IN MEMORIAM

SOPER—In loving memory of a dear husband, Alvin Soper, who passed away June 10th, 1935.

Oft oft our thoughts do wander

To a grave not far away.

Where I laid my dear husband

Just six years ago to day.

Ever remembered by his wife,

MRS. BARBARA SOPER.

Lend all you can. If victory is to be sure the fighting forces must have the tools.

Congratulations to Mrs. Sterling, Erin township, who on Sunday observed her ninetieth birthday.

The Acton Volunteer Civil Guard will take part in the Victory Loan parade at Milton this evening.

The calcium chloride applied to the streets this week is certainly helping alleviate the dust nuisance.

Acton Ladys' Volunteer Guard have been drilling again and marched in the Victory Loan parade on Saturday.

Miss Helen Campbell had the misfortune to break a bone in her foot while playing tennis at the courts here last week.

The colored lights and Victory Loan decorations in the front of the Hydro Shop make an attractive and splendid showing.

The rose tag day of St. Albans' Women's Auxiliary on Saturday was quite a success and netted the ladies a fair return for their effort.

Rev. H. L. Bennie was appointed a commissioner of the Presbyterian Church in Canada at the Assembly held in Victoria Church, Toronto.

Aircraftsman Bob Chalmers, son of Reeve and Mrs. J. B. Chalmers, is one of the R.C.A.F. doing special guard duty on Parliament Hill in Ottawa.

The Victory Loan indicator on the Post Office makes steady progress out of the Red. Don't hold back your purchase. Let it go right ahead.

The public lavatories at the Y.M.C.A. have been repainted and put in splendid condition. It is to be hoped those using them will not deface the walls again.

The returns from the salvage collected for May amounted to $360.

The steady contributions help to assure you have your salvage ready when the wagon calls on Saturday.

A meeting of the School Board called for Tuesday evening was unable to transact the business of engaging teachers and arranging for renovation at the school because there were not sufficient members present for a quorum.

Mortimer Clarke, 33, proprietor of a service station at Norval, was killed when he attempted to jump on the running-board of a truck and fell beneath the wheels. The accident occurred on No. 7 highway. Clarke was single and lived with his parents.

WILD LIFE THRIVING

EDMONTON, Alta., (CP)—Official reports from Elk Island National Park near here indicate buffalo and elk are increasing rapidly and there were 50,000 visitors to the preserve last year.
