we shall miss you. With your cheerful disposition, kind word and smile and readiness to help along every good cause, you have endeared yourself to all. You have been a loyal and faithful member of our Insticute. You have capably fitted into different positions in our organization and during the years you have been associated with us, you have spared neither time nor effort to make the work a success, and to uphold the aims of our Institute. You. Roy, have not been so long with us, but you have willingly taken your share of the duties of citizenship. You have shown yourself ever to be kind and thoughtful, ever ready to offer assistance when needed. You both have proven yourselves an asset to this community.

and neighbors of true worth. While we are sorry to lose you, we are sure our loss will be some one's gain, and you may be sure our door-latch will be always open to you when you visit your old home district.

We would ask you to accept these gifts as a token of our friendship and esteem during the past years and which in the years to come will recall pleasant memories
