PUTTING IT NICELY

Jones—Halloo, Smil! How are you? Haven't seen you in the garden for quite a time, and you never come to see the wife and me now. Why it that?

Smith—Well, old chap, it's not through ill will or bad feeling, or anything like that, you know; only you and Mrs. Jones have borrowed so many things from me that when I see your place it makes me feel homesick.

POOR DAD AGAIN

Two modern little girls on their way home from Sunday school were solemnly discussing the lesson.

"Do you believe there is a devil?" asked one.

"No," replied the other, promptly.

ROCKWOOD

Schools re-opened Monday after a brief Easter holiday, and those who were home for their holidays have returned to their respective schools.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Callen, who passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur M. Tut, fourth line of Eramosa, took place at St. John's Church, Easter Monday, with Rev. E. A. Brooks in charge of the services. Rev. Mr. Flood, of Jordan, delivered the funeral sermon, and was also assisted by Rev. Mr. Sewell, of St. George's Church, Guelph. The late Mrs. Callen was in her 82nd year, and the caretaker of St. John's Church tolled the bell every 30 seconds for 41 minutes, making it a stroke for every year of her age. Interment took place in Johnston's Cemetery, Eramosa. The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. A. M. Tut in her bereavement.

Due to a bad cold, sustained over the Easter week-end, Mr. Richard Harris was removed to Guelph General Hospital last Tuesday evening and was able to return home Sunday afternoon. While somewhat improved, he is obliged to remain home for a few days. As a result of his illness, no correspondence last week.

As a result of Mrs. Albert Maltby's condition at the Guelph General Hospital last Saturday forenoon, Dr. Waller sent word to Rockwood for volunteers for blood transfusion, and out of a host of eight men who responded, Mr. Max Milne gave a pint of blood, which enabled Mrs. Maltby to rally to some extent. Mrs. Maltby gave birth to a son during the week-end.

STILL COMPLAINING

A Scots agent came to London and took lodgings. With his morning cup of tea the landlady sent up two thin slices of bread and butter. He complained. The next day she sent up three slices, but still he complained. The third day, she cut a loaf in two, put a quarter of a pound of butter on each slab and sent that up.

When he came down she asked defiantly: "Bread and butter all right?"

"Aye, no so bad," the Scotsman replied, "but ye've gone back to two slices."
