Twenty Years Ago

From the Issue of The Free Press of Thursday, September 24, 1922.
The elderberry crop is ripening now.
The mercury climbed up to 85 in the shade on Tuesday.

There is not a particle of food or medicinal value in alcohol despite the slogans of brewers and distillers.
It is fitly compared to "grapes of gall," an oriental fruit known to the Arabs daily and expect shortly to increase this to 200 pairs.

Temporary Bins For West Crops
Officials Remind Prairie Grain Growers Storage Planning Essential
"BEAUNDON, Man., (CP) — A statement issued by the Dominion Experimental Farm here said that in view of the anticipated high grain yields some provision for storage of grain is essential to Manitoba farmers.

Variety in Age
Ages of those sent out ranges from 10 to 82. The minimum ages in the Farm-ette and Farm Cadet Brigades is 16 and 14 respectively, but younger children could be registered if their parents placed them.
The cadets and farm-ettes existed for a period ranging upward from three weeks.

DEED
ANDERSON — At Hartney, Manitoba, on Sunday, August 20, 1922, Christina Keith, widow of the late Joseph Anderson, formerly of Acton, aged 73 years.

Many Camps
Minimum wages were 20 to 22 cents an hour, and in cases where piecework was done, the pay was set to average 20 cents except for the young workers.

From Overseas
For some civilians now in Canada, war at first hand is no new experience. These are the 60-odd men, women and children repatriated from the Far East under an exchange agreement with Japan.

Women Dentists R.A.F. Officers
Take Usual Military Training Before Going Into Practice
LONDON, (CP) — The R.A.F., alone among the fighting services, now commissions women dentists. They take the same preliminary training course as joining and learn their marching, saluting and R.A.F. etiquette before settling down to chairs and drills and the thing of dentistry.

LAST 30- FEET WORST
LONDON, (CP) — Sgt. Observer Alec Fuller, 25, writing to his mother from a German hospital, described how he baled out of his plane at 10,000 feet. He landed in the top branches of a tree, safe and sound, and then he fell 30 feet to the ground and broke his foot.

Restoring Light For Day Signals
London's Restrictions Moderated For Sake of Safer Driving
LONDON, (CP) — Full day lights have been restored to all traffic standards in London for daylight use because drivers have complained the blackout lights — a small cross of light allowed through the centre of the light covering — are hard to see in daylight. At blackout time a policeman pulls down the regular metal blackout frame over the lights.

"Any old tires and tubes" That's one of the questions being asked the Canadian public from coast to coast by National Salvage Committee officials. Collectors are busy in rural areas too getting in those old tires, hot water bottles, bathing caps and anything else made of rubber. Those old rubber-tire dockside buffers are needed too, no matter how long they've been in the water. Every salvage boat is a knock at Hitler.
