ilt's 714-40 in CBC's Vancouver studios and Producer Helen Argue is about to raise ther dinger to give the cue that will bring Lean Pommers and his original plane stylings to the listeners of Canada. Leon Rommers is the brilliant young Rolish planist whose musical life began in Warsaw under impressive auspices. He has been in Canada less than a year and already he has created an enthusiastic following with his coast-to-coast daily piano features. Helen Argue, a mative of Saskatoon, came to the GBC in Toronto as staff planist in 1935. For several years she was in charge of artist auditions, becoming assistant to John Adaskin. Last summer she was appointed one of the few women radio producers in Canada when she joined the staff of SBR. Vancouver. She is a musician of considerable understanding and ability and as such is responsible for a number of West Coast musical originations.
