

COMMUNITY SPIRIT

It's called "Community Spirit." This lovely, priceless thing...

In poorest village it abides As well as in the largest town...

It's heard in the morning greeting Of friend across the street...

To lonely strangers in its fold It gives a friendly hand...

A man boasts long of his "home town" Not for riches in it...

Canadian Corps Fought its Last Set-Piece Action of the First Great War at Valenciennes

By JOHN C. MCWITT (Canadian Press Staff Writer)

It was in the vicinity of Valenciennes in Northern France on November 1st, 1918, that the Canadian Corps fought its last set-piece action of the First Great War...

It was exclusively a 4th Division action, with the 10th and 12th Infantry brigades chiefly participating...

After taking Cambrai three weeks earlier, the Canadians advanced to Valenciennes with retreating German troops offering little opposition...

Work of the 12th Brigade in cleaning out Valenciennes was noteworthy in that they had to labor without the aid of artillery since the place was full of inhabitants...

The formal rechristening of the street in Valenciennes was made to synchronize with the pilgrimage of Canadian servicemen and officers to the Vimy Ridge memorial in July, 1926.

Less than a week after the Canadian victory at Valenciennes and while German troops were in full retreat throughout France, an enemy armistice delegation reached the Allied lines...

Local child health conferences, in which voluntary community agencies might co-operate, would be useful features in observance of National Immunization Week...

Chronicles of a Ginger Farm

Written Specially for The Acton Free Press by GWENDOLINE F. CLARKE

Off-hand, I don't suppose anyone would admit that there could be any thrills in the chicken business...

Then comes the time when the biggest and boldest of the cockerels experiments with his first crow...

I have been watching our pullets with the greatest interest this last little while...

My city visitors have come and gone and thank fortune, the weather was kind so that I was able to keep them comfortably warm...

Girl Mail Driver A Real Sourdough

U. S. Army Postman Laughs at Alaskan Snows and Ruffled Roads

JUNEAU Alaska, (CP) - An officer of the Alaska Defense Command asked Rusty Dow how she liked handling a job...

"Of all our free country, this is the freest with the most peace."

The proudest day of all for the popular red-haired driver of an Army Engineers mail truck was when the engineers gave her a job three years ago...

"I like the engineers because they get lots done, when the going's hardest, pioneering," she said.

Borrow, If Necessary, To Raise More Food

Farmers raising war foods, supplying all kinds of products for export to the fighting fronts, may find it necessary to borrow at the Bank to cover their extra requirements.

It is the policy of the Bank of Montreal, at all of its branches, to co-operate at all times with farmers, and especially at the present time when their work is so essential to the war effort.

Do not hesitate to talk in confidence with our nearest branch manager regarding your need for credit.

NEW YORK (CP) - An American woman's wife started a minor epidemic of Bible-reading not long ago with a letter to her husband calling his attention to Deuteronomy 24: 5.

"I thought you might be interested in the subject named man, newly married, having called my attention to reference (a)."

As the memorandum made its way through the official channel, there were many sudden calls for the chaplain's Bible and "reference (a)."

Have You Purchased Your Limit of Victory Bonds?

"Speed the Victory" is Theme of Nation-Wide Rail Display

Two support the campaign for the Fifth Victory Loan, public display space throughout Canada from coast to coast reserved for the Canadian National Railways is now being filled with colorful material inviting all who look and read to buy bonds.

Illustrated above is the principal display used in large station structures; on top, is a graphic picture of National Railways motive power department men employed at one of the big roundhouses who clambered on the railway "band wagon" as eager bond purchasers; at the right, is the reproduction of a poster displayed to members of the National System family in all offices, shops and roundhouses carrying a message from R. C. Vaughan, chairman and president, reading: "I am confident that the men and women of the Canadian National System will break all their previous records in buying the Bonds of Canada's Fifth Victory Loan and so hasten Victory."
