DR. W. H. LOWRY LEAVES $146,030 ESTATE TO KIN

Weekly War Commentary (Continued from Page One)

NAVED BY A MIRACLE STOCKHOLM, (CP)—The world's few countries... including Sweden...

THE PEOPLE'S WAR! FIGHT WITH ALL THAT IS IN US

"We'll have a real nest-egg after this war!"

OUR FAMILY went through hard times once. It taught us that you can't keep your independence without foresight and sacrifice.

They're safe. And they're an investment every Canadian should make. Why? Because they help equip our fighting men to protect everything we've got.

Oh for the touch of a vanished hand And the sound of a voice that is still...

Just another week until the big local event of the year—Acton Fair.

Brampton Fair reported a big attendance on Monday. It was an ideal day for an outing.

The Jewish New Year is being observed on Friday, Saturday and Sunday of this week.

The big Bingo and lucky draw on Saturday night in the Town Hall will be the big event of this week.

The three-day rain of this week maintained the season's record for maintaining ample moisture.

Prizes for the gentlemen's road race at Acton Fair are $25 and $15.50 as given in the prize list.

Georgetown and Fergus Fairs on Sept. 11 and 12 will be attractions for many from this district on this week-end.

A notice in another column tells of a power shortage. Everyone can help by following the rules suggested in this item.

If your Free Press label is not up to date we are here six days a week and two evenings to help you modernize it.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jones received a cablegram Sept. 8th from Sigmund Frank Jones stating he has arrived safely overseas.

Fall Fair prize lists may be secured either from the Secretary C. B. Swackhammer or at Symon or Talbot's Hardware stores or at The Free Press Office.

After September 15th, it is illegal to retain, except by permit, any obsolete machine which is not serving a useful purpose.

Thirty-two boys are taking the patrol leader's course at the Blue Springs Reserve this week.

Brampton police were able to locate a pocket case containing registration cards, car permits, etc., which ex-Reeve Amos Mason had taken from his pocket while attending Brampton Fair on Monday.
