss Marion Day, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid, and George Day, brother, as best man. Mr. Lloyd Thomas and Mr. Roy Day, of Kirkland Lake, were ushers. Miss Anna Foreman played the wedding music, and during the signing of the register, Mrs. F. L. Stout, Guelph, sang, "Bocasso."

Following the wedding ceremony, the happy couple and guests left for Guelph for the wedding supper at the Y.W.C.A. During the evening, amid showers of confetti, the bride and groom left on their wedding trip to England. The best wishes of their numerous friends and acquaintances follow them in the years to come. On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Day will reside in Hamilton.

Previous to her marriage, Miss Thomas was the recipient of many handsome gifts, among which was a silver flower vase from the choir of the United Church.

On Friday evening, Mrs. R. F. McWilliams gave a shower for Miss Anna Foreman, who was the recipient of numerous and handsome gifts from her Rockwood friends. Mrs. McWilliams served a dainty lunch, and was ably assisted by Mrs. Foreman, of Ballinacree, the future bride's mother, and Misses Julia Garland, Eleanor Knowles and Mrs. Carl Wetzel.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Horlop attended the wedding on Saturday afternoon, at Everton, of his sister, Miss Muriel Mae Horlop, to Mr. Robert Palfreman, of Guelph Township. Their numerous friends in Rockwood and vicinity wish them much happiness in their new sphere of life.

Nabb made the presentation.

Dear Jean:

We have met together to show, in some tangible way, our appreciation of the assistance you have always given in the work of the church. You are leaving our midst for a journey, which we sincerely hope you will thoroughly enjoy. But though we wish your journey to be successful in every way, we want you to return to us as soon as possible, for your genial disposition and willingness to help in every way you could, have made your sojourn with us a most pleasant and profitable one, and one we wish always to retain.

Jean, we trust that these gifts to you, for they carry with them our sincerest wishes for your happiness wherever in the providence of God your lot may be cast.

Signed on behalf of the Ladies' Missionary Society and the Ladies' Organisation of Rockwood Presbyterian Church.

Miss McLean replied briefly, and thanked the gathering for the gifts (a lady's suit case and leather hand bag). All joined in singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow."

Previous to the presentation, the ladies who were present enjoyed some interesting contests, and following the presentation, refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Wm. E. Pasmore and sister, Mrs. J. B. Mackenzie, of Georgetown, returned home during the week-end from a month's visit with their sister, Mrs. McCrae, of Rockwood, Ont., and other members of the family circle at Regina.

More than thirty members of the local Post of the Canadian Legion, accompanied by the Oakville Citizens' Band, attended the celebration at Niagara Falls on Saturday.

Oakville lost one of its most esteemed citizens last week, in the person of Rev. George H. P. Groat, who died Friday evening in the Toronto General Hospital, where he had recently returned for treatment, following an operation which he underwent in May.

Skidding on the pavement and mounting the sidewalk, an American car crashed into the corner of the Hotel Gibson on Sunday, jolting the building and damaging the brick-work. As a result of the crash, Mrs. Joseph Manion, of Syracuse, N.Y., who was riding in the front seat, with her husband, sustained head and face lacerations, which necessitated twenty-seven stitches. — Record-Star.

Campbellville

On Tuesday afternoon as Mr. John Irving was driving along the road two miles east of the village, Howard Lash, driving in the opposite direction crashed into the former's car. Luckily no one in either car was injured, but the Irving car was badly damaged.

On Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock the wedding of Miss Gertrude Parnham and Mr. Amos Matthews was solemnized in St. John's Anglican church, which was prettily decorated for the occasion. Rev. Allan Hill performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Mr. James Parnham, wore a gown of white lace over satin. She wore a shoulder veil of net, falling from a coronet of orange blossoms. Her bouquet consisted of red roses and baby's breath. The bridesmaid, Lucy Parnham, was attired in pale pink tulle, with matching hat, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Even Matthews was best man. After the ceremony the couple left on a trip to Ottawa.

Ospringe

The McOutecheon re-union was held on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. McOutecheon, third line, Erin. This was the home of the first McOutecheon settlers in Canada and has been in the McOutecheon name for three generations. The first McOutecheons came from Ireland over a hundred years ago, and purchased their home from the Crown.

In spite of unfavorable weather in the early afternoon, one hundred and ten guests registered. All games and races were enjoyed, the winners being: Children, 6 and under, Jackie McOutecheon; girls, under 8, Merle McOutecheon; boys, under 8, John McOutecheon; girls, under 11, Frances Watson; boys, under 11, Jack Stewart; girls, under 13, Helen Aitken; boys, under 13, Charlie Parker; peanut race, Mrs. T. Chatting on the bench at Brooklyn's Ebbets Field when the Dodgers played Cincinnati Reds, are Johnny Vandermeer, left, the young man who restricts the hits in a way no other pitcher ever has, and the former King of Clout, Babe Ruth, the man who banged out base (and extra base) hits the way no other man ever has. The Babe is congratulating the Red's rookie after he performed the amazing feat of pitching two no-hit, no-run games in succession, the first against Boston, and the second against Dodgers, in the first night game played in Brooklyn. Shortly after this picture was taken Ruth signed a contract for $15,000 to coach the Dodgers.
