ALEXANDER KANNAWIN

morning last week of Alexander Kannawin. He had been about as usual the day previously and had been down town. A heart selzure was suffered early Wednesday morning and he passed sway. Alexander Kannawin had been an esteemed resident of Acton for the past seventeen years. In earlier years he had farmed successfully at Shelburne and just prior to coming to Acton had resided at Georgetown. He took a keen interest in the affairs of the community and is a citizen who will be greatly missed. Born at Cheltenham, Alexander Kannawin was a son of the late Sarah Varnce and Robert Kannawin. Besides his widow, who was before marriage Isabel May Torrance, he leaves two brothers, Rev. Wm. Kannawin, Toronto, and James Anderson Kannawin, Shelburne. To all these who have been so suddenly bereaved, sympathy of many friends here goes out.

Mr. Kannawin was a member of the Forresters Lodge, but the affiliation that he enjoyed most was his church. Rarely indeed did he miss services at Knox Church. For many years he has been an Elder and always he has been a loyal worker. Here, too, he will be missed.

The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon, at the Johnstone & Rumley funeral home. Service was conducted by his minister. Rev. H. L. Bennie. Pallbearers were fellow officials from Kriox Church. Interment was made in Shelburne Cemetery.

Among the floral tributes were those from Milton, Clifford and Maitland Torrance: Mr. and Mrs. John Vance: Mrs Wm. Johnstone: the neighbors; and Walter and Jean Torrance.

Halton Farmers Study Hog Business at Toronto Plants

Halton farmers to a number of 220 recently visited the plant of Canada Packers in Toronto, where they availed themselves of the opportunity of seeing for themselves just what happens to the bacon hog after it is delivered to the packing plant. Under the leadership of the Halton Livestock Improvement Association a group ranging in size from 50 to 60 was taken down to the Toronto Packing Plant from each of the four Townships of the County.

On arrival at the plant of Canada Packers, the respective groups were welcomed by Mr. Hugh Murray, Manager of the Provisions Department, who outlined the plans for the day. For the first hour and a half, small groups, each with guide, were taken for a tour of the plant, where they saw how various pork products are processed. It has frequently been stated that the hog on which the farmers suffer a discount is sold over the counter at the same price as the A grade carcass. This idea was rudely shattered by the tour. In the first place the respective groups saw that hogs are divided into two main classes, "scalders" Lillian Rosenkyist, of Copenhagen on and "singers"—only the latter are considered for the export market. They also saw when the wiltshire sides came out of the brine tanks that the sides were reolassified into 18 different grades, according to quality and weight, each with a different value. . It was also interesting to note in the cutting room the amount of fat which had to be trimmed from the over-finished carcass in comparison to

Following the tour of the plant the group devoted a well spent hour out in the hog pens, where, under the direction of W. L. These cards were retained for reference when viewing the carcasses on the rail later in the day but more of that later.

> Immediately following the complimentary dinner, each group spent an hour on the killing floor, where they saw in addition to various dressing operations the inspection of the carcasses by Health of Animals Branch Inspectors, weighing of the individual carcass by the electrically operated scale, which automatically stamps in 'duplicate the weight of the carcass on a ticket, placed on the carcass and finally they also saw the grading of the individual carcass by the Government grader.

The smoke of the election had scarcely cleared away before Hon. Dr. Manion announced his intention to resign as Leader of the Conservative party. His successor would have probably been Murdock MacPherson, but he too went down to defeat in Regina. Possible Teaders mentioned are Denton Massey and Dr. H. A. Bruce.

In Ontario the result of the election was taken as a broad hint for the Liberals and Conservatives both to ditch their leaders. Premier Hepburn and Col. George Drew, it was felt, had been administered a rebuke by the electorate. Both parties do not seem to be well British officials. The shooting took place pleased with the leadership that has been
