GLEN WILLIAMS

The citizens of Glen Williams were aroused on the morning of Sunday, October 30th, by the ringing of church bells, but the summons was to a fire, and not to church service. Hadley's garage was completely destroyed and the Anglican Church was feared for some time to be in great danger. The origin of the fire was supposed to have been a smoldering bonfire.

Sylvia Marlene, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ogilvie, was christened in the United Church, Sunday, October 30th, by Rev. Charles Jolliffe.

A shower was held for Miss Marjorie Haines in the Town Hall on Thursday evening. Many friends attended.

A quiet wedding was solemnized in St. Alban's Church, on Saturday evening, when Marjorie Haines became the bride of Mr. Thom. Norton, Rev. H. G. O. Thompson officiated. The couple left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls.

ROCKWOOD

The play, "Three Days of Grace" put on by members of St. Alban's Church, Acton, in the Town Hall last Friday evening, was well received and enjoyed by those present. Each artist in the play did their part to perfection, and at times, circumstances reached a high point then down, as the play progressed. During the evening, members of St. John's Church, conducted a booth where candy and other sweets were dispensed. After the play, the artists were entertained to lunch at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Garstang.

Sunday morning, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed at the Presbyterian Church. The pastor, Rev. Samuel Johnston, conducting the service throughout was impressive. Mr. Johnston took for his text "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me," St. John 12: 32. Preparatory services were held Thursday evening and the congregation addressed by the pastor.

After an illness of some duration, Mrs. Joseph Moore passed away during the week-end at her home. The funeral took place Monday from her late home, the service being conducted by Rev. Charles Jolliffe, of Glen Williams, who brought an earnest message to all present, taking for his text, "Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh, in his season," Job 5: 26. During the service, a quartette of the United Church, Messrs. A. J. Elliot, Frank Moore, Frank Day and J. A. Little, sang "Take Time to be Holy." Numerous floral wreaths bore silent tribute to the high esteem in which Mrs. Moore was held, and carried by her nephews. The pallbearers were Messrs. Fred Smith, Chester Plank, Frank Day, J. A. Little, George Laverly and Chas. H. Harris.

The late Mrs. Moore who was in her 81st year, leaves to mourn her loss, her husband, and three daughters, Mrs. Robt. Black, Mrs. P. Wilson, Mrs. W. Cook, all of Guelph, also a sister, Mrs. W. E. Smith, Rockwood, and a brother, Mr. Alex. Plummer, Arkell. Interment took place in Rockwood Cemetery.

The many friends and acquaintances of Mr. Harry Bolton of Guelph, were shocked to learn of his sudden death at his home during early hours of Tuesday morning. He had been at his work as usual Monday at the International Malleable Iron Company, and during the evening was taken ill, passing away a few hours later. The late Mr. Bolton who was in his 64th year, leaves to mourn his loss, his wife, Margaret M. Dyer, two daughters, Mrs. C. W. Horlop, Mrs. Rita at home, two sisters, Mrs. W. Royce, Rockwood, and Mrs. Fred Osburn, Pergus, and two brothers, Messrs. George and Arthur, Rockwood. The funeral takes place Thursday, at his late home, 170 York Road, Guelph, with interment in Rockwood Cemetery.

Services at the United Church on Sunday were conducted by Rev. G. I. Stephenson, of Barrie Hill. Mrs. J. A. Little gave the address at the Barrie Hill W. M. S. Thank-offering meeting. The many friends of Mr. Samuel Petty and Mrs. John Muzik regret their serious illness at the present time. Week-end and Sunday visitors: Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Patterson, Toronto. Mr. Roy Day, University of Toronto. Mr. A. J. Murray and daughter, Mrs. Bryce, Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Day, Hamilton. Mr. and Mrs. J. Curtis and family, Belwood. Miss Ella Hamilton, Hamilton. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hollis, Father's Mills. Miss Kathleen Oakes, Galt. Mrs. Frank Day is spending a few days in Hamilton with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Day. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Weatherill in company with Mr. and Mrs. Andy McLeod of Guelph spent Sunday at Owen Sound.

