Interesting Items Concerning Other Centres and Communities in which Many of Our Readers are Interested

NASSAGAWEYA S. S. NO. 7

This correspondent wishes all other correspondents, editor and readers of this paper a happy Easter. Although still quite wintry weather, Easter this year will perhaps be appreciated more than those that follow a milder winter, with its meaning of new life and hope, and may this district and all others afflicted in similar manner soon be free of the different types of sickness that have wandered in.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dredge and children have returned to New York, U.S.A., where Mr. Dredge has been called to his former position.

The school has been closed until after Easter holidays because of scarlet fever. Mr. William Job is suffering with boils about the face and neck. We hope "Bill," you are soon better of this painful affliction.

The "Bell Ringers" at Brookville Hall drew a number from here Monday night, and they report an enjoyable evening and a good crowd.

EVERTON

The school here was closed last week for several days, owing to the illness of the teacher, Miss Kay.

Mrs. Welsman, of Winger, visited at the home of Rev. J. P. McLeod, during the week.

Friends of Mrs. T. D. McCutcheon will be grieved to hear that she has developed a case of pneumonia.

Mr. Cole has sold his farm, lot 4, concession 7, Eramosa, to Mr. H. Graham, Owen Sound. Mr. Cole's farm was considered one of the best in the Township.

The Young People's Union of the Stone Church presented a three-act play, "Bachelor House," in the Community Hall on Friday evening. Considering the condition of the roads, the play was well attended. Those who attended were not disappointed and went home well satisfied with the wonderful program which the young people gave.

OSPRINGE

The closing "Literary" was held at the school on Wednesday evening, when the group from the Third Line, and part of the Gravel Road, put on a splendid program; a large crowd being present. Mr. R. S. McCutcheon acted as chairman in a very capable manner. The following program drew great applause: Orchestra: National Fugate; reading, Mrs. F. Bryden; song, little Kenneth Anderson; song with autoharp accompaniment; Miss Lorena Lockyer; recitation, Master Malcolm Leitch; song, Mr. Ted Anderson; reading, Mrs. Alvin White; music, Miss Beattie and Master Clarence Reid; recitation, little Miss Helen Jackson; reading, Mrs. Frank Leitch; dance, Miss Lorena Lockyer; song, little Miss Mary Reid; solo, Mrs. W. Anderson; guitar and mouth-organ music, Messrs. O. Locker and Ted Anderson; play, "The Man Who Came Back," by Mr. and Mrs. Alvin White and Miss Helen Slim; vocal duet, Miss A. and Mr. E. Currie; piano instrumental, Marie Anderson; male quartet, Messrs. O. Locker, A. White, T. Anderson and E. Currie; song, Mr. W. Anderson; comic songs, Mr. A. White; Orchestra; play, "Jim Mitchell's Hobby," played by Miss Isabel Scanlon, Miss Lorena Lockyer, Mrs. D. Winter and Messrs. D. Winter and J. Locker. During the program, Mrs. E. Barber, President of the Women's Institute, who sponsor these "Literaries," extended a brief vote of thanks to all who had taken part, to the Trustees, caretaker and teacher, for their many kindnesses.

Burns, at Guelph, on Monday, in a challenge game for the Kelly-Evans Trophy. The game was keen, the score being tied at the tenth end, but Palmerston rink was victorious and retain the honor of holding the trophy.—Advocate.

BURLINGTON

By a vote of 437 to 108, the ratepayers of the Beach decided to retain a Commission form of government.

Owing to the cold, backward spring weather, the government has decided not to cut single men off relief until after April 15th.

When cars, driven by Richard Berry and George Evans, collided on the Beach on Sunday night, Mrs. Richard Berry suffered injuries to her head and shoulders. Both cars were damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Vardy, of Aldershot, announce the engagement of their younger daughter, Doris to Mr. Harold Alan Lillycrop, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Lillycrop, of Nelson, the wedding to take place quietly early in April.

Prospects for Burlington securing new industries in the near future appear very bright. Speaking at the O. W. Rymnas banquet on Monday evening last, Industrial Commissioner Wm. Wiggins told of the activities of himself and his committee in the past few weeks.—Gazette.

LIMEHOUSE

Some of the many friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. J. McGowan gathered at their home on Wednesday evening, last week, to show them, on the eve of their removal from the community, in some small degree the esteem in which they are held at Limehouse.

Mr. and Mrs. McGowan were called forward and Mrs. A. C. Paterson read an address as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. McGowan and Family

Dear Friends:

We have learned with regret of your removal from our community and have gathered here to show our appreciation of your many kindnesses. We do not pretend to be able to repay in any way, your many neighborly deeds of kindness, but would ask that you believe we at least appreciate them and as a slight token, would ask you to accept these small gifts of remembrance.

