GLEN WILLIAMS

Crowds of young people are enjoying the skating and hockey along the Credit river here this week. The large brick residence beside the Apple Products Co. building has been purchased by John Hepburn, Jr. of Glen Williams. He is expected to move into his new home with his family sometime this spring.

OAKVILLE

Ten garages were entered and two cars stolen in Oakville by thieves Monday night. The cars belonged to E. P. Lunau and Gordon Pfdue. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnston, Dundas Street, and Miss Jessie Johnston, left on Monday by motor for Miami, Florida. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ryrie have returned home from a visit to the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Rosevear, Winnipeg. Satisfaction with Oakville's present condition and optimism regarding the town's future, marked the inaugural meeting of the 1939 Town Council, held in the Council Chamber at 11 o'clock Monday morning. High praise of Oakville Public Schools and teachers was expressed by L. L. Skuce, Public School Inspector for Halton County, in a letter to the Oakville Board of Education, which was read at the final meeting of the 1938 Board, held Tuesday evening. Record-Star.

TALKS SUBS WITH HITLER

Sent to Berlin to explore the basis for Germany's demands for parity in submarines with the navy of Great Britain. Vice-Admiral A. B. Cunningham is seen arriving back in England after his talk with German government and naval leaders. Although the Reich insists upon its right to submarine parity, it is indicated that technical obstacles will prevent Germany from entering a construction campaign designed to fill the gap, for some time.

NASSAGAWEYA S.S. NO. 7

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence King entertained their friends with a progressive euchre party on Friday night, after which a dainty lunch was served. Mrs. Wm. McLeod won the prize given for ladies, and Mr. Austin Dredge for the men.

MILTON

Mrs. W. H. Stewart, of Toronto, visited friends in town on Saturday. A number of our merchants began their Wednesday half holidays yesterday afternoon.

HILLSBURG

Mrs. Jas. McCann has returned to her home after spending a few days with friends in Guelph. Mr. William Cheyne, Mr. Bill Cheyne, Jr. and Miss Eleanor spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Booth, Caledon.

LIMEHOUSE

The Girls' Lookout Club of the Presbyterian Church held their annual meeting at the home of Miss Helen McGowan on January 7th, at which time the election of officers took place. Results were as follows: President—Mrs. E. Sanford. First Vice-President—Mrs. W. Norton. Second Vice-President—Miss Helen McGowan.

CAMPBELLVILLE

Mrs. W. Barnard is visiting relatives in London and St. Thomas this week. When Motwin Hood was cutting wood in Jack Wheelih's bush, he had the misfortune to be critically injured by a tree falling on him, which necessitated his removal to Guelph General Hospital, after he had been treated by Dr. G. Faulkner. His many friends hope he may soon be restored to health.

ROCKWOOD

The Week of Prayer services, held in the Presbyterian and United Churches last week, were fairly well attended. On Wednesday evening, Rev. S. Johnston was assisted by Rev. E. A. Brooks, of Acton, who gave the address of the evening, and based his talk on "Prayer" and "Friendship with God," which was much appreciated by all present.

ERIN

Dr. H. Gear and Mrs. Gear left on Wednesday morning for Florida, where they will spend the winter. Mrs. Wm. Delaney and daughter, Miss Lillian, of Guelph, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bingham.

OSPRINGE

The monthly meeting of the Ladies Aid of the local Presbyterian Church was held on Wednesday afternoon, 15th, at the home of Mrs. P. Brydon. The President, Mrs. Alvin White, conducted the meeting and Mrs. Gordon Aitken read the minutes of the previous meeting. The roll call was answered with a verse of scripture, after which Mrs. J. Struthers read the scripture reading. Plans were then made for a Valentine Ham Supper, to be held in the church in the near future. The members were pleased to have the new minister, Rev. P. W. Murray, and Mrs. Murray and daughter, Miss Phyllis Foran, in the assembly. Mrs. White welcomed them and Mr. Murray made a fitting reply. The following program was then enjoyed: Piano solo, Mrs. Gordon Aitken; recitation, Mrs. Alvin White; and a vocal duet, Mrs. Burns McKinnon and daughter, Blanche. After singing a hymn, Rev. Mr. Murray closed with prayer, following which dainty refreshments were served.

