Frank; and consolation, Mrs. J. J. Kennedy and Mr. John Wilson. A bountiful lunch was served by Mrs. Frank, after which everyone sang "For They Are Truly Good-Fellows," followed by congratulations and best wishes for the future. Everyone expressed their pleasure of an enjoyable evening. Gifts for the occasion were left as a remembrance at this hospitable home.

Although in ill health for some time, the news of the death of Mr. Funston Campbell came as a shock to this district. We all join in expressing our sympathy to Mrs. Campbell and Mr. Grant Campbell in their bereavement. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon in Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church, where friends and relatives gathered to pay their last respects to this highly respected and well known man.

Spring is surely with us now, although we are supposed to have four more cool and disagreeable Sundays.