Signed on behalf of the neighbors in the community

HARDING PRICE
JNO. N. NEWTON

At the proper time the McGowan's were presented with a bridge lamp, a grille and an electric heating pad.

Mr. and Mrs. McGowan thanked their friends in a few well-chosen words and invited them to visit them in their new home at Barrie.

Mr. W. A. Lane attended the funeral services of the late Mr. Bowman at St. Catharines last week.

Miss Winnifred Pokinghouse spent the week-end at Miss W. Ives'.

At the close of Sabbath School at the Presbyterian church on Sunday last, Messrs. Harry Smethurst, Mac Arnold and Master John McGowan were called to the front, where each was presented with a fountain pen as a remembrance of their associations with Limehouse Presbyterian Sunday School, where all were faithful in their attendance.

The pupils of S. S. No. 9 school, which Master John McGowan attended, presented him with a Boy's Lapel Watch, before he moved away from Limehouse.

Mr. Robert Doughty is spending a month in Toronto with friends.

Miss Agnes Ford, who lived in the village for several months has returned to Toronto.

The Girls' Lookout Club intend holding a crokinole party this week.

Since Mr. Wm. Millere's barn has been torn down there is a decided difference in the appearance of the village.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Hall and family visited their cottage on Sunday. We are glad to see Mr. Hall is able to be around again.

OAKVILLE

Councillor W. H. Morden, of Trafalgar Township, has been confined to his home with a slight illness.

Maj. F. H. Chisholm attended the sand table exercise and annual dinner of the Algonquin Regiment, at North Bay, on Saturday.

Councillor and Mrs. J. M. Campbell have returned from a visit to Atlantic City. They were accompanied by Mrs. M. Winyard.

Pleading frozen brakes as the cause of the accident failed to save James A. Boydell from a conviction and penalty when he appeared in Magistrate's Court on Friday afternoon, on a charge of reckless driving.

Damages amounting to $2,250 were awarded by Mr. Justice Godfrey in the Assize Court at Milton on Tuesday to June Butterworth, five-year-old Oakville girl, in an action brought on her behalf by Stanley Butterworth, her father, against A. J. Fleming and Leo Gagner, of Chatham. The claim arose from a motor accident in Oakville last fall, in which the child was injured. Stanley Butterworth, the father, was awarded $918 and costs.—Record-Star.

NASSAGAWEYA

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Watson, of Nassagaweya, were sorry to learn that their daughter, Miss Elsie Watson, was taken to the General Hospital, Guelph, last Thursday, suffering from pneumonia. We all hope she may soon be well and strong again.

The Ladies' Aid and the W.M.S. of Ebenezer United Church held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. T. J. Diamond on Tuesday afternoon.

ROCKWOOD

The local Horticultural Society Executive Committee held a business meeting last week, at the home of Mr. George H. Pearen. Routine matters were dealt with for the coming season, as well as plans for a drive for membership.

Arrangements were made for an illustrated lecture, by Dick, the Gardener, the latter part of the month. Mrs. A. Beard, President, conducted the meeting.

Messrs. George Gordon, J. A. Little, Robert Moore, Chas. H. Harris were in Guelph last week, attending a meeting in Chalmers Church.

Rev. W. O. Mather, of Linwood, conducted services at the United Church on Sunday. At the morning services, Mrs. J. Ayles contributed a solo.

The many friends in Rockwood will regret to learn of the mishap which befell Rev. Mr. Campbell, of Guelph, last week, when he fell and injured his hip, which necessitated his removal to the hospital.

The former farm home of the late Alex. Burns, seventh line, Eramosa, has been disposed of by Mr. J. Cole, to Mr. G. Graham and son, of Owen Sound.

Mrs. W. Gardiner, and son, Leonard, in company with Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Thomas, visited Mr. and Mrs. Fred Day, at Hamilton, on Sunday.

Recent week-end visitors:

Mr. Roy Day, of the University of Toronto.

Mr. J. Grierson, of Saskatchewan.

Miss Wilma Grierson, of Guelph.

Mr. A. Treavor, of Theford.

Mr. Wesley Harris, of the University of Toronto.

A few from Rockwood district attended the funeral of the late Roy Brooks, at Fergus, last week.

Some disappointment was felt, in the village last Friday, when the T.L.S. concert was cancelled, owing to Frank Gould not being allowed to leave the U.S. territory.

As a result of the lower temperature over the week-end, no threat of flood conditions prevailed.