Short speeches were given by elect and visitors and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.

HARDLY A COMPLIMENT

A conceited young writer was discussing his art and so forth, with an outspoken friend. "You can say what you like," the literary man affirmed, "but you must admit I have had a whole crowd of imitators." "You have, old boy—you have," his friend agreed. "Most of 'em, too, years before you started writing!"

Teacher—"What happened in the year 1809?" Johnny—"Lincoln was born." Teacher—"Correct. Now, what happened in 1812?" Johnny (after a pause)—"Lincoln had his third birthday."

TRY BUTTERING BOTH SIDES

We have several millions of pounds of good butter in this country in excess of our normal needs, and the suggestion is made that we get rid of it—by eating more. Putting good butter on thicker is easier than remedies which have been suggested for other—of our national problems.—Peterboro Examiner.

ROCKWOOD

The Week of Prayer services, held in the Presbyterian and United Churches last week, were fairly well attended. On Wednesday evening, Rev. S. Johnston was assisted by Rev. E. A. Brooks, of Acton, who gave the address of the evening, and based his talk on "Prayer" and "Friendship with God," which was much appreciated by all present. During the early part of the service, several took part in vocal prayer, which made the service quite impressive. Thursday evening, Rev. S. Johnston conducted the service, and followed by vocal prayer offered by others in the congregation, delivered an earnest discourse on "Co-operation with God," which was closely listened to and much appreciated. Annual church meetings are the order of the day the fore part of the week. The Presbyterian congregation held theirs Monday evening, and following the business session, all adjourned to the basement, where refreshments were served by the ladies and a social time enjoyed. On Tuesday evening, the United Church held their annual meeting, and St. John's Church also, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamilton.

ERIN

Dr. H. Gear and Mrs. Gear left on Wednesday morning for Florida, where they will spend the winter. Mrs. Wm. Delaney and daughter, Miss Lillian, of Guelph, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bingham. Messrs. Howard Scott, John Scott and Mrs. J. Letch attended the funeral of the late T. B. Perigo, at Toronto, on Wednesday. Mr. T. R. Atkins is undergoing treatment at the Guelph General Hospital. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery. Mrs. Robert McEnery has been indisposed; and Mr. McEnery is gradually improving from a heart attack suffered last fall. Their many friends wish them well. Mrs. Margaret McLeod Ombelt, of Minneapolis, Minn., arrived Thursday evening, to be with Mrs. Brecken for a little time, at the home of the late Mrs. R. Geo. Overland. The Shamrocks have experienced hard luck in the scheduled games of the local group of the C.O.H.A. Last Friday evening they suffered a second defeat at Grand Valley, when the score was 6-4. Mrs. Ed. Hurren was removed to Peel Memorial Hospital on Monday, where she will undergo treatment for injuries sustained in a motor accident. Mrs. Hurren returned home for New Year's, but it was deemed advisable for her to return to the hospital.—Advocate.

EDEN MILLS

The annual congregational meeting of the Presbyterian Church was held on Tuesday evening in the church. Rev. S. Johnston opened the meeting with devotional exercises. Rev. Mr. Johnston was then chairman and Mr. D. MacDougall, Secretary for the evening. Reports were read from all departments, showing a year of activity and advancement. The election of officers resulted as follows: Secretary—Treasurer and Assistant, Mr. Cameron Scott and Miss Helen Scott; Sunday School Superintendent, W. Lowrie; Usher, John Ramsey and Robert Borthwick; Bell Ringers, J. Ramsey and W. Lowrie; Collectors, Lloyd Keane and Gordon Blacklock; Assistants, W. Gilbertson and R. Gordon; Managers, R.