Another family is under quarantine for Scarlet Fever members of Mr. and Mrs. Osho's family of the Royal Bank. Mr. and Mrs. Linford and family moved last week to the home of Miss Janet Little, who has moved into the new house built on the lot adjoining her former home.

Admiral Hermann Boehimo, former Commander of the German North Sea naval station, who has been appointed Chief of the High Sea Fleet, succeeding Admiral Wolf Carl, who has been assigned to the Baltic naval station. An official announcement explained the changes as part of the annual autumn shake-up and said that they carried no political significance.

DUBLIN

The Dublin Literary held another pleasant evening in the school on Friday, November 4th, with the President, Mr. Steele, in the chair.

After opening exercises, the following program was given, sponsored by Mrs. Burkholder, Mr. Somerville and Dorothy Steele: Club Drill, by Dorothy Barber, Wilda McLaughlin and Isabel Brims, accompanied by Verna Webster at the piano; Instrumental duet, Ian and Geo. Grant; solo, Doreen Steele; play, entitled "Lamp Went Out," given by the High School girls; mouth organ selection by Norman Wright, with Melvin Locker on the guitar; recitation, Betty Britton; Contest of Knowledge won by Mr. Britton; reading, "The History of the McIntosh Red Apple," by Gladys Mullin; songs by the School Choir; reading, by Jean Frank; Community Singing, led by Mrs. Robertson. After the National Anthem, lunch was served and a social time spent.

Mr. Jim Henderson gave some guitar solos during the dancing.

OAKVILLE

Nominations for Oakville Town Council, Water and Light Commission and Board of Education will be held at 7 p. m. on Friday, November 25th, and election day will be Monday, December 5th.

Held in the newly decorated Scout hut, Randall Street, Monday evening, the annual meeting of the Oakville and District Boy Scouts Association marked the conclusion of an active and successful year.

Mrs. H. O. Murray and daughter, Pat, accompanied by Miss Rose Oliver, left by motor this morning for Daytona Beach, Florida, where they will join Mrs. Murray's mother, Mrs. O. H. Oestlander, for the winter.

The contract for Oakville's new Post Office is being awarded to Stanley Walters, of Hamilton, and work will start immediately. Word to this effect was received by the Record-Star this afternoon from Hughes Cleaver, M.P., of Burlington. Fifteen tenders for the work were received, only one being from a Hamilton contracting firm. — Record-Star.

EDEN MILLS

The Sunbeam Mission Band entertained the members of the Women's Missionary Society in the form of a social evening, at the home of Miss Wilma Moore. The guest speaker was Mrs. Herb. Gilbertson, who gave a splendid talk on the life of Father, Miss Wilma Moore gave a guitar solo, "From Jerusalem to Jericho." Miss Georgina Robertson gave a reading, "The Obedient Prince," and the Misses Wilda and Marie Gilbertson, a duet, "Roses in the Garden." Two contests were conducted. The Bible contest was won by Mrs. G. Robertson, and the most words made out of the word "Presbyterian," was won by Miss Georgina Robertson. Lunch was served and a social half hour brought a most enjoyable and profitable evening to a close.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday, and was conducted by the pastor, Rev. S. Johnston, B.A., as was also Preparatory Service on Wednesday evening. Two new members joined by profession of faith and one by certificate. Mr. and Mrs. Howie Wright and family, of Toronto, were week-end visitors in the home of Mrs. Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. George Currie and family, of Georgetown, visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McAlpine, on Sunday.

Mrs. George McAlpine underwent a successful operation for the removal of tonsils on Saturday. All hope she will be much improved in health.

The sympathy of this community is extended to Mr. Joseph Moore and daughter, in their sad bereavement. The late Mrs. Moore was a former resident of Eden Mills.
