IN MEMORIAM
SIMPSON—In loving memory of Margaret Ethel, who passed away May 20th, 1938.

In silence she suffered,
In patience she bore,
Till God called her home,
To suffer no more.

Ever remembered by
MOTHER and FAMILY.

KENNEDY—In loving memory of a dear mother, Elizabeth Kennedy, who passed away May 25th, 1938.

We miss your smile, and ever will;
Your vacant place there is none can fill.
Down here we mourn, but not in vain,
For up in heaven we will meet again.

Sadly missed by
SONS and DAUGHTERS.

Why did that

—Have you seen the King and Queen yet?

—Monday replaced the Victoria Day holiday in Acton and was generally observed.

—The park is a scene of activity every evening now, as the ball players get in their games.

—The cool weather has developed the tulips into splendid blooms and prolonged their period of beauty.

—The rains of the week were certainly beneficial to crops and didn't interfere seriously with the Royal visit.

—Strawberries and green peas are coming on the market, but not in nearly sufficient quantities for a good fill yet.

—Acton Boy Scouts are going, full strength, to the Halton County Jam-boree at Woodlands, during this weekend.

—Fifty members of Acton Branch of the Legion did duty along the route their Majesties followed in Toronto on Monday.

—The countryside has on its best appearance. The Royal visitors could not have chosen a better time to come to Canada.

—Members of Acton Legion will guard the railway crossings when the Royal train passes through Acton, on June 6th.

—The hockey celebration banquet next Wednesday evening, and street dance, promise to be big affairs for Acton and the district.

—Tickets for the hockey banquet next week have nearly all been taken up, and it looks as if every one of the 235 places will be filled.

—There was a fair attendance at the Y.M.C.A. dance, on Friday evening, and all were delighted with the music and the splendid time arranged.

—Three splendid prizes are offered in the slogan contest, sponsored by the Hydro. The local prizes are on view in the Public Utilities Office.

—While we're waiting for the King and Queen to return from Western Canada, we in Acton are going to have a hockey banquet and celebration.

—Store hours are a bit confusing to the public in Acton at present. A little more uniformity would be in the interests of better business in the community.

—Traffic Officer Bert Howell was one of the officers in the motorcycle escort that was immediately in front of the King and Queen during their visit in Toronto.

—Plans are being made regarding the visit of Acton school children to Ouelph, to see their Majesties. More detailed announcement will likely be available next week.

—In the judging for "Miss Popularity" at Parkdale Collegiate last week, Margaret (Paddy) Harrison was runner-up for the honor, which was won by Caroline Holt. Acton friends offer congratulations!

MUTUALLY SHARED
Bride—You beast! When you married me, I thought you were daring and courageous.
Groom—That's nothing. Name one person who didn't.

WHAT WAS NEEDED
Two hefty-looking men who, from the look of their clothes, had just finished work of a pretty rough kind, were dining in one of the "all night" restaurants. One of them was saving violently at a piece of steak, each mouthful being won by sheer hard work. At last he came to particularly tough piece and, turning to his mate, he said in a hoarse whisper that could be heard plainly: "That's the food wot does yer good 'ere, Joe; it's the blinkin' exercise."

A STEADY WINNER

For the past three years a winner of 20 games of major league baseball per season, Red Ruffing, Above, is moving along better than ever again this year, with the world champion New York Yankees. Despite the power packed by his teammates, Ruffing turns in consistently good games that would be winners even without, as much latting support as he usually receives.

DENIES BEING SPY

Baron Raven Erik Angus Barnetow, who will soon become the fifth husband of actress Kay Francis, has announced he will seek legal redress from Countess Dorothy Di Prasso, one of Hollywood's most popular hostesses. "She called me a Nazi spy," declared the Baron. "And I am not a Nazi spy; in fact I'm becoming an American citizen."

NOT THAT BAD

Mrs. Jones was spending a day in bed with a severe cough, and her husband was working in the backyard and hammering nails into some boards. Presently his neighbor came over.
"How's the wife?" he asked.
"Not very well," said Jones.
"Is that her coughing?"
"No, you fathead," replied Jones, "it's a henhouse."

