Thus we again introduce Guiding to all Actonites who like Baden-Powell of the Perpetually Young in Heart, love laughter and learning and clean thinking and unselfish doing. We hope you will share the enthusiasm of the thirty-two world guides, ages eleven to fourteen, who have already formed patrols and are awaiting approval and instructions before being duly enrolled as really truly Tenderfoot Guides.

The patrol leaders and seconds chosen two weeks ago are as follows:

Donald L. White, 6-year-old son of F. L. and Mrs. White, fell into a 10 x 18 inch cement hole at the edge of the sidewalk in the alleyway between the Walker Store and Bank of Toronto, on his way home from school on Monday at noon. Chief Hadfield, it appears, unfortunately took the metal covering off the hole, trying to move the ice and water, which was flooding the street. Don slipped and fell into the hole, which is about three feet deep. Fortunately, the lad suffered nothing more than a genuine soaking. Champion.

The regular meeting of the Limehouse Women's Institute was at the home of Mrs. A. Hill on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Elmer conducting the meeting. The Roll Call was answered by "an Irish verse."
