NASSAGAWEYA

S. S. No. 7

The June meeting of the Busy Bees S. S. No. 7 Club met at the home of Mrs. C. E. Davenport. The roll call was answered by all presenting quilt blocks which showed busy fingers during the month.

Some of the financial report showed that a sum of $70 was on hand for donations, which was allotted $15 to the British Distress Fund, Evening Telegram; $15 to the Navy League, Acton; and $25 to the War Service League, Acton. A committee was chosen to sort patches for certain quilt patterns chosen by the following ladies nominated as a committee: Mrs. George Robinson, Mrs. J. Frank, Mrs. Wm. Service and Mrs. W. Kennedy.

Some lovely old time patterns were shown during a quilt making discussion.

Mrs. Wallace gave a humorous reading "One of Those Days." Mrs. J. Kennedy and Mrs. Wallace were convener for the dance during June. A quilt was quilted during the day and Mrs. J. Frank sponsored a vote of thanks to the hostess for the lovely lunch, the use of her home and her hospitality. Mrs. E. Little offered her home for the July meeting.

Mrs. W. Kennedy had a quilting for the Busy Bees last Tuesday and Mrs. Lawrence King is having one this Wednesday.

Fred Bearis of Rosedale met with an accident when delivering flowers from the greenhouse there to Toronto. The truck turned over from a tire blow-out and Fred is in St. Joseph's Hospital, Toronto, suffering from a fractured shoulder. His companion in the truck was unhurt. We hope Fred has a speedy recovery.

The dance in Brookville Hall sponsored by the Busy Bees last week was not quite as successful as the one before owing to a presentation party held in the neighboring community. Many familiar faces were missed, but the Busy Bees were pleased with the profit of the night as every little bit counts when it is turned over to help those less fortunate.

We are pleased to report that little Jimmie Frank is recovering after suffering with pneumonia.

Mrs. Stewart and her pupils are busy planning a community picnic to end the school term.

Mr. Irwin Little is under the doctor's care. We hope he'll soon be well again.

Mrs. Robert Stewart spent the week-end at her home in Hespler.

NASSAGAWEYA

Nassagaweya lost one of its most highly respected residents in the person of Mrs. Thomas Neas who passed away on Wednesday morning June 26th, in her 77th year after suffering a paralytic stroke about three weeks before. The funeral which was held on Friday afternoon June 21 was attended by a large gathering of friends and neighbors. The funeral service was conducted by the pastor Rev. Forbes Thomson of Knox Presbyterian Church, Acton, with interment in Fairview Cemetery, Acton. The many beautiful floral tributes bore testimony to the high esteem in which she was held by her many friends. She leaves to mourn her loss one daughter, Miss Mimmie at home and two sons, Alex. Reeve of Nassagaweya and William M. of Kitchener, also three grandchildren, Margaret, William and Audrey Near of Kitchener. To all the bereaved ones, the sympathy of the community goes out to them in their bereavement.

Miss Fines was secretary of Cedarvale branch prior to her moving to Osprince.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson and baby son visited on Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Thompson, Hillsburg.

After many months of suffering, three passed away on June 25th, one of the older residents of the village, in the person of Annie Elizabeth Kirkwood, eldest daughter of the late James and Agnes Kirkwood. Born in Erin township she had spent all her life in this community. As a girl her parents farmed on the Second Line on the farm now owned by Mr. Earl Smith, from there she attended Greenock School. Over twenty-eight years ago they left the farm and retired to the village.

The deceased had led a very active life, her garden and flowers were of great interest and comfort to her. Many homes were brightened and gladdened by bouquets from her garden. Of late years her health had not permitted any strenuous labor, but she was able to busy herself with knitting for the Red Cross.

The funeral was held on Tuesday with a brief service at the home followed by a service in the Osprince Presbyterian Church with Rev. Mr. Turner of Hillsburg and Rev. Mr. Rees of Erin in charge. The floral tributes were carried by nieces and nephews, Mrs. Wm. Barden, Miss Jean Kirkwood, and Misses James Brydon and Elmer McKinnon. Interment was made at Coningsby Cemetery, with Messrs. John Aitken, D. B. McKinnon, J. Struthers, R. S. McCutcheon, D. Stewart and G. Renick acting as pall bearers.

ONTARIO ELECTIONS
Active Service Voters!

Members of the Naval, Military or Air Forces of Canada who are on duty outside the Province at the date of any election to the Legislative Assembly of Ontario, who are British subjects and who were resident in Canada for three months and in Ontario for thirty days prior to the date of their enlistment are entitled to appoint an agent to vote for them at any election to the Legislative Assembly.

The Proxy vote cast for an Active Service Voter must be polled for a candidate in the Electoral District in which the Active Service Voter resided for at least thirty days prior to his enlistment.

The Agent authorized to vote for an Active Service Voter must be entitled to vote in the same Electoral District and must be of the full age of twenty-one years.

Agents holding appointments as Proxies for Active Service Voters must apply to the Returning Officer for their Electoral District for confirmation of their appointment.

There is no age qualification for the Active Service Voter.

An Agent may hold any number of appointments from voters who are within the degree of relationship to him (or her) of wife, husband, sister, brother, parent or child.

An Agent may hold only one appointment from a voter who is not within such degree of relationship.

It is recommended that relatives and friends of members of the Forces who qualify according to the conditions cited above, and who are serving outside Ontario, forward appointment forms to such members in order that they may be completed and returned in readiness for use at the next election to the Ontario Legislature.

Appointment forms may be secured on application to the undersigned.