OFTEN THE CASE

"To own and to possess are not the same thing," says a prominent man of affairs. "I used to both own and possess a certain umbrella. I still own it—but somebody else possesses it."

RATHER CRUEL?

"So you're engaged?"
"Yes, but I took my time about accepting him."
"You mean you waited until he actually proposed?"

NO ENTHUSIASM

Flaherty—So it's your silver wedding anniversary; is it? That's good going, old boy.
Flanagan—Aye, that's the first twenty-five years of it over, anyway.

THE REAL TEST

"That man is so honest he wouldn't steal a pin," said the admiring friend.
"I never thought much of a pin test," answered Miss Cayenne. "Try him with an umbrella!"

Obituary

MRS. ROBERT J. ANDERSON
Following an illness that had extended over the past five years, Mrs. Robert J. Anderson passed away on Monday, May 15th, at her home on the Guelph Road in Nassagaweya. She was in her seventy-first year and had spent her entire life in Nassagaweya, the township in which she was born. She was a daughter of the late Donald McEwen and Mary Ann Weir.
Forty-seven years ago Jennie McEwen was joined in holy wedlock to Robert J. Anderson. Besides the bereft husband, she leaves to mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother, two sons and two daughters. They are Wilfred, of Kitchener; Robert, at home; Mrs. W. H. Taylor (Toronto); and Miss Annie, of Milton. Two sisters and four brothers also remain. Mrs. Taylor, of Guelph; Miss Sadie, Daniel and Thomas, on the McEwen homestead; Dr. Robert McEwen, of Saskatoon; and William McEwen, of Toronto. To all of these, who have been bereft, the sympathy of many friends goes out at this time.
The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon of last week, with service in Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church, conducted by Rev. J. T. Strachan, of St. Mary's, and Rev. Mr. Lawson, pastor of the church. Interment was in Campbellville Cemetery. Numerous floral tributes also testified, as well as those attending the service, to the esteem in which Mrs. Anderson was held in the community.
The pall-bearers were Messrs. James Moffat, Elwood Wilson, Jas. Mahon, Jas. Easterbrook, Thos. Smith and Thos. Richardson, all neighbors of the deceased. Flower bearers were Mrs. Harlan Wilson, Mrs. Elias Easterbrook, Mrs. Ivan Richardson, Mrs. Alfred Turner, Miss Tyra Wilson and Miss Helen Smith.

DANIEL LAWSON

Residents of this, Mimosa, community were shocked and grieved to learn of the sudden passing of one of Mimosa Township's best known and most highly respected citizens in the person of the late Daniel Lawson, who died at his home, Lot 28, Erin and Mimosa Townline, on Friday morning, May 19th. Although Mr. Lawson had been in poor health for some months, he had been going about doing light duties around the farm until the day before his death. Heart trouble, which has claimed the lives of so many farmers in this locality in recent months, was the cause of his untimely passing. Mr. Lawson was a thrifty and capable farmer, one of the best of neighbors, and was well liked by all who knew him.
Born in Limehouse fifty-four years ago, he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lawson. When he was four years old, his father died, and his mother and five children moved to Acton.
During his early manhood, Mr. Lawson was employed as a teamster with Beardmore & Company, Acton. Twenty-nine years ago he married Nellie Torrance, and shortly afterward the young couple moved to the farm, which they have occupied since.
There remain to mourn his loss, his widow; one daughter, Mrs. Garnet Petty, Rockwood; also a brother, William, South Qu'Appelle, Sask.; three sisters, Mrs. Thos. Wren, Toronto; Mrs. Donald McGregor, Guelph and Mrs. Alex. McGregor, Acton.
The funeral service was held in the home on Sunday afternoon, and was largely attended by sympathizing neighbors and friends. Rev. A. L. Atton, pastor of Mimosa United Church, of which Mr. Lawson was a member, conducted the services in the home and at the graveside. Interment being made in the Rea Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Roy Lawry, Steven Davis, Clarence Beck, Fred Cox, R. J. Robertson and Harry Grant. The beautiful floral tributes were borne by four nephews, Allan Gordon, Kenneth McGregor, Bertam Torrance and John McGregor. To the bereaved widow, daughter and other immediate relatives, the sincere sympathy of the community is extended.

