Little Willie—All right. Give me a quarter.

THREADING ELASTIC

When a new length of ribbon, tape, or elastic has to be threaded, either in a garment or through a curtain heading, a bag, or a cover of any sort, time may be saved by stitching the end of the new piece to the old piece before the old one is drawn out. Then as the old one is drawn out the new one follows it in. This method is especially useful when cord or elastic that is too thick for an ordinary bodkin has to be threaded. To prevent the end of a piece of elastic from being drawn too far in it is advisable to slip a large safety-pin through it.

AND THEN WHAT?
He—The doctor told me a year ago that I must give up smoking or I should become feeble-minded.

LETTER BOX

Dear Pat Press:
It was such a pleasure to visit your former home and the friends who are still there. See the changes which have taken place since leaving, and decide, after three years absence, which place one would sooner be living. But after all, it's not the place so much as adapting oneself to the circumstances of the place and being content.

I was privileged to visit a great many friends for a short time, had two half days and evenings at the C.N.E.; had an all-day drive through Toronto. Another all-day drive took me through North Halton and into Erin, thence back south via Milton, Ash, Palermo, Bronte, Oakville; north to visit the wonderful CBL station and tower, and home. This trip included 12 visits on roads. I cannot begin to tell the number of questions asked and answered, but do know my throat was somewhat strained the following day, and required a rest.

I wished a number of times that my corporation was of such proportions that I could have accepted all the invitations I had to lunch and that time could be lengthened or stretched for the occasion, but such was not the case. But, in spite of it all, the visits were worth while.

My visit to the Ex. was a great pleasure. Being alone, I could ramble at will. The Coliseum exhibits look considerable of my time and while there met friends from New Leikard, with room for one passenger home, starting 6 a.m., D.S. T. Friday, September 9th, Carla-Rite Hotel, so was on hand. The Flower Show was a joy. British Empire exhibits were very interesting. And seeing the tremendous relief map of the world, showing the air ways, in electric tubing, was also interesting. I enjoyed the music and was able to take in a ball game with Joe Louis and his Bombers vs. Toronto All Stars. But, after all, my slant on the Ex. isn't new.

Six of us, in a Ford V8, started out at 6:25 a.m.; arrived Barrie 8:00 for breakfast, North Bay, 12 noon dinner; New Leikard, 4 p.m. Stopped about ten times for a stretch and walk, called at Corbell, to see the place. The Quints were not visible, but that was no particular disappointment to me. I'm fairly familiar with babies, although not five at once, nor even two. We always thought one at a time was sufficient, and then two or three years apart was close enough.

I arrived home for tea on our 24th wedding anniversary, and found preparations for next day's market complete. Real tired is an exact description of how I felt, but glad to be home safe again. After a few hours visit had a few hours rest, rose at 2:30 a.m., S.T. and off to market in Kirkland Lake. It froze hard every night from the 5th to 9th, so corn, beans, cucumbers, tomatoes and flowers are finished for this year. But wife and family had been busy and some of all these things had been taken in and cared for, so we had a big variety on display and for sale, and sold out. Glads brought 5c each, cut flowers 15c a bunch, beans 25c 6 quarts, small cucumbers 65c; carrots, beets, 25c; potatoes, 20c; corn, 20c to 35c per dozen; bunch vegetables, 5c or 6 for 25c; eggs, small, 35c, medium, 40c, large, 45c; select, 50c; pork 15c to 25c; beef, 8c to 15c; baby beef, 12c to 25c; lamb 15c to 25c; butter, 25c.

It so happens that market days that come on the mine pay days are always the most successful, and this was the Saturday. The 10th and 25th are pay days for all the larger mines. So must everyone had real success. Fruit was everywhere in great quantities. Peaches, pears, two or three varieties of plums, the same of apples, and grapes. So farmers having money to spend brought a great variety home with them for preserving.

Although no great quantity of rain has fallen, it has come so often that harvesting has been greatly interfered with and vast quantities of grain are still out and still some on low land, uncut. But in our immediate locality everyone has finished and threshed. Ours was finished before I got home, with a real good yield of excellent quality. Getting up the vegetables will be our next big job when weather is fit. Harold is busy now getting fall plowing under way.

Road work is progressing favorably. Six more miles from Barrie north is completed with a permanent surface and knephel town is now being surfaced. Then they come back and lay 1 1/2 miles from the highway west through Thorntons village. This will complete this year's paving program in this section. The balance of the season will be used for grading, rock facing cuts and filling on the road cut-off spots. 1 1/2 to 2 miles off the driving distance from Toronto. I finished a big and tiring.
I was glad to get back over the road to see the improvement and it's very noticeable in the three year space. As I would say in wonder if shape for a new road. Three hours from North Bay to New Leikard, 102 miles is a fair average and requires no excessive speed.

Now it seems to me I've taken sufficient space.
Cordially yours,
R. W. JOHNSON
R. R. No. 1 Thorntons

Leading a field of more than 40 competitors, Henry K. Hill, well-known Oakville yachtsman and member of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club, captured the famous Lipton Cup in a dinghy race at the Canadian National Exhibition course on Monday.—Record-Star.

Fishermen's Find Ends Search for Dodge's Body

Search for the body of Daniel Dodge, Detroit automobile heir, who plunged into Georgian Bay after incurring severe injuries in a dynamic blast at his summer camp, ended when Albert Bateman and Wesley Ryder, Little Current, Ontario, fishermen, found the body floating about a quarter-mile from scene of the tragedy. The two men whose discovery ended the $50,000 search, are shown above with some of the equipment used for weeks in dragging operations.
