PROOF

that 'The Bray Chick Does the Trick'

Every season, hundreds of letters pour into the Bray head office from pleased customers, reporting how 'The Bray Chick Did the Trick.' Here are just a few out of many that have come in lately:

Mrs. W. C. Kenny, Colborne, Ont.—"In 1939, my 60 pullets laid 793 dozen in the year, and my 8 H cockerels dressed over 6 lbs. at 5 months. This year I bought 200 chicks, and at 5 months old still had 200. Any person wanting pullets that fill the egg basket should buy Bray's 'Nite-Proof' Chicks."

Bert MacIntyre, Wardsville, Ont.—"Truly the best chicks I have ever had. I ordered 100 in order for 100 sexed pullets."

Mrs. T. H. Newton, Lavenham, Man.—"We are having some pretty cold weather now, 15 to 18 below zero, but it doesn't stop my pullets laying. It will be Bray Chicks again for me next year, for you can always depend on getting strong and healthy chicks that are sure to live."

Euchariste Lavoie, La Tuque, P. Q.—"I have raised Bray Chicks for the past 6 years and have always had entire satisfaction. Of the 103 received last March, have had only 1. The pullets started to lay at 1 month 20 days, and production 85 new chicks 22, 60.

Almer MacEachern, Newton Cross, P. E. I.—"Finest bunch I ever received. I received 62 chicks and saved 62. Can anyone beat that?"

George Kelsey, Landisville, Ont.—"Egg size is the best I ever had without any exceptions. Running per 30 dozen egg around 24 dozen. Average 4 dozen per hen and 1 dozen pullet."

Mrs. Sylvester Adams, Stewart, N. S.—"I am still raising Bray Chicks, and will always have them as long as I can get them. They are great stock. Bray cockerels are tops; pullets wonderful layers."

Wilfred Heib, Sheglanadah, Ont.—"Out of the 103 I raised 109. Have kept track of expenses and sales, and find I have made a good profit. More than paid expenses with the roosters, and the 42 hens, still alive, have been laying since middle of August."

that 'The Bray Chick Does the Trick'

High Livability—Fast growth. Large size. Early laying. Big eggs, and plenty of them. These are what these people got from their Bray-bred birds, and what you want from your flock. Write or call today for prices and full information. Don't Delay. If you have broader space to handle them, don't forget the profit possibilities in Bray cockerels and capons. Bred for size and fast growth—very reasonably priced.
