The Warden's Dinner was this year held at "The Estaminet" in Burlington. The menu served at the dinner was in keeping with the high standard for which the place is known.

About eighty guests attended. Mr. W. J. This address of Mr. Cleaver's gave such a splendid insight into the problems of to-day and how he believes they will be met that we plan next week to publish a synopsis of the address.

The toust to the Ex-warden was proposed by Mr. W. Y. Dick, Crown Attorney and Mr. Geo. It. Harris of Burlington, and Mr. II. Cleaves of Georgetown responded.
