The fiftieth anniversary of the local Presbyterian Church was fittingly observed on Sunday. The church was very nicely decorated with masses of roses peonles and ferns. Rev. John Walhie, of Arthur, whose boyhood was spent Acton, was the speaker-for the day, bringing two very fine, forceful sermons, Special music was rendered by a large choir, under the leadership of Mrs. E. N. Sunter. Very pleasing solos were sung by Mrs. P. W Murray, and Mrs Jessie Walker, of Erin.

On Monday evening the ladies of the church held a strawberry festival. After partaking of strawberries and cream, cake and tarts, a splendid program was given in the church. Rev. P. W. Murray acted as chairman and also read the mentals. A short address by Rev. A. O. W. Foreman, of Ballinafad, was enjoyed, as were readings by Miss Phyllis Foreman, of Toronto; and Mrs. George Young. Vocal duetts by Misses Dorothy McKenzie and Blanche McKinnon, concluded the program. Rev. Murray extended a with the program.
