

SHALL FREEDOM DIE?

Shall freedom perish from the earth, Shall liberty be loosed, Shall Christendom beneath the crush Of pagan zeal be doomed?

THE EVER-PRESENT GOD

Golden Text—If a man love Me, he will love my word, and my Father will love him, and We will come unto him, and make Our abode with him.—John 14: 23.

David goes to great lengths to express his admiration of God's knowledge but he does not go too far. He refers to his "downsittings and uprisings," common and casual acts (2 Kings 19: 27, Ps. 56: 8).

Before the Morning Watch

By "Bartimeus"

The summer dusk deepened slowly over the North Sea as the destroyer flotilla reached its patrol area.

In the half light the destroyers had gone to action stations. Their crews, had done it all so often that they gave the impression of an almost mechanical efficiency.

It was in truth very good. The flotilla the ships themselves, every bit of machinery, every weapon, every officer, and man, the whole co-ordination of discipline and efficiency and expertise, seemed to look together like a breach-black slammed home.

For the first few hours nobody talked very much. The sky held a pale diffused light with patches of stars alternately obscured and revealed in the shifting ceiling of thin clouds.

At midnight fannies of hot cocoa arrived from the galley. Men stirred themselves and drank, grateful for the warmth of the thick sweet brew, and tapped into their thoughts again.

The First Lieutenant unfastened the belt of his goatskin coat and pulled a biscuit out of his pocket. He stood leaning against No. 3 gun, nibbling the biscuit and thinking about his goatskin coat.

The leader of the foremost gun had toothache. He'd been a fool to drink hot cocoa because, that made it worse. He wanted to bang his head against the gun shield. He wondered how anybody could be unhappy who hadn't got toothache.

attitude of the upright in heart (Ps. 28: 2). They know that God's scrutiny will reveal many things of which they should be ashamed, but they also know that His grace in Christ Jesus our Lord will work for the healing and the perfecting of that which is weak (1 Peter 1: 7).

Weather Men See Long Way Ahead

Scientific weather forecasting has reached the stage where it is now possible to predict with great accuracy the weather that will be encountered on a flight between Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal and Moncton, and all the way back again the same day, before the plane is put on the ground.

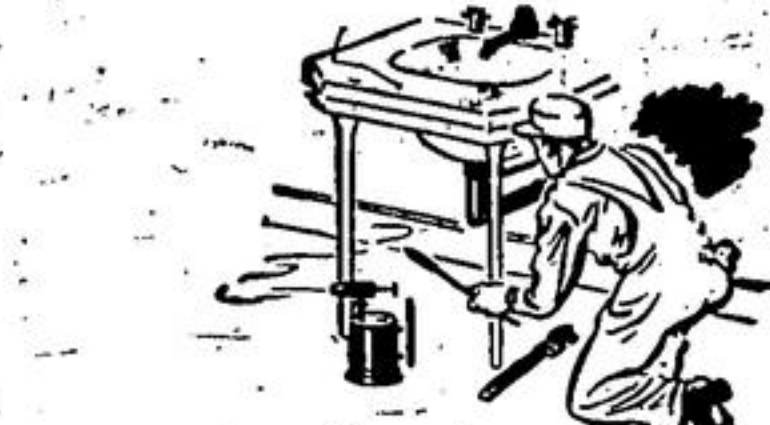

LARGE TROOP MOVEMENT HANDLED BY RAILWAY

During recent National Guard manoeuvres in Northern New York, the Central Vermont Railway, which is part of the Canadian National System, operated eight special trains to carry Guardsmen through Vermont and on to the point of disembarkation at Rouses Point, N.Y.

HE KNEW

He was enlarging on the dangers of modern foods, and with a dramatic gesture he pointed an emphatic finger at a rather unassisted-looking and indelicate listener and demanded: "What is it? We all eat it some time or other, isn't it? The worst thing in the world for us. Who is it, I say? Do you know?"

It appeared that the little man did know, for he replied in a husky whisper: "Wedding cake!"

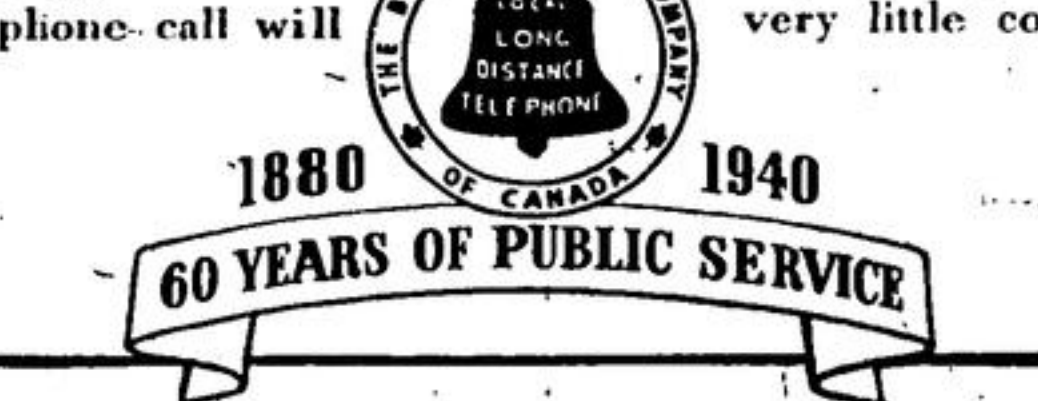

The best way to fix the Plumbing!

Telephone

Maybe it's something that Dad could fix when he gets home—but why bring the plumber over through a day of inconvenience, or worry work when a simple telephone call will bring the plumber over in no time at all? The telephone has an almost indispensable place in every home. It gives pleasure, convenience and protection day and night at very little cost.

HITLER HANDS OVER £10,000,000 Of Rayon Export Trade in the World's Markets

British rayon manufacturers have now organized themselves into one of the country's strongest Export Groups to secure for Great Britain a share in the colossal yearly export of nearly 250,000,000 square yards of rayon from the now isolated European countries to the rest of the world.

Less than one-fifth of this total was exported from Europe in the form of actual piece goods, most of it went out as yarn, but as each kilogram of yarn yields finally from eleven square yards of cloth, the enormous total is an accurate estimate.

Almost three-fifths of the trade was formerly held by Italy. The Netherlands did an important part of the remainder, shared by France, Germany, Belgium, Switzerland and Czechoslovakia in that order.

This great trade is now open to British and neutral competition, which in effect means to Britain, the United States and most powerful of all, Japan, now, however, sufficiently occupied with her own troubles both economically and in regard to raw materials. Far and away the biggest of the new markets is British India, where the new cheap yarns which are now being specially produced in Great Britain will be much needed.

In South America no less than 57,000,000 square yards of rayon cloth are being thrown open to competition. There are 37,000,000 yards to be replaced in Central America and Mexico; 6,000,000 yards in U.S.A. and Canada; 25,000,000 yards in Africa (mainly in Egypt); 24,000,000 yards more in Australia despite the large trade already done there by Britain and Japan; and 18,000,000 yards in the Far East, half of it in the Dutch East Indies. The value of this former European output, now handed over by Hitler to the outside world, is round about £10,000,000, and the making of the rayon would employ more than 50,000 workers for a full year.
