Orton, April 25th, 1941

To Lloyd:

"Oft as he goes along life's unending way,
Occasion comes to every man to say,
"This way of that"."

And so it is with you, who find the urge to answer his country's call. You have been a friend to each and every one of us. We have always enjoyed your friendly smile and your willingness to help us. We know you would not be happy unless you were doing your bit for your country. We will look forward to the day when peace shall reign once more.

Please accept this gift from a few friends and may God's richest blessing go with you wherever duty may call.

(Signed),