THOSE GOOD OLD DAYS

Think of a locomotive fireman donning white duck jacket and trousers in his work of firing a locomotive, yet this was one of the rules in the first Great Western Railway rule book in England. A copy of this book, which has been received at headquarters of the Canadian National Railways, reveals that engineers and firemen were compelled to appear on duty so clad, clean whites being provided every Monday morning. In addition, another rule provided that on Sundays or other Holy days "every person, when not required on duty, will attend a place of worship as it will be the means of promotion when vacancies occur."

WHAT WAS NEEDED

Mrs. Glooker: "I'm looking for a governess for my children."
Employment Clerk: "I think we supplied you with one last week, and according to her report, you need a lion tamer more than a governess."

YOU GUESS!

"Darling, I won a medal at cookery school."
"Wonderful! But tell me, what is this I'm eating?"
"Guess."
"Your medal!"

ENVOY TO ARGENTINE

Norman Armour, former U.S. Minister to Canada, has been nominated by President Roosevelt to be the U.S. Envoy to Argentina. Mr. Armour is at present Ambassador to Chile.

LESSONS IN KILLING.

The art of killing has reached a high peak to-day. Airplanes can destroy whole territories in a few minutes and efface entire cities from the earth in a few seconds. At least, that was what was imagined until the last few years, but it must be admitted that the prophets and the observers made a mistake, since for months and months, while the Spanish civil-war went on, the nationalities were not able to destroy even Madrid or Barcelona. The defense of the Republican capital demonstrated that at the rate of five raids a day, not more than five people could be killed in 24 hours in a city well defended against aerial attack. In China it was quite the contrary that happened. Time reports that the Chinese have an ostrich-like nature: As soon as they sense danger they hide themselves under the first shelter that comes handy, believing that because they cannot see, they are safe. It is evident that the Spanish conflict has taught the strategists much and demonstrated that war, if it breaks out in Europe, will last for years and years. Means of defense follow the invention of the arms of attack—Quebec Evening-Journal.

POOR FELLOW!

A well-known novelist was complaining about a harsh critic. "This critic's work," he said, "reminds me, in its unsparring harshness, of a dialogue between two villagers. There goes 'Bill Smith,' said the first villager. 'Bill ain't the same man he used to be.'"
"No," said the second villager, "and he never was."

POOR, DELICATE LAD

Willy's mother thought him delicate and so he was excused gymnastics at school.
Uncle: "What do you do while the others are in the gymnasium?"
Willy: "I go in the park and play football."

DISOWNED

A dog seized a joint of meat while his master was visiting the butcher's.
"Is that your dog?" asked the butcher, angrily.
"It was," replied the other. "But he's keeping himself now."

A GOOD REASON

"Lou didn't carry out your plans to dope?"
"No: I found father was planning to move and I didn't know where we'd find him when we got back."

MEN ALL ALIKE

A burglar, entering the home of a Riverside heiress, upon surprising her remarked: "I don't want your life, but your money, lady."
"Oh, go away," she replied petulantly, "you're just like the rest of them."

Jogging along a British Columbia road is Mary Bosanquet, 25-year-old English girl, now on her way across Canada on horseback. Miss Bosanquet started from Vancouver and the 3,000 mile trip to Montreal will occupy four months.

To Carry Royal Party on Return Trip to England

As the King and Queen set sail from Portsmouth aboard the Empress of Australia, an announcement was made that the Royal party would return to England, at the end of their Canadian-American visit, aboard the Empress of Britain, which is at present winding up a world cruise. The 42,000-ton Empress of Britain will sail from New York on May 16th for Southampton for a general overhauling before sailing on the Royal mission.
