ROCKWOOD

A wedding of much interest took place in Rockwood United Church Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Miss Marion E. Day, R. N., only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Day was united in marriage to LAC. Milton G. Greer of Kara, with Rev. John Ward officiating.

The wedding was well set off with gladoli, ferns and a mixture of summer flowers. The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore a gown of bridal rose embroidered net over taffeta with sweetheart neckline on the bodice and bouffant skirt. Her matching sheer Mary Queen of Scots head-dress was embroidered with seed pearls and held her full finger-length veil. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and bouvardia. Mrs. Joseph Thurston of Toronto, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid and was dressed in forget-me-not sheer with draped bodice and redingote effect down the front of the full skirt. She wore a matching coronet of flowers from which fell a shoulder-length veil and carried a bouquet of pale pink roses with cornflowers. The groom was supported by his brother Mr. George Greer of Kara, (Ottawa district), and the ushers, brothers of the bride, Sgt. George Day of Guelph and Mr. Roy Day of Welland. The wedding music was played by Mr. Gerald Clemens and during the signing of the register Mrs. Fred Dav sang "Because."

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Y.W.C.A., Guelph, where the rooms were decorated with gladoli and sweet peas. The bride's table centered with a three-tiered wedding cake decorated with pastel sweet peas and flanked with tall ivory tapers. During the reception and receiving with the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. F. Day and Mr. and Mrs. James Greer, both Mrs. Day and Mrs. Greer were gowned in turquoise sheer with white accessories and corsage of Tallman roses and new-blue crepe with white accessories and corsage of pink roses.

Guests were present from Toronto, Ottawa, Kara, Axminster, North Gower, London, Guelph and Acton. During the evening the happy couple left amid showers of confetti on their wedding trip to eastern points. The bride travelled in a two-piece dress of turquoise crepe with ivory felt hat and navy accessories with corsage of sweetheart roses.

A deputation from the Georgetown Fall Fair Board, Messrs. Frank Patch and P. W. Cleave waited on council asking that the usual grant of $100 be increased if possible this year, due to a reduction in the county grant. Mr. Patch stated that some members of the County Council had taken the attitude that Milton Fair should be the only one held in the county, as a county fair, and were endeavoring to squeeze Acton and Georgetown out by reducing their grants this year by $50 each, and raising the Milton grant from $150 to $200. In order to offset this, the council to be as generous as possible. Council were unanimous in their opinion that Georgetown Fair was just as important to the people of this district, as Milton Fair was to the county town, and granted the Fair Board $125 this year.—Herald.
