ROCKWOOD

A wedding of considerable interest to Rockwood citizens took place Saturday evening at the United Church. The platform was very simply arranged with a large V wrapped in red, white and blue ribbons flanked on both sides with standards bearing candles and surrounded with ferns and gladioli. Pews for guests were also marked with V's in red, white and blue ribbons.

Promptly at 8 o'clock the bride, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. McArthur, entered the church on the arm of her father to the strains of wedding music played by Mr. Gerald Clemens. She was attended by Miss Muriel Williamson, Rockwood and Miss Fern Hodgson of Port Hope, sister of the groom, cadet Ralph J. Hodgson of Brockville.

The bride was dressed in white, en-bossé organza over tulle in shepherdess style with bouffant skirt and slight train. During the ceremony the bride held a lace handkerchief, 150 years old, the gift of Rev. Dr. D. N. McNeil, officiating minister, who was assisted by Rev. George L. Haggans of Litchfield, Minn., uncle of the bride.

The groom was assisted by his brother, Mr. William Hodgson of Port Hope, and Nelson Hodgson, another brother and Donald McArthur, brother of the bride, who were ushers. During the signing of the register, Mr. Campbell McArthur sang "I Love Thee." Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride, which was decorated with gladioli and other flowers. Also a tiered cake flanked by candles was a pretty centre-piece for the bride's table.

For the reception Mrs. McArthur and Mrs. Hodgson were attired in floor length gowns of green silk crepe and white accessories and corsage of pink gladioli. French blue sheer in redingote style, white accessories, and corsage of white gladioli.

Later on the happy couple left amidst showers of confetti for their wedding trip to Eastern Canada. They will reside temporarily in Brockville where Cadet Hodgson is attending officers' training camp. He is an ex-student of O.A.G. Guelph.
