The program consisted of dancing and eucbre until the lunch hour, when Mr. Mansel Nellis called the meeting to order and Andrew E. Watson read the address and at the proper time Mr. Duncan Moffat made the presentation of a beautiful wrist watch.

Bloomshury, S. S. No. 9, September 9th, 1942.

Dear Dirk: Your friends and neighbors from Bloomshury and district have gathered here to spend a few hours with you before your furlough is over.

You may be sure Dirk, that those of us at home, will be thinking of you wherever you go, and we hope that you may be granted courage, strength and fortitude to carry on, in this fight for liberty and freedom. We all realize the danger that faces our land and are proud of you and our boys, who are making great sacrifices to defend it.

We miss you at our social gatherings and in our literary society where your willingness to help was an encouragement to your group and was much appreciated by all. Your pleasant personality will be missed from the community and home, while you are away and it is our sincere wish that you will soon be back in our midst to stay.

As a slight token of our esteem we ask you to accept this gift from the home folk who wish you luck and safe return.

Signed on behalf of the community, AUBREY E. WATSON, DONALD FERGUSON, DUNCAN MOFFAT, MANSELL NELLIS.

Although taken by surprise, Dirk made a very fitting reply, thanking all for the kind words spoken and the beautiful gift.

The Dublin Women's Institute, through Mrs. Dalton Barber then made Dirk the presentation of a box of stationery, a pair of socks and tube of shaving cream for which Dirk expressed his deep appreciation for the gift which was followed by everyone joining in singing "For he's a jolly good fellow."
