of the play-down, Acton kids deserve far more support than they are getting now. They have worked hard to earn a place in the play-offs and deserve plenty of credit for completing the task.

Hillier was missed off the Acton roster but will be recovered from his illness to participate in the playdowns.

Acton's second line, with Papillon a centre, are rounding out fine and caused Milton plenty of anxiety here the other night.

First round play-downs next. Come out and give the Juniors a boost. They need your quarter. Be on hand for a night's hockey, fast, thrilling, spills and chills! Wow! Sounds hot! But we

The Column

The Junior Y. Girls are busy these days rehearsing for their part in the Acton Carnival. Miss Ostrander is instructing and they should all present a very pleasing spectacle.

The Y. Juvenile Hockey Team "brought home the bacon" on Monday night by defeating Rockwood 4-3 in the second game of the schedule. With only five minutes to go, and the score 3-2 against them, the Acton gang engineered a power play and scored a neat goal, and with one minute to go, Owen Masales got the puck and weaved himself through the opposing forwards and defence, brought the Rockwood goalle Win, lose or draw in the first round out of the net and then shot it in be-

Next Monday night the boys play Eden Mills, and will have to be feeling up to the mark as this team is considered to be the strongest in the group. But just keep your eyes on this Acton sextet.

Not to be outdone in the winning spree that beset Actonians wherever they went on Monday evening, the Y. Badtheir own record as well as to that of the Y. and town by defeating the Guelph Y. Badminton Club nine games out of twelve. Every game was quite closely contested but the feature of the evening was thought to be the game between Brown and Ecclestone, of Guelph, and Hinton and Williams, of Acton. This garne was thirteen all, then five points tied. Then four-all-on the second five. and finally ended 18-17 for Guelph. A hard game to lose and a good game to win in any sport.
