Rev. John Lindsay, of Whitby, a former minister of the local Presbyterian Church conducted the Communion service on Sunday, when a large attendance was present. The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McKillan was also christened.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. R. S. McCutcheon, in the passing of her brother, the late William Barbour, of Erin; and also to Mrs. Usherwood, of Everton, in the death of her husband, the late William Usherwood, who farmed in this community before retiring to Everton.

On Monday evening, about one hundred and thirty-five residents of this school section and vicinity gathered in Brydon's Hall, to honor the retiring school teacher, Mrs. R. D. Graham (nee Mary Martin) on the occasion of her recent marriage. Mr. T. G. Atkinson, the chairman of the Trustee Board, made a very efficient chairman. Several addresses were given by the orchestra, a duet by Misses Dorothy McKennie and Blanche McKinnon, songs by Miss Lorena Larker and Messrs. Ted and Ross Anderson, these being much enjoyed. Messrs. Wm. McKennie and H. D. Burrows were called on for speeches, and both offered congratulations and best wishes to the bride and groom. On behalf of the gathering, Miss Ada Currie read a well worded address, showing the good will and esteem in which Mrs. Graham was held, and also wishing her many years of wedded bliss. The address was in booklet form, the cover of which was a hand painted picture of the school done by Miss E. W. Anderson, one of our local residents.

At the proper time Mrs. R. D. Burrows and Mrs. T. G. Atkinson presented the happy couple with a beautiful wedding dinner wagon and tray to match. Mrs. Graham very graciously thanked the friends for the gift. Mr. Graham also voiced his sincere appreciation. Lunch was served after which a dance was enjoyed, the music being supplied by Messrs. G. Anderson, O. Larker, A. Suttler, T. Anderson and R. Anderson with E. Peavoy as floor manager.

Mr. Joe Mudge has been appointed as manager of the new brewery warehouse, on Water Street. Official announcement of his appointment was received to-day. Two clerks will be hired at a later date.

When he failed to make the curve at Rambo Hill, Water Street, early Tuesday morning, a car, driven by Allison Scott, Niagara Falls, N.Y., crashed into the fence in front of the summer home of A. Desrosiers. The fence was damaged for about twenty feet.

The driver of the car did not stop, but the local police notified Ouelph, where he was stopped.

Next Monday, August 1st, is the date on which Hamilton dairies must discontinue peddling milk in Burlington, according to a recent notice mailed by the Municipality, following a notice from the Medical Officer of Health that he had withdrawn his certificate of approval for certain dairies, whose sources of supply he could not inspect.

Rebates were sent to the various companies, but to date the cheques have not been cashed and every indication point to the fact that the order of the M.O.H. and the corporation will be defied by these big concerns and they will continue to peddle their milk after the first of August.

ROCKWOOD

After a couple of weeks of outdoor life, the girls of the Ro-Tri-Bin Camp, and their leaders returned to their homes in Ouelph on Saturday morning.

The third annual picnic and garden party, under the auspices of Rockwood and Ouelph Churches was held on Civic Holiday in Exhibition Park. Despite unfavorable weather Sunday night, and early Monday morning, the weather gradually cleared things up and by noon everything was in shape for a big afternoon and evening. Ball games were the attraction in the afternoon, with local teams and teams from Ouelph.

Booths and concessions did a big business with both young and old folks. Supper was served in the hall on the grounds, and the ladies of both churches spared no pains to satisfy the inner man.

In the evening a large number were present and enjoyed the varied program, conducted by Peter Monte and his large organization in this town from Hamilton, including ministers, who made things interesting for the audience. Several local numbers were much enjoyed, followed by the artists joining in the choruses.

Later in the evening Rev. Father Kehoe and Rev. Storey conducted the drawing of prizes, followed by a large number adjourning to the Town Hall for a dance, with music supplied by the Doyle-Thwaite Band.

The many friends in Rockwood and vicinity will sympathize with Mrs. Lindsay, in the sudden death of her father, Mr. Thompson, on Monday. The remains are being transferred to London, Ontario, for interment.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Garstang and son, Jack, returned home on Monday from their trip to the West. Mr. Garstang reports a fine trip.
